SUIT BROUGHT

Chicago, May 29 .- Suit for $10,000 damages was filed today in superior by T. S McKenna part owner of the Sloux City (Ia.) baseball club against the Pittsburgh National league club, involving the sale of Roy Elsh, outfielder, who is now with the Chicago Americans. It is alleged that the Pittsburgh club agreed to purchase Elsh for $10,000 but a dispute arose causing ruling by Baseball Commissioner Landis that either the New York Americans or the Chicago Americans might purchase the player. Charles A. Comiskey of the Chicago club, bought the player, presumably by some payment to Pittsburgh. McKenna alleges that his club received no compensation.
