Stellers Faces Assault Charge

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee

Hastings, Neb., March 25 .- Complaint charging assault with intent cill was filed today against Fred Stellers, who has confessed attacking the four members of the Weirt Meester family early Monday.

Stellers has retained J. E. Willits, who defended Donald Ringer as counsel, and it is understood a plea of insanity is being considered. The atcorney said he found him badly confused today. He said Stellers told him me one gave him a drink the night of the attack, and that he didn't renember much after that. Elsie Meester developed symptoms threatening neningitis last night, but was much improved today and her paralysis appeared to be diminished.

Mother in Germany Searching for Her

Daughter in America Lanham, March 25 .- A hunt is on here for a daughter whose mother in Germany has not heard from her for 15 years. A letter was Kan., just south of here, which received by A. W. Christie, Burlington station agent of Hanover, was written in Germany by the aged mother ten days ago. It was addressed to "Station Master, Railway Station, Hanover by Lanham, Norde Amerika, Nebrasky." It was forwarded here, and it is thought that the mother will have her wish gratified and the daughter be lothe mother to write her request in English on the back of the letter, but it appeared like she had used a German-English dictionary, and wrote down the literal translation word for word, and the grammatical positions of the translations in English were so jumbled that it was hard to understand. coupons of some kind were enclosed for return postage on the the woman solicited, and Agent Christie kept them for souvenirs and will pay postage back on the letter.

The mother's name is "Mrs. So phie Erckemeyer" and she gave her address as Kanolke, Hanover, Germany. The daughter came to Gage county, Nebraska, in 1910, it is learned, and soon thereafter married Henry A. Barnshee, formerly a farmer located between Lanham and Hanover. Barnshee moved from here to Missouri in 1915, and he is being traced back to Kansas, where it is thought he will be found in a few days.
