

Harry M. Snodgrass, his wife and son. "King of the Ivories" is the title they gave Snodgrass, when he gained his fame playing the piano over radio station WOS at Jefferson City, Mo. It was through the intervention of his radio hearers that Snodgrass was released from the Missouri penitentiary where he was serving a term for a minor offense. Snodgrass, who is headlining at the O'pheum theater this week, is assisted by J. M. Witten, who was announcer at Station WOS.

Warner Baxter, Mary Baun and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. in "The Air Mail," the feature attraction at the Strand theater this week.

The latest. A cross word puzzle vanity case and bracelet.

Right. A Sadoo or Holy man of Hindu India, reclining in his hammock made of a plank with projecting nails, suffering tortures in silence as an offering to his God.

This frock made of 23,000 imitation diamonds weights forty eight pounds and requires the aid of a man to carry it about. The gown was made in Birmingham, England and costs about $650.

Married seventy five years. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Demarest, of Wyckoff, near Hackensack, N. J., who celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary recently. Elizabeth Jane Kules, a daughter is shown here with her parents.

Japanese malay sun bear at the Boston Zoo.

The "obsolete" and the defender of the future meet in the Panama Canal. The U. S. Drednaught, Wyoming, and a plane meet in the Gaillard Cut, Panama Canal.

Moffet or American lily sprouts from bulb in plate. The plant which is owned by Miss Madrid Sheets, is four years old and is the pride of Baltimore, Md. The stem of the plant is green, black and mottled and the flower is bell shaped, purple and red. The lily itself is 20 inches long and 14 inches wide.