

CLUBDOM

Kappa Alumna a Guest

Council Bluffs Society

Daughters of 1812 Memorial Service

Annual state luncheon for the daughters of 1812 will be held Monday at the prettiest mile club. A memorial service will be held following the luncheon. Mrs. Frank Patton will have charge of the service held for Mrs. J. J. Stubbs, Mrs. Physa Roy and Mrs. John A. Ryan.

Press Club Annual Writing Contest Announced

Omaha Woman's Press club announces that its annual writing contest for 1924 is now open to encourage Nebraska writers, both amateur and professional. Prize awards are as follows: For short story, maximum length 5,000 words, prize $50; one-act play, prize $50; poetry, maximum length 24 lines, prize $25; miscellaneous prose, maximum length 1,500 words, prize $25.

Memberships in Tuesday Musical Club Open.

All persons who wish to become members of the Tuesday Musical Club are asked to mail check for dues to Mrs. Forrest Richardson, treasurer, 3215 Webster street.

Memberships are open to any one interested in music and art according to Mrs. C. W. Axtell, president.

Mrs. Harry G. Shedd and Mrs. Clifford Shofstall.

Mrs. Harry G. Shedd and Mrs. Clifford Shofstall.

Home Economics Department Offer Summer Courses

Home Economics department of the Omaha Woman's club, Mrs. J. F. Dimick, leader, met with members of the board of education on Friday in the city hall to express willingness to cooperate with the work of the Omaha public schools and Nebraska state board for vocational education.

W. R. C. Meet Tuesday.

U. S. Grant Women's Relief corps, will meet Tuesday, 1:30 p. m., at memorial hall, courthouse. Plans will be made at this meeting for members who will attend the national convention to be held in Boston, August 10 to 15.

War Mothers.

Omaha chapter, American War Mothers kennington club will give a breakfast, 11 a. m., Wednesday, at Elmwood park. The committee in charge includes Mesdames E. Weyerman, W. A. Wilcox, F. E. Young, Silas Woolf, S. E. Weeks, L. S. Johnson, William Roth and C. Sandel.

Garfield Circle.

Garfield Circle No. 11, Ladies of G. A. R., will not hold a meeting on Friday, July 4, on account of the holiday. The next regular meeting will be held on Friday evening, July 18, when plans will be completed for the annual picnic. Old Guard Post, No. 7, G. A. R., are invited.

Ueda Club at Brewster.

Ueda club, ladies' auxiliary of the National Association of Japanese Americans Industry Veterinarians will hold their regular monthly meeting at Camp Brewster Wednesday, July 2. Car leaves Twenty-fourth and N streets at 11 o'clock.

Clan Gordon Auxiliary.

The Ladies Auxiliary to Clan Gordon, No. 63, O. S. C., will meet with Mrs. R. G. Watson, 4331 Erskine street, on Wednesday, July 2, at 2 p. m. Hostesses are Mrs. David Reed, Mrs. Jeanie Bell and Mrs. Jean Henderson.

Scottish Rite Chorus.

Chorus of the Scottish Rite Women's club will be entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. F. Reinsch. Guest of honor will be Mrs. Frank A. Hughes, president of the club.

House of Hope.

Services on Sunday afternoon at the House of Hope, 7311 North Thirtieth street, will be in charge of Rev. W. I. Guss, pastor of St. Mark Lutheran church. This will be the last Sunday service until the first of September.

Ahamo Auxiliary Lunch.

Ahamo Auxiliary to Typographical Union will meet Tuesday, July 1, at the home of Mrs. George Sancha, 3714 North Nineteenth street. Assisted by Mrs. J. W. Welch. Lunch at 1:30.

Program at Brewster.

First Christian Church Women's Missionary society will give a program at Camp Brewster, Wednesday, July 2, at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Lee W. Neumann, leader, subject: "Unto The Uttermost Parts."

Carter Lake Kennington.

Carter Lake club Kennington will have luncheon at the clubhouse at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, July 2. Reservations may be made with Mrs. John R. Stine or Mrs. Elsie Tetard.

Ak-Sar-Ben Kennington Club.

Ak-Sar-Ben Kennington club will meet Wednesday, 11 a. m., at Elmwood park. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m.

L. O. E. Meeting.

L. O. E. No. 1, will hold its regular business meeting, Wednesday, July 2, at 8 p. m., in the Elks lodge room.

June Weddings

Several weddings have engaged the attention of Council Bluffs society folk during the month of June, turning their thoughts from informal festivities to the more serious matter of brides and grooms.

