PART THREE

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1925.

circus, there was a counter at them etc., etc., etc. traction running wide open, Just as prettily and twice as emunder its own steam before and dur. phatically she tells the others "Just ing the fashion promenade at the going out: So sorry. But my engageluncheon given by the Rotary club ment is pressing.. Sweet of you to poet tells us, and Gabby rises to reas a protection from prying peepers. so the balcony spectators who had

One locally famous matron had the binger of spring a homing. misfortune to present a double per- The owner recalled rather clearly put her up against Ann Pennington and all sorts of rosy dreams played any time." murmured a grateful ob- through his memory as word came server, and Gabby forgave the or- that it was being forwarded. chestra a few false notes, for the counter show was as much a distractold saw about counting your chick-cony had the forethought to drape one else who loved birdles, counted a scarf over the balcony rail. That it the swallows in the customs office, was a printed chiffon made the deed and all of them had flown on the none the less praiseworthy.

Every bride before her has tried dread Apache in a dance with Mrs. but it has remained for her to suc- Douglas Peters in last year's league ceed. She has taken residence in a performance, and this year to the palatial home, but to give a personal part of the minister in the "Enchanttouch she answers the door in per-son, beating the maid to it just a Players will present April 13 and 1 When the caller drifts at Mary Cooper's studio. in she finds her hostess charmingly Mr. Mallory is rated one of the confused, and also charmingly hits of the piece. Famous for his anteed to be amusing, she explains Parties for the show are being ar-prettily that she has just come in ranged by his friends.

mark that they are also unreliable as a protection from prying peepers, so the balcony spectators who had secured front row seats what with owner in Paris two months ago. Old their short skirts were themselves Dog Tray hisself couldn't have been more faithful than this silver har sonality. That of a bored gentlewo- considering he was in Paris when he man from the waist up. Below a lost it, that the flask had just been Mistinguett of the first water. "I'll refilled before the disaster occurred.

Alas, there is something in this ens before they are hatched. It's the One thoughtful group on the bal- same about swallows it seems. Someflask's arrival last week.

GABBY has heard of the eleverest bride in town. One who believes in women's rights. Not women's, 'Deed no. Just hers. drama, is the progress of Richard She has solved the "caller" prob Mallory, first as a chorus man with dressed, with hat, coat and gloves on, sense of humor he has given the part To the favored few who are guar- the skillful interpretation it deserves

Eashion Show on Its Own-Has She Done It to You? Flask Follows the Swallow?

Miss Emily Keller

Mrs. Marion Brando RINEHART- MARSDEN

Names of participants in the regal mitted. More than 400 couples are ex Party This Evening for the dames Henry Luberger, Victor Cald-ceremonies, will not be known until pected to attend. Misses Reed.

cturned this morning from six weeks in New York City and will be entertained informally with a picnic supper, at their home Aloha, which Denver this week to visit Mr

Guests will be Messrs, and Mes- her honor,

Stout, Emily Keller, Messrg, Jack

The Misses Erna and Peggy Reed Peacock, Tom Norris, Porter Allan. To Visit the Hendricks.

has been opened for the spring and Hendricks, who will give a luncheon at her home a week from Tuesday as

Book Club Wednesday.

The Book club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. Alfred Munger. Mrs. Harry Marsh will review Struthers. Mrs. George Manse will arrive from Burt's "Dudge Wrangler," and there will be readings from Barrie Marbell by Charles Vince and from Burt's short stories.

Drama League Elects Youngest President; Debut of Community Players April 13-14; Post Lenten Affairs Planned for Visitor

OUNGEST president in its history, Miss Emily Keller was chosen head of the Omaha Drama league at its , annual meeting and election of officers Saturday afternoon at the Blackstone hotel. She succeeds Mrs. Arthur Guiou, who has filled two successful terms in office.

Miss Keller has been prominently identified with the Drama league heretofore, having served the organization in various capacities. She was one of the first presidents of the Book club and has been a notable worker in the dispensary activities of the Junior league. Charming in manner and appearance, Miss Keller will be an attractive Serving with her will be Miss Kate McHugh as honorary president; vice presidents, Mrs. A. L. Reed, Mrs. George B. Prinz, Miss Belle Dewey and Mrs. J. J. McMullen; recording secretary, Mrs. Wayne Selby; corresponding şecretary, Mrs. Alfred J. Brown; treasurer, Mrs. O. T. Eastman.

