

Bullish Fever in Wheat Pits High and Prices Mount July Wheat Leads Upward Trade and Close Is at Best Levels Reached; Trade Much Broader.

By CHARLES J. LEYDEN, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Feb. 26.—The wheat pit today ran high as the public view of the market responded to healthier export developments, which indicated that the supplies abroad would be ample for the coming season.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Omaha Grain

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Omaha Livestock

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Many Issues in Stock Market Go to High for Year

By RICHARD SHILLINE, Universal Service Financial Editor. New York, Feb. 26.—Until a short time ago the close of the stock market today displayed consistent strength in some of the important groups, particularly the metals, the rails and the motor.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

New York Curb Market

New York, Feb. 26.—Chief speculative interest in today's curb market centered in the industrial shares which developed several strong spots on a large volume of trading.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

New York Bonds

New York, Feb. 26.—Bond trading today was somewhat restricted by expectations of an increase in the local reserve banks, although the advance was not announced.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

New York Quotations

New York, Feb. 26.—Stock prices continued to show a general upward trend, with many issues reaching new highs for the year.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Omaha Produce

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Receipts

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Prices

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Receipts

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Receipts

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Receipts

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Receipts

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Domestic Bonds

New York, Feb. 26.—Domestic bonds were active and prices advanced in many instances. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Wheat closed 4 1/2c higher, corn 1/4c higher, and soybeans 1/4c higher. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Receipts for the week were 1,100,000 bushels of wheat, 1,200,000 bushels of corn, and 1,500,000 bushels of soybeans. The market is expected to remain bullish for some time.

Chicago Stock

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Chicago stock prices were mixed, with some gains in the industrial sector. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

New York Sugar

New York, Feb. 26.—New York sugar prices were steady, with some fluctuations in the futures market. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Chicago Cotton

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Chicago cotton prices were active, with prices advancing in many instances. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

Boston Wool

Boston, Feb. 26.—Boston wool prices were steady, with some fluctuations in the futures market. The market was characterized by a number of large transactions, and the leading commission houses reported a very active day.

OMAHA OFFICE PHONE, At lantic 6312 LINCOLN OFFICE PHONES) Local, B 1233 Long Distance, 120 WE HAVE Private Wire Service to All Principal Markets OMAHA KANSAS CITY LINCOLN CHICAGO Experienced Efficient Reliable Updike Grain Corporation