On Tuesday morning, preceding a nuptial mass said by Father Coughlin in the Holy Family church, Miss Jardine became the bride of Thomas A. Lenihan. The only attendants were Miss Mary Burke and George Lenihan. Mrs. Lenihan wore a gown of white canton crepe and long wedding veil. Her shower bouquet was of valley lilies and ward roses.

Miss Burke wore rose crepe veiled in pale blue with a flower trimmed hat.

During the ceremony Miss Helen McHenry sang and was accompanied by her sister Miss Maude, who also played the wedding marches.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenihan have gone on a honeymoon and upon their return will reside in this city.

Thursday was the afternoon chosen by Miss Doris Roach and J. Carroll Anderson for their nuptials which were performed at the bride's home by Rev. Wilford E. Mann of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Anderson was becomingly costumed in fawn georgette over canary yellow, with trimming of ecru lace. She carried sweet peas, lilies and ypsophylla arranged in a shower bouquet.

The gown of Miss Dorothy Paul who attended as bridesmaid was fashioned of lavender crepe and her bouquet was of butterfly roses.

Little Eleanor Zoller, the flower girl, wore a frock of yellow organdie and carried a basket of roses. Joe Simonson served as best man.

More than 60 guests attended the reception that followed the ceremony. Mrs. A. C. Kellar and Mrs. W. E. Tyson, presided at the tea table and were assisted in the serving by the members of a club to which the bride belongs.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home in Washington Court apartments, after July 15.

Miss Alice Clark, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Clark and Will Edward S. Thompson of Omaha, were married Thursday. Rev. Mann officiated at this ceremony which was witnessed by 25 relatives and intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have gone on their honeymoon which will be spent in Glacier National park. Upon their return they will occupy their new home in Dundee which is now under construction.

For Mrs. Corbin.

Since her advent here about a month ago Mrs. Walter Corbin of Worcester, Mass., has been the incentive for several delightful informal affairs. Mrs. Corbin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart, who planned a luncheon at the Omaha Country club last Wednesday for about 20 of her daughter's friends.

Miss Ann Dodge had as luncheon guests Friday her sister, Mrs. Frank Pusey of New York, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Corbin.

To Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. John Melhop, Jr., Mrs. Charles Test Stewart and Mrs. John N. Ball win of Omaha motored to Lake Okoboji Saturday to visit over the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maurer at their summer home. They will be joined there by Mr. Stewart, who has several months to spend in the Pacific waters on the battleship Tennessee. After the first of the year he expects to go to Hawaii.

Bridge Luncheons. A hostess of the past week was Miss Caroline Theinhardt who entertained on two occasions at beautifully appointed luncheons followed by bridge.

Lavender sweet peas in crystal baskets adorned the centers of four tables Wednesday and at bridge the prize winners were Miss Marjorie Peacock and Miss Elizabeth Brantington.

On Thursday there were five tables of guests and a color scheme of lavender was again used.

On this occasion Miss Dorothy Hurd made high score and Mrs. William Eastland won the cut-for-all.

To Motor Through Yellowstone. Leaving in three automobiles next Thursday will be the following Council Bluffs people who plan to spend several weeks touring Yellowstone park and other western points. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett and their sons Jack and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Roy DeVol, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binder and son, Frank Jr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark.

Celebrate an Anniversary. A delightful and very informal evening of bridge was arranged for Wednesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler whose 19th wedding anniversary was on that day. The affair was impromptu, the 12 guests

Family Takes Vacation; Moths Eat Holes in Rugs. When the Olivers went away for their June vacation last year, they did not think it necessary to store their rugs.

But when Mrs. Oliver returned to her home in Dundee, she found that the moths had eaten parts of the living room rug under the piano where the light did not reach.

A storage vault cooled by a refrigeration plant is the safest moth insurance because moths cannot live at a temperature below 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

Dresher Brothers' vault is open for your inspection. Call at their main plant, 2211-2213-2215-2217 Farnam street, and members of the firm will be glad to show you the refrigeration plant—a guarantee that you are going to get the protection you are paying for.

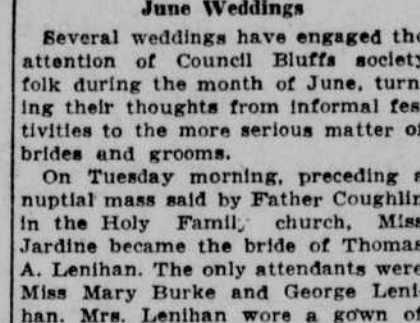

When you telephone AT lantic 0345 or MA rket 0650 a Dresher's man will call to give you further information.