Chairmen of committees named are: Education, Mrs. Martin Harris; courtesies, Mrs. James E. Davidson, house, Miss Erna Reed; auditing, Mrs. W. F. Baxter; membership, Mrs. L. J. Healey; distributing, Mrs. Victor Caldwell, jr.; publicity, Mrs. Arthur Guion; play and bulletin, Mrs. Mark Levings.

It is thought the policy of the new board will be to feature dramatic features rather than lecture numbers.

RS. ED C. EPSTEN has as her guest her sister, Mrs. James W. Cunningham of Rochester, N. Y., who will remain until June. At that time, Mr. and Mrs. Epsten and their sons, Robert and Thomas, will motor east with their guest, who will pass the summer at Birch Spa, the Cunningham summer home at Dwight, Ontario. The Epstens will visit in the east for about six weeks.

Mrs. Cunningham is proving to be a very interesting guest, having talents both inside and outside the home. She is a devoted golfer, and has artistic ability which has been directed to interior decorating. Mrs. Epsten plans to present her guest at a post-Lenten affair.

RS. MARLON BRANDO will play the leading role in "The Enchanted Cottage," about which even conservative critics are making extravagant prophecies. Mrs. Brando's individual style, her voice of pleasing quality and her experience in college dramatics, make her a real acquisition to the Community players, who are presenting this Pinero drama at the Mary Cooper studio, the nights of April 13 and 14.

In the supporting case are Miss Lucy Updike, Miss Ann Johnson, Miss Jane Fonda, Miss Grace Conklin and Messrs, Harry Cooper, Richard Mallory, Mark Levings, Lee Weber and L. C. Hawley.

Pupils of Miss Cooper will present the dance numbers and the West Sisters String quartet will play. Sale of seats has exceeded expectations. Only a few remain for the opening night and Tuesday night eservations are going rapidly. Among those who will entertain at the opening performance are Messrs, and Mesdames Thomas Metcalfe, W. F. Baxter, John W. Gamble, John McDonald, Gene Holland, J. D. Sandham, J. E. Rutter, Alan McDonald, E. R.

Houghton, Harry G. Shedd, Richard E. Bailey, Sidney R. Gordon, Victor B. Smith, Hirman Salsbury and T. R.

Cast Is Named for College Club Play

of Nebraska, who is directing the play, "Adam and Eve," which the Omaha College club is putting on for College Night, April 24, has an nounced the following cast:

Miss Howell plans to spend her entire vacation here next week directing the reheasals Proceeds of College Night go to the scholarship fund of the Omana College club. This fund is used for the se of providing scholarships in the different high schools of the city.

Comings, Goings of People You Know

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kemp have

C. B. Brown of Cincinnati is stopping at the Blackstone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buckingham have taken an apartment at the Bea-

Mrs. W. A. DeBord is expected bome April 15 from a trip to Hono-Miss Katherine Whitmore of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Harry Koch is confined to his apartment at the Blackstone with Mrs. James Chadwick has gone to New York to visit her son, John Chadwick ,and Mrs. Chadwick. Mrs./ R. F. Neir returned Friday from a winter in California with her daughter, Mrs. James L. Pray. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troyer will move May 1 into an apartment at Thirty-first and Pacific streets.

Mrs. George C. Meleryurgen and her daughter, Mrs. Herman Swoboda, will leave next week for a stay in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Miss Lucille Gillette of Lincoln is passing her spring vacation with Miss Marguerite Shrum, a sister in Phi Omega Pi, at the University of

Miss Phyllis Schurman has arrived from New York City and is with her parents, the Otto Schurmans, and her sister, Mrs. Wallace Spear, for spring vacation. Mrs. Cora Allen of Chicago, who was recently called home by the illness of her mother, has written to Omaha friends that her mother is much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Downs are week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Curtice, former Omahans in Columbus, O. They will arrive in Omaha April 9 after a visit in St. Louis with the Roland Gaupels.

