

Youthful Skaters to Compete in Elimination Trials at Four Parks Today

Non-Winners at Other Parks May Participate

Gaylor Hower to Represent Kountze Park in Two Classes in Finals at Fontenelle Park.

JUDGING from the class of skating being exhibited at the various park trials, the determination of the Omaha Bee city championship tournament at Fontenelle park, Sunday, January 23, there will be tough competition in the finals of the juvenile and junior divisions of the meet.

Yesterday Johnny Dennison of amateur baseball fame, who is assisting the Omaha Bee sports department in staging the meet, held elimination trials at Kountze park rink. A large entry list in both the boys' and girls' classes was on hand when Dennison arrived at the park.

To Gaylor Hower, 12-year-old steel blade performer who lives at 1801 Evans street, goes the honor of representing Kountze park in both the under 14 and under 16 years of age classes for boys at Fontenelle one week from tomorrow.

Young Hower didn't have much trouble winning the race for boys under 14 years of age, but when it came to the race for boys under 16, Gaylor found the going a little tough. Jack Lammars, 4122 North Twenty-first street, had this race pretty well in the sack when he fell about three yards from the line. Young Hower was trailing Lammars and when the latter fell Gaylor sprinted out and topped the heat and race.

Little Miss Helen McKenna, 2012 Emmet street, won all of the events for the girls. She easily won the under 14 class and then led all the field in the under 16 division. She is 13 years old and is liable to give little Marie Cox, Kountze park champion, plenty of competition in the finals.

Dennison will visit Miller park at 10 o'clock this morning to hold elimination races for boys and girls. At 11:30 Dennison will be at Fontenelle, while he will visit Gifford at 2 p. m. and Turner park at 4 p. m.

Boys and girls who are 16 years of age and younger can enter the races at any of the four parks today. No matter if you were unable to win at either Hanson, Riverview or Miller park you are allowed to enter any of the trials this morning and afternoon. If you fall at Miller park this morning go over to Fontenelle and then to Gifford and Turner. You are allowed to compete at any of the four parks, don't forget that.

The big city championship finals will be held at Fontenelle on Sunday, Jan. 25. Don't forget that, either. The juvenile and junior boy and girl winners at Hanson, Riverview, Kountze, Miller, Fontenelle, Gifford and Turner parks will compete for handsome prizes and gold medals in the big finals.

The men and women skaters over 16 years of age can enter the big finals the day of the races at Fontenelle. You must, however, fill out one of the entry blanks that appear on the sport pages of The Omaha Bee.

William S. Hart's Stories Fail to Agree With Wife

Two-Gun Bill Appears Nervous in Court; Stops to Kiss Baby Before Leaving Court.

Los Angeles, Jan. 16.—William S. Hart, "two gun bill" of the moving pictures, and his wife, Winifred Westover Hart, from whom he is separated, today in superior court here gave their first authenticated version of what killed home fires on the family hearth on May day, 1922.

The stories of the two failed to tally in many respects. The occasion was the court's demand for testimony to decide whether the separation agreement which bars Mrs. Hart from the screen and which she is attempting to break was an "agreement in restraint of trade."

Mrs. Hart said their first tiff occurred May 1, 1922, following a disagreement between herself and Hart's sister, Mary.

Hart admitted that his first intimation of trouble came on that date, but flatly denied knowledge of a disagreement between his wife and his sister.

Mrs. Hart testified that Hart frequently impounded her to go to Reno and get a divorce. Hart denied it.

Mrs. Hart, although she wept off and on during her examination and cross-examination, was generally composed.

Hart Appears Nervous

Her husband, on the other hand, appeared ill at ease, unaccustomed to "appearing in public," and frequently found his legs too long to cross comfortably as he gave his version of family affairs in a drawing room.

$50,000 Asked as Heart Balm

Creston Man Alleges Wealthy Bachelor Alienated Wife's Affections.

Creston, Ia., Jan. 16.—William Schultz, Creston, filed a petition in district court in which he seeks to recover heart balm in the sum of $50,000 from Michael Follman, a wealthy bachelor of Adair county.

The petition recites that even while Mr. and Mrs. Schultz were living together Follman carried on a secret correspondence with the wife. This was while the Schultz were residents of Garwood, Tex. He alleges that Mrs. Schultz came to Iowa to visit relatives, as he supposed, when in fact she went to Bridgewater, where she remained at a hotel where Follman made his home.

Mrs. Schultz filed a petition for divorce in September, 1924, while Follman was rooming and boarding at the Schultz home in Creston. Mr. Schultz alleges that Follman stole away the love of his wife, has caused the home to be broken up and asks the court to give him judgment for the amount stated.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two teaspoonful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirin is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold remedy for children as well as adults. Quick relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night.

South Cagers Defeat North

Both fighting desperately to offset previous defeats, South High put on a thrilling basket ball exhibition yesterday in the Packer gym. However, with heavy odds favoring them, the Red and White triumphed and the Northmen went to the showers under a 31 to 13 count.

The Packers took the lead in the first quarter and easily held it until the last whistle, but the North Omaha lads put up a bitter and game fight. Coach Patton's men, with weight and experience, beat down the Jackson men's defense and enabled them to take the contest without extending themselves fully.

Coach Patton started the game with a new lineup, but his players were soon shifted around to their old places with Hoden at center and Reeves at guard.
