Mrs. Edwin Gould With Her Wedding Attendants

Miss Josephine Platner, Miss Ruth Miller, Mrs. Edwin Gould, Miss Lillian Head, Mary McIntyre, Miss Flora Shukert

At the wedding of Miss Onolee Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mann, and Edwin Gould, son of the William Goulds, the bride wore a svelte crepe made with a rose point lace yoke.

Her attendants, Misses Josephine Platner, Ruth Miller, Flora Shukert, and her maid of honor, Miss Lillian Head, wore georgette frocks out with circular skirts, and close fitting bodices.

The bridesmaid's gowns were in peach shades, and Miss Head's was amethyst in tone. Each girl wore the gift of the bride, a crystal choker.

The little flower girl, Mary McIntyre, wore a pale blue taffeta frock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould are in Kansas City on their honeymoon and they will make their home in Lincoln after March 15.

The bride is a princess of Ak-Sar-Ben, and member of the Matinee Musical and Smith College clubs.

A 5 o'clock dinner featured the occasion. Charity club members gathered at the home of Mrs. R. C. Byers on Wednesday for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Guests of the party were Mrs. J. H. Byers and Mrs. Frank Hollenbeck.

The Bachelor Girls' club was entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Miss Margaret Somers on Thursday.

The Kin club surprised Mrs. Harry Struve Tuesday afternoon with a delightful supper previously prepared, followed by a Kensington, in honor of Mrs. Struve's birthday.

Seventy-five were present at the Elks' club card party Tuesday afternoon. Miss Naomi Turner won first honor, with Mrs. W. A. Adams taking second.

Mrs. Dale Milliken and Mrs. Arnold Talbot were hostesses at a 1 o'clock luncheon today at the Milliken residence.

Athletes' Dinner at "Y." Athletic association of the Y. W. C. A. will have a get-together Wednesday, February 25, with supper at 6:30. Mrs. Charlotte Townsend Whitcomb will be the speaker.

Any girl in the health education department may belong to the Athletic association. Registrations for supper must be made by Tuesday evening, February 24.

Fremont Society

Fremont, Neb., Feb. 21.—An attendance record was set for the Fremont Woman's club regular meetings this week when the assembly room at Hotel Pathfinder was crowded to capacity in honor of Miss Louise Pound of the University of Nebraska and Mrs. Leonora Burchette Van Kirk, head of the music department of Cotner college.

In addition to the members present the high school English classes attended the meeting in a body. Miss Pound, sister of Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard university, is herself the author of a number of text books. For 15 years she has collected western traditional songs. She assisted Mrs. Van Kirk in the presentation of ballads.

A letter from Bess Streeter Aldrich, Nebraska's authoress, was read by the president. A committee composed of Mrs. Dan V. Stephens, Mrs. M. C. Garrett and Mrs. A. H. Waterhouse, was named to send letters to congressmen and senators from this district urging their efforts in behalf of America's entrance into the world court.

Mrs. David Fowler was appointed chairman of a committee to co-operate with Mrs. Wisard, high school teacher, in sponsoring the Y. W. C. A. at the high school. The next regular meeting of the club on March 2 will bring the annual election of officers.

Members of the Lewis-Clarke D. A. R. chapter gave a benefit party at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Laird, regent, this afternoon. The proceeds of the party were given to the patriotic educational fund. The reception committee was composed of Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Burt May and Mrs. Merrel Shepherd. Mrs. M. C. Garrett presided as chairman of the refreshments committee.

The Business and Professional Woman's club held one of its most enjoyable meetings Monday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Baggy Knees?

We'll take 'em Out!

Baggy knees are found occasionally in even the best of pants. But they'll quickly go and the original smart lines will return if you'll let us shape your clothes by our new Valetaria pressing method.

The Valetaria Method requires six different machines for pressing a suit—collar, shoulder, knees, etc., are "shaped" to fit the body on a machine designed for that purpose.

Phone us for Valetaria Service—We'll call for and deliver your garments.
