Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the ac cumulated impurities, commonly call-ed uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, and made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely bar ished every sign and symptom of He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urg ing he decided to let sufferers every where know about his discover; through the newspapers. He therefore instructed the Beaton Drug Co. and druggists everywhere to dispense Allenchu with the understand ing that if his prescription does not banish every sign and symptom of the disease he will gladly return your
