CHARGES Made on Your April Bill

—the Floor Coverings —the Draperies

Only in the course of many years do we find it possible to radically cut the prices on Standard Rug Lines—the purchase of the Smith stock, however, presents such an opportunity, and Monday we shall open the biggest floor covering sale in our history.

No "comparative prices" are marked on the rugs because the grades are so well known to the public, and the prices so low that anyone can see at a glance the paramount value of any rug in the sale.

The Drapery Stock in this sale is very large and varied, presenting hundreds of the newest things for Spring; this because the M. E. Smith receiver was appointed while large shipments were in transit. In order that you may have some idea of the values offered in this sale we are using "comparative prices" but we have been very careful to quote only the lowest regular prices we know of and where the reduction is more than 50% we have hesitated to use such a comparison. At the same time the public is entitled to know that the sale prices are considerably below M. E. Smith & Co.'s wholesale prices.
