

IN THE OMAHA NIGHT SCHOOLS

A total of 1,674 students attend classes in 14 night schools in Omaha. The schools at which classes are held on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings are Brown Park, Comenius, Farnam, Kellom, Long, Mason, Saerman, South Franklin, South High, Train, West Side, Benson High and South Side city hall. All photos by Louis R. Boatwick.

All ages attend this class at West Side school.

A class in citizenship at Kellom school.

Comenius, where many of the beginners learn their first words of English.

Farnam is another school which has large night classes. Here are two of the Farnam school classes.

Mothers bring their children to the night class at Brown Park

Kellom school has the largest night class in the city. It numbers 200.