Omaha 'Lion Tamers' Feed 'Wild' Guests on Barbecued Meat

Lions roared, but did not "kick" when local lion tamers fed more than 2,000 of them, some wild with delight, at the big barbecue at Krug park Tuesday night.

The upper photo shows "Doc" Frye's aides dishing hot coffee, barbecued meat, hot dogs, milk, ice cream and various side dishes. More than 1,000 pounds of beef and 2,000 frankfurters were eaten by the visitors.

The other photos show what happens when east meets west at the grub table. California, New Jersey and Missouri delegations were photographed eating.

A big hit at the park occurred when the Kimball Boys' band played "California, Here I Come." A noisy demonstration was staged by the Californans, who cheed for Kimball and its boys as well as for the entire Omaha committee for its excellent manner in which its hospitality was displayed.

NEW FLINT MODEL ARRIVES IN OMAHA

There's a new arrival at the auto home of Guy L. Smith.

It is a light six car, manufactured by the Flint Motor company, which made a sensational appearance at the Boston automobile show. The Flint "40" will make its first showing in Omaha during the week.

"The new model is a worthy addition to the Flint 55," Smith said. "It duplicates this car in appearance, especially in radiator and cowl design. Te head lamps and cowl lights are similar.

"The car has a six-cylinder 50-horse-power engine with a four-bearing crankshaft, and force feed lubrication to all bearings. Cooling is of the conventional water pump and fan type with the cellular radiator."