Out-of-Town Guests Feted. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner entertained at dinner at the Country club last Tuesday evening complimenting Mr. Spooner's sister, Miss Carrie Spooner, of Las Cruces, N. M., who is spending the summer here and Miss Kathleen Allford, who spent several days in the city last week en route from the Woman's Club convention in California to her home in Chicago.

On Wednesday Mrs. George Damon had a three-table luncheon and dinner at her home for these visitors and also included Mrs. B. Gross of Pleasant Valley, Ill., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Zurmuehlen. Mrs. George Spooner and Mrs. Pollock Everett had a luncheon of 10 covers followed by bridge Saturday at the home of the latter, honoring Miss Spooner and Miss Allford.

For a Naval Officer. Ensign Wallis Peterson who was recently graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis was honor guest when he dined with Mrs. Lillian Peterson entertained at dinner last Tuesday evening at the home of her

Guest of Shugarts

Miss Wanda Smith

Miss Wanda Smith is a popular visitor from Moberly, Missouri, who is being welcomed by the younger set.

She arrived recently to visit for several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Shugart and Mr. Shugart.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Peterson. The guests, who later attended the Country club dance included Misses Gretchen Emplie, Nell and Hope Roeker, Louise Swan, Marian and Elizabeth Peterson, Adele Plumer, Helen Butler, Frances Endicott, Ensign Charles McDonald of Long Pine, Neb., and Ensign Robert Bertschy of Omaha, Gregory Ouren, Stuart Short, Charles Clark, Henry Quinn, Ralph Kastner, John Wadsworth, Max Brandt and Hall Clovis.

The young naval officer departed Thursday for San Francisco and for several months will be in the Pacific waters on the battleship Tennessee. After the first of the year he expects to go to Hawaii.

Bridge Luncheons. A hostess of the past week was Miss Caroline Theinhardt who entertained on two occasions at beautifully appointed luncheons followed by bridge.

Lavender sweet peas in crystal baskets adorned the centers of four tables Wednesday and at bridge the prize winners were Miss Marjorie Peacock and Miss Elizabeth Brantington.

On Thursday there were five tables of guests and a color scheme of lavender was again used.

On this occasion Miss Dorothy Hurd made high score and Mrs. William Eastland won the cut-for-all.

To Motor Through Yellowstone. Leaving in three automobiles next Thursday will be the following Council Bluffs people who plan to spend several weeks touring Yellowstone park and other western points. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett and their sons Jack and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Roy DeVol, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binder and son, Frank Jr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark.

Celebrate an Anniversary. A delightful and very informal evening of bridge was arranged for Wednesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler whose 19th wedding anniversary was on that day. The affair was impromptu, the 12 guests

Family Takes Vacation; Moths Eat Holes in Rugs. When the Olivers went away for their June vacation last year, they did not think it necessary to store their rugs.

But when Mrs. Oliver returned to her home in Dundee, she found that the moths had eaten parts of the living room rug under the piano where the light did not reach.

A storage vault cooled by a refrigeration plant is the safest moth insurance because moths cannot live at a temperature below 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

Dresher Brothers' vault is open for your inspection. Call at their main plant, 2211-2213-2215-2217 Farnam street, and members of the firm will be glad to show you the refrigeration plant—a guarantee that you are going to get the protection you are paying for.

When you telephone AT lantic 0345 or MA rket 0650 a Dresher's man will call to give you further information.

Out-of-Town Guests Feted. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner entertained at dinner at the Country club last Tuesday evening complimenting Mr. Spooner's sister, Miss Carrie Spooner, of Las Cruces, N. M., who is spending the summer here and Miss Kathleen Allford, who spent several days in the city last week en route from the Woman's Club convention in California to her home in Chicago.

On Wednesday Mrs. George Damon had a three-table luncheon and dinner at her home for these visitors and also included Mrs. B. Gross of Pleasant Valley, Ill., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Zurmuehlen. Mrs. George Spooner and Mrs. Pollock Everett had a luncheon of 10 covers followed by bridge Saturday at the home of the latter, honoring Miss Spooner and Miss Allford.

For a Naval Officer. Ensign Wallis Peterson who was recently graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis was honor guest when he dined with Mrs. Lillian Peterson entertained at dinner last Tuesday evening at the home of her

June Weddings

Several weddings have engaged the attention of Council Bluffs society folk during the month of June, turning their thoughts from informal festivities to the more serious matter of brides and grooms.

