

H. P. Devalon, 79, Lining Head, Dies: Ill 10 Weeks

Pioneer Omaha Implement
Man and Prominent Mason
Succumbs; Masonic Funeral Friday at 2.

Harlan P. Devalon, president of Lining Implement company, died at 239 Wednesday afternoon at his apartment at the Elwood. He had been ill for 10 weeks.

Mr. Devalon was a pioneer of Omaha. Born in Ohio, September 21, 1845, he came to Nebraska in 1872. A few weeks later he entered the employ of Shugart, Lining & Weiss, implement dealers, at Council Bluffs. In 1874, he came to Omaha as a representative of this firm and in 1875, with George W. Lining, he organized the firm of G. W. Lining & Co., of which he was secretary-treasurer. This firm disposed of its business a few years later and in 1881, a new firm was organized under the title, Lining Implement company, the predecessor of the present Lining Implement company. Mr. Devalon was treasurer of these companies, successively, until he became president a year ago upon the death of Frank L. Haller.

Mr. Devalon was an active member of the Masonic order for many years. He was twice master of Capitol lodge and was also a past commander of Mt. Calvary commandery, Knights Templar. He volunteered in the Forty-seventh Illinois regiment just at the close of the civil war.

sister, Mrs. Mary Gridley. Immediate surviving relatives are two sisters, Mrs. Gridley and Mrs. Simon Sawyer, the latter of Lincoln, and a brother, L. W. Devalon, 2213 Locust street.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Frank G. Smith will be held at the Masonic temple at 2 Friday afternoon. Burial will be at Forest Lawn. Active pallbearers will be past masters of Capitol lodge, Honorary pallbearers will be: R. A. Leussler, John McDonald, Victor White, W. H. Head, George B. Thummel and Fred W. Thomas.

She Anchored Her Money to the Ground in OMAHA ---It Grew from $500 to $200,000.

The experience of Mrs. Cuthbert Vincent's investments in Omaha Real Estate is a story of how a $500 investment grew to investments worth over $200,000.

About 20 years ago, Mrs. Vincent bought three small houses on Michigan street (now Indiana avenue) between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets. She paid $4,200, paying $500 down. The rent paid the taxes, insurance and monthly payments, and created a small surplus.

She sold this property, after several months, for $5,700 cash.

She bought more Omaha Real Estate, and made money again. She continued her policy of buying Omaha Real Estate, using the income and sale profits to buy more property.

Today, Mrs. Vincent's holdings in Omaha Real Estate are valued at more than $200,000. She owns four pieces of property, each one nearly all paid for, and each one paying a handsome income over and above all carrying charges, including loan payments.

Mrs. Vincent now owns the half-block on the west side of Fortieth street, between Farnam and Harney, improved with flats and stores; the southwest corner of Twenty-sixth and Douglas, 150x152, improved with brick flats and a frame house; the northwest corner of Twentieth and Davenport, brick flat; block of Twenty-fourth street frontage between Evans and Pinkney, four duplexes, cottage and brick apartment.

Her Farnam and Douglas properties are now on 99-year leases, $125,000 valuation for the two, and a sale clause giving her $25,000 profit on each one in case of sale. She values her other two properties at considerably over $100,000.

Mrs. Vincent has never invested in anything except Omaha Real Estate.

Mrs. Vincent has never added a dollar to her original investment of $500, EXCEPT THAT WHICH SHE GOT FROM HER REAL ESTATE, INCOME AND SALES.

In her experience as an Investor in Omaha Real Estate, Mrs. Vincent has owned 37 different pieces of property. Or, 33 in addition to the four she now owns.

Her policy has been to make her properties pay all carrying charges, including monthly payments on loans.

Her policies can be adopted by any Real Estate Investor.

Another policy Mrs. Vincent followed consistently has been to DEAL AT ALL TIMES WITH A REALTOR.

"I have had dealings with several Realtors," Mrs. Vincent said, "and every deal has been satisfactory, and profitable. I always ask a Realtor's advice on my Real Estate transactions. It was a Realtor who originally persuaded me to become a Real Estate investor."