Dr. R. Russell Best leaves today for Rochester, Minn., and Chicago where he will attend clinics. He will The Omaha Woman's Medical go on to Cleveland, O., Thursday society was entertained at dinner for the Anatomical convention. Dr. last night at Council Bluffs by Dr. W. N. Poynter will meet him there. Harriet S. Hamilton and Dr. Chris- Both will return a week from Moutine Erickson-Hill at the come of the day.

> Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale White have returned from a winter in the south. They passed a month in Palm Beach and Miami, and Mrs. White went to Boston for 10 days' visit Miss Carol Howard will entertain in her old home. Mrs. White alse at-Deltas Gamma bridge club on Wed-tended a reunion of her class at Smith college.

Mrs Ed O Epsten

Omaha Teachers in Follies Bigger and Brighter Show

Renowned for its scintillating per-ormances, the Omaha School Forum Mrs. T. J. Hansen Gives Tea will present its annual "Follies" in Technical High auditorium Friday, April 17. It promises to be a bigger, brighter and snappler show than ever, according to Miss Mary Phil- urday afternoon at the home of Mrs. lippi, chairman of the event. The T. J. Hansen, who was entertaining rogram, written, directed and play- in honor of Miss Mary Van Epps of ed by the teachers, has been short- Cleveland, and Miss Mary Hall ened to eight acts, each act repre- Lincoln, guests of Miss Martha Me centing a different department of the Auley, Mrs. Hansen's sister. chool system, from kindergarten to Those assisting were:

will Hetherington has organized a faculty orchestra of 20 pieces to supply the incidental music.

Misses
Dorothy Carmichaei Frances Wilson Audrey Kolkore Katherine Alleman Winifred McMarth Helen Briokman Mrs. Myron Hochstettler ply the incidental music. Tickets at 50 cents may be secured from the Forum representatives. The money will be used to send delegates to the National Educational associa-

In charge of the different events

General chairman, Miss Mary Phillippi, Beard of education, Mrs. Hazel Dunbar, Office administration and supervisory staff, Ira Jones and Leon Smith.
Principals, Miss Edna Reap,
High school, Mrs. Fred Ellis,
Elementary grades, Miss Dorothy Miller,
Kindergarian, Miss Dorothy Lyle,
Physical training and nurses, Miss June

Harriet S, Hamilton and Dr. Chr.
tine Ericksou-Hill at the Jome of the former. Cuvers were placed for:

Doctorz—

Mattle I, Arthur Amelia Brandt
Nora Fairchild Olga Stassiny
Martha Clark

tv. Miss Ethel Eldridge, ets. Miss Edith Wagner, licity, Miss Editabeth Butchleon, Delta Gamma Bridge Club. nesday at her home.

for Young Set.

One hundred fifty members of the

Omaha Medical Women

Entertained at Dinner.

Creighton Upper Classes Plan for Elaborate Prom Creighton university's annual jun- Coleman, publicity; Glenn Staley,

Mrs James W Punningham

social events, will be held in the university gymnasium Friday evening, chosen Art Randall's Royal orchestra April 24. The 1925 committee, which for the music. Permission is expected has been at work for many weeks, from the faculty, to allow dancing promises that this year's prom will until 3 o'clock. surpass in surprises and elaborate-will be the coronation of a king and city entertainments are planned. queen attended by a royal court. Only juniors and seniors will be adceremonies will not be known until pected to attend. the hour of coronation. Senior students from each college, prominent in social activities, will make up the ior senior prom, in late years the tickets; James Lovely, Oscar Doerr. most popular of the school's various o'Brien, decorations.

Edward Christie, president of the tained their bridge club last evening senior class in medicine, is chairman of the prom committee. Other members are Earl Dieter, secretary; Thomas Russell, treasurer; Tom Mr. George W. Summers.

The entertainment committee, has

A decorative scheme that will ness the most successful in Creigh- transform the gymnasium into a beautiful ballroom, new lighting ef-One of the outstanding features fects, distinctive favors, special nov-

> The Troyers Hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troyer enter