Doctor's Son Principal in Auto Crash

Machine Driven by Stewart Summers Smashes Into Another Car; One Hurt.

Traveling Fast, Claim

Stewart Summers, son of Dr. J. E. Summers, head specialist, 3624 Dewey avenue, and Tom Smith, a friend, figured in a motor accident on Fifty-second street near Military avenue Thursday night, which was not reported to police.

Summers was driving north on Fifty-second street and swerved to avoid hitting a car parked at the curb. His machine crashed into the rear of a southbound machine driven by D. W. Burns, 4532 South Twenty-fourth street.

According to Burns, Summers was traveling 40 miles per hour and the impact of the collision shot the Summers car crashing into a telephone pole. The engine of the Summers car was jammed under the seat, Burns stated.

Burns asserts that Summers agreed to pay all damages to his machine. Burns estimates damages at $400. Smith is said to have suffered cuts from the broken windshield.