On Tuesday morning, preceding a nuptial mass said by Father Coughlin in the Holy Family church, Miss Jardine became the bride of Thomas A. Lenihan. The only attendants were Miss Mary Burke and George Lenihan. Mrs. Lenihan wore a gown of white canton crepe and long wedding veil. Her shower bouquet was of valley lilies and ward roses.

Miss Burke wore rose crepe veiled in pale blue with a flower trimmed hat.

During the ceremony Miss Helen McHenry sang and was accompanied by her sister Miss Maude, who also played the wedding marches.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenihan have gone on a honeymoon and upon their return will reside in this city.

Thursday was the afternoon chosen by Miss Doris Roach and J. Carroll Anderson for their nuptials which were performed at the bride's home by Rev. Wilford E. Mann of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Anderson was becomingly costumed in fawn georgette over canary yellow, with trimming of ecru lace. She carried sweet peas, lilies and ypsophylla arranged in a shower bouquet.

The gown of Miss Dorothy Paul who attended as bridesmaid was fashioned of lavender crepe and her bouquet was of butterfly roses.

Little Eleanor Zoller, the flower girl, wore a frock of yellow organdie and carried a basket of roses. Joe Simonson served as best man.

More than 60 guests attended the reception that followed the ceremony. Mrs. A. C. Kellar and Mrs. W. E. Tyson, presided at the tea table and were assisted in the serving by the members of a club to which the bride belongs.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home in Washington Court apartments, after July 15.

Miss Alice Clark, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Clark and Will Edward S. Thompson of Omaha, were married Thursday. Rev. Mann officiated at this ceremony which was witnessed by 25 relatives and intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have gone on their honeymoon which will be spent in Glacier National park. Upon their return they will occupy their new home in Dundee which is now under construction.

For Mrs. Corbin.

Since her advent here about a month ago Mrs. Walter Corbin of Worcester, Mass., has been the incentive for several delightful informal affairs. Mrs. Corbin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart, who planned a luncheon at the Omaha Country club last Wednesday for about 20 of her daughter's friends.

Miss Ann Dodge had as luncheon guests Friday her sister, Mrs. Frank Pusey of New York, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Corbin.

To Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. John Melhop, Jr., Mrs. Charles Test Stewart and Mrs. John N. Ball win of Omaha motored to Lake Okoboji Saturday to visit over the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maurer at their summer home. They will be joined there by Mr. Stewart, who has several months to spend in the Pacific waters on the battleship Tennessee. After the first of the year he expects to go to Hawaii.

Bridge Luncheons. A hostess of the past week was Miss Caroline Theinhardt who entertained on two occasions at beautifully appointed luncheons followed by bridge.

Lavender sweet peas in crystal baskets adorned the centers of four tables Wednesday and at bridge the prize winners were Miss Marjorie Peacock and Miss Elizabeth Brantington.

On Thursday there were five tables of guests and a color scheme of lavender was again used.

On this occasion Miss Dorothy Hurd made high score and Mrs. William Eastland won the cut-for-all.

To Motor Through Yellowstone. Leaving in three automobiles next Thursday will be the following Council Bluffs people who plan to spend several weeks touring Yellowstone park and other western points. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett and their sons Jack and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Roy DeVol, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binder and son, Frank Jr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark.

Celebrate an Anniversary. A delightful and very informal evening of bridge was arranged for Wednesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler whose 19th wedding anniversary was on that day. The affair was impromptu, the 12 guests

Family Takes Vacation; Moths Eat Holes in Rugs. When the Olivers went away for their June vacation last year, they did not think it necessary to store their rugs.

But when Mrs. Oliver returned to her home in Dundee, she found that the moths had eaten parts of the living room rug under the piano where the light did not reach.

A storage vault cooled by a refrigeration plant is the safest moth insurance because moths cannot live at a temperature below 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

Dresher Brothers' vault is open for your inspection. Call at their main plant, 2211-2213-2215-2217 Farnam street, and members of the firm will be glad to show you the refrigeration plant—a guarantee that you are going to get the protection you are paying for.

When you telephone AT lantic 0345 or MA rket 0650 a Dresher's man will call to give you further information.

Out-of-Town Guests Feted. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner entertained at dinner at the Country club last Tuesday evening complimenting Mr. Spooner's sister, Miss Carrie Spooner, of Las Cruces, N. M., who is spending the summer here and Miss Kathleen Allford, who spent several days in the city last week en route from the Woman's Club convention in California to her home in Chicago.

On Wednesday Mrs. George Damon had a three-table luncheon and dinner at her home for these visitors and also included Mrs. B. Gross of Pleasant Valley, Ill., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Zurmuehlen. Mrs. George Spooner and Mrs. Pollock Everett had a luncheon of 10 covers followed by bridge Saturday at the home of the latter, honoring Miss Spooner and Miss Allford.

