Chamber to Seek Friendly Negotiation—Julius Barnes Re-Elected Head.

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, O., May 8.—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in the final session of its 12th annual convention here today, pledged the whole-hearted support of organized business to efforts to bring about through friendly negotiations "the most amicable understanding" with Japan on the question of immigration.

Unanimous adoption without debate of a resolution embodying that stand occurred amid greater applause than greeted any other of the 26 expressions approved by the convention. The action grew out of passage of a similar resolution yesterday in the foreign commerce section.

President Julius H. Barnes, Duluth, Minn., grain merchant, and wartime director of the United States Grain corporation, was selected for the third time by the board of directors to head the chamber. Because of the pressure of private business, it was explained, Mr. Barnes desires to relinquish the post, but will act pending further action by the board.

Clark Named Director.
O. M. Clark, representing the Portland, Ore., chamber of commerce, who yesterday seconded the motion of Edward E. Filene of Boston against exclusion, was one of those elected to the directorate of the chamber today.

Touching upon other matters international in scope, the convention expressed "accord with the underlying sentiments and essential principles" of the experts' report on reparations; urged American support of the international court of justice through senatorial consent "to the proposal which has been made by the executive"; and prompt ratification by the United States of the treaty of Lausanne.

On questions of national policy, the report approved a constitutional amendment to permit federal highway appropriations for new construction on transcontinental routes through semi-desert regions of the public domain in the western states; economy in government through elimination of "uneconomic expenditures"; enactment of legislation for the encouragement of aeronautics; peace-time industrial mobilization for war, and the principle of workmen's compensation insurance. The proposal to alter the power of the federal supreme court to declare legislation unconstitutional was condemned.

Vice Presidents Elected.

An utterance on industrial relations reaffirmed the expression of the 1923 convention, which declared the right of open shop operation "an essential part" of the right of contract.
Lewis E. Pierson, New York, and John W. O'Leary, Chicago, were newly elected vice presidents. Thomas J. Wilson, Chicago packer who recently submitted his resignation as a regional vice president, was named with Charles F. West of Boston, an honorary vice president. All other officers were re-elected.

Seventeen directors nominated by balloting Monday were elected today, with the exception of Frederick J. Haynes, Detroit, whose name was withdrawn in favor of R. T. Moore of Shreveport, a senior member of the chamber, when the nomination of four men from the sixth district revealed a conflict with the bylaws. It was indicated that the new board at its first meeting would appoint Mr. Haynes to the vacancy created by Mr. O'Leary's advancement to the vice presidency.

Parties Big Aid in Government, Coolidge Says

Organization Necessary for Efficiency of Rulers, President Tells Women's "Political School."

Washington, May 8.—Party organization was declared to be necessary to efficient government by President Coolidge in an address at the White House today to students of a "political campaign school," conducted by the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia.

"It is necessary to have party organization if we are to have effective and efficient government," the president said. "The only difference between a mob and a trained army is organization, and the only difference between a disorganized country and one that has the advantage of a wise and sound government is fundamentally a question of organization."

Model of Country.

"I don't mean by that a narrow and bigoted partisanship, but one that recognizes the necessity to cooperate one with another if we are in any way to secure the result that we desire. That has been the model of our country from the time when it was established down to the present day."

"Men of the type of Lincoln and Grant, no less than the type of Cleveland and Wilson, have been loyal to their party, and desired to have party support and party government for the purpose of giving an efficient administration."

No Ideal Candidates.

"I have been in public life for some time, and I learned to say a long time ago that I was all through for ideal candidates for office," he said.

"They don't exist, and we have to make the best of what we have, for it is only in that way that we are able to make any progress."

"Get candidates that are just as near as the ideals as possible. That is what we always want, and after you have done that you can in the way of selecting a candidate, get the best results and do what you can to support the principles that that candidate represents. For after all, the desk of the senate secretary. He would not indicate what plans he might have for bringing the proposal up for action. But some of his republican colleagues on the committee suggested so many different world court proposals now are pending there that it might be difficult to get action on any of them at this session of congress.

LODGE HAS NEW WORLD COURT PLAN

Other Proposals Pending.

A subcommittee is in process of holding hearings on the Harding-Coolidge-Hughes proposal; Senator Swanson of Virginia, the ranking democrat on the committee, has pending a resolution along somewhat similar lines; and Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin; Senator Pepper, republican, Pennsylvania, and others have put in proposals either for adherence to the existing court or some other means of codifying international law.

For completeness of detail, however, there is no plan now before congress that approaches that presented by Senator Lodge. After prescribing all the ins and outs of the organization and procedure of the court, his resolution carries its own reservations—designating like the Lodge reservation to the league of nations to preserve the Monroe doctrine, to prevent any foreign trespass on American domestic questions, including immigration, and to preserve the traditions and independence of the nation.

It is provided specifically in one of these reservations that no case to which the United States is a party shall be submitted to the court except under the provisions of a definite agreement setting forth the exact scope of the questions to be decided and the precise extent to which the court may go.

Dudley Ordains Minister.

Plainville, Neb., May 8.—At the 40th annual meeting of the Elkhorn Association of Congregational churches and ministers, held at Plainville, W. Ewart Dudley was ordained. Dr. G. L. Diehl of Norfolk gave the charge to the candidates, Dr. F. E. Stemme, Alnsworth, the charge to the church. Rev. G. R. Birch of Stanton offered the ordination prayer and Rev. W. S. Bowden of Pierce the righthand of fellowship.

Suspect in Bond Theft Arrested With Bride, 23

Held for Loss of $2,200 in Securities From U. S. Trust—Tried to Sell Some Here.

C. A. Hess alias Jean Francis Guinn, 28 years old, of San Bernardino, Cal., and his 23-year-old bride of two days, who was Reta Arquetout of Terre Haute, Ind., were arrested at a local hotel today in connection with the theft of several thousand dollars in government bonds from an Omaha (Neb.) bank.

A marriage license in Guinn's pocket indicated the couple was married at Galesburg, Ill., Tuesday.

The coupons were stolen from a stenographer's desk while she was at lunch, according to police and private bank detectives, who said Hess would be returned to Omaha.

Largest Tree Felled.

Fairbury, Neb., May 8.—The largest tree in this section of Nebraska was felled last week for commercial purposes. The tree grew on Rose creek near Thompson on the farm of W. C. Buchmeier. Walnut trees grow slowly. This tree started its growth over half a century ago. It measured 38 inches through, contained 1,070 feet of lumber, weighed 7,200 pounds and was sold to a furniture dealer in Kansas City for $69.55 f. o. b. shipping point.

WYOMING ROAD NAMES OFFICERS

Laramie, Wyo., May 8.—At the first meeting of the board of directors of the Northern Colorado & Eastern Railroad company, which bought the property of the Colorado, Wyoming & Eastern railroad at a receivers' sale here, Fred B. Miller, the receiver, was named president; T. Callaway of New York, vice president; Carl M. Owen of New York, secretary and general counsel, and Howard T. Foster of Laramie, assistant auditor. It was announced today.

The road will be known for the present as the Northern Colorado & Eastern, but the directors have submitted to the Interstate Commerce commission a proposition to change the name to the Laramie, North Park & Western. The road extends from Laramie to Conlont, Colo., a distance of 112 miles.
