The plan was drawn up at the rest department at the request of Prest-dent Coolidge, to whom it was sub-mitted today by the war secretary. If it receives the president's approval it will be transmitted to congress, which alone has authority to confer the privileges recommended. The advancement proposed for Cap-tain Smith would equal approximately 13 years of service in the line of cap-tains and would place him among officers of that grade whose names approximate of the promotion list for the promotion list for manager.