For a Naval Officer. Ensign Wallis Peterson who was recently graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis was honor guest when he dined with Mrs. Lillian Peterson entertained at dinner last Tuesday evening at the home of her cock, Kenneth and Carl Herwig, William Coppock, Harry Voss, Tom and Jerry Pyper, Wilson Douglas, who arrived that evening from California having been graduated on Monday last at Stanford university and Howard Bissell, a classmate from Cleveland, O., who accompanied him here for a visit.

During the Lions convention in Omaha last week the Altrusa clubs of that city and Council Bluffs jointly entertained the visiting ladies at a dinner given at the Happy Hollow club.

Personal. George Mayne who has been on a fishing trip in Minnesota with George Mayne is expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Sioux City, Ia., were visiting friends in Council Bluffs for several days last week.

Theodore Saam, superintendent of the Council Bluffs public schools, underwent an appendicitis operation last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler left Friday evening for a short visit in Princeton, Ill., with their son Dr. Morgan Cutler and his family.

Miss Marjorie Annis and her brother Albert left Saturday for Madison, Wis., where they will take summer courses at the University.

Mrs. X. W. Kynnett is expected home the first of the week from Chicago and Beardstown, Ill., where she has been visiting for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Annis who have been honeymooning in Europe and responding to invitations that afternoon.

Barn Dance. Nearly 100 guests attended the barn dance given by the Phi Delta Fraternity Saturday evening at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Anderson, whose son Leonard is a member of this organization.

Mrs. Smith Goes East. Mrs. Sydney Smith leaves next Wednesday for Boston, Mass., where she will take a six weeks' course in expression and dramatic art at the Emerson College of Oratory, from which institution she was graduated several years ago.

She will be accompanied by her 10-year-old daughter, Margaret, who has been a piano pupil of A. Borglum since she was five years old, and during the summer months will study at the New England Conservatory of Music.

Following her course in Boston Mrs. Smith plans to go to New York for some summer work at the American Academy of Dramatic Art, and en route home she and her daughter will visit in Cleveland, O., and Niagara Falls.

Attended Omaha Affair. At a buffet supper and dance given Thursday evening in Omaha at the Brando restaurant by Miss Margaret Shotwell the following guests from Council Bluffs attended, Misses June Davis, Nancy Stillman, Gretchen Emplie, Jane Schoentgen, Elizabeth Douglas, Margaret Augustine, Charlotte Zurmuehlen, Dorothy Hurd, Marjorie Annis, and Marjorie Peacock, Kenneth and Carl Herwig, William Coppock, Harry Voss, Tom and Jerry Pyper, Wilson Douglas, who arrived that evening from California having been graduated on Monday last at Stanford university and Howard Bissell, a classmate from Cleveland, O., who accompanied him here for a visit.

During the Lions convention in Omaha last week the Altrusa clubs of that city and Council Bluffs jointly entertained the visiting ladies at a dinner given at the Happy Hollow club.

Personal. George Mayne who has been on a fishing trip in Minnesota with George Mayne is expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Sioux City, Ia., were visiting friends in Council Bluffs for several days last week.

Theodore Saam, superintendent of the Council Bluffs public schools, underwent an appendicitis operation last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler left Friday evening for a short visit in Princeton, Ill., with their son Dr. Morgan Cutler and his family.

Miss Marjorie Annis and her brother Albert left Saturday for Madison, Wis., where they will take summer courses at the University.

Mrs. X. W. Kynnett is expected home the first of the week from Chicago and Beardstown, Ill., where she has been visiting for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Annis who have been honeymooning in Europe and sailed for New York on the Majestic June 18, landed last week and expect to come directly home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schurz and daughter Sarah of LaPorte, Ind., made a brief visit last week with Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cuder while on a motor trip through Ia.

Herbert Woodbury is expected home this week from points in California where he has been visiting for several weeks. Mr. Woodbury teaches French in a boy's school at Meza, Ariz., to which institution he expects to return in October.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus, O., where Colonel Stewart has been detailed as Chief Officer of the Signal corps at Fort Hayes for the next four years. Mrs. Stewart before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a sister of Charles T. Stewart of this city.

Wilson Douglas has as his house-guest Howard Bissell of Cleveland, O., who was a popular visitor at the Douglas home last summer. Mr. Bissell and his host were class mates at Stanford university, from where they were graduated last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas had as their guests last week Colonel and Mrs. George Stewart, who were en route to Columbus