"WHY I SHOP AT KILPATRICK'S"

That confidence which comes from the certain knowledge that you are in the hands of friends; that assurance which comes through the fact that those who seek to serve you are possessed of an expert knowledge of the wares they vend; that faith which rises in response to sales efforts which are based on honesty of representation rather than eagerness to register additional sales; that complacency which follows a purchase made in a store which makes room for no inferior merchandise.

I know that it is your intention that all transactions shall be fully satisfactory to the customer, and they are. It is your desire that the honesty of the management be reflected in the conduct of your employees, and it is. It is your purpose to serve courteously the humble and haughty alike, and you do. These are the compelling reasons "Why I buy at Kilpatrick's".
