To the Farmers of S. W. Nebraska.

It has become the custom of the farmers of the successful agricultural states to hold "Farmers' Conventions", where those engaged in farming and stock-raising assemble and discuss and exchange ideas as to the kind of crops best adapted to their locality, and the best methods of cultivation; and those who have attended such conventions agree that great benefits result from the recitals of the experience of those present.

We believe that great good will result from such a meeting of farmers at this time, and hereby issue a call for a "Farmers' Convention" to be held at McCook, Nebraska, Thursday and Friday, September 17th and 18th, 1896, for the purpose of discussing any and all questions relating to farming, dairying, and stock-raising in this section of the country.

A good camping ground with abundance of water will be at your disposal and we urge all farmers to attend this meeting.

Come the evening before and bring your camping outfit and let us have a pleasant and profitable time.

If you are in doubt as to the good results, come for recreation and you will go home well satisfied.

There will be an open air concert, Thursday evening, by the McCook K. P. Band, one of the best in the state, and which is now filling an engagement at the State Fair.

Bring samples of products adapted to this climate, marked with dates of planting and maturing.

Nothing in it.

It will be welcome news to the publisher and the public to learn that the system of giving prizes in the shape of chromos, pamphlets, books and what is known in newspaper circles as guessing contests and coupon fakes is on the decline. Journals have been making frantic but useless endeavors to push circulation by these means for years past. Such schemes fall short of their object. The reader soon tires of the novelty and the extra solicitation becomes objectionable, not only because it wastes space in his paper, but because as a rule he is asked to pay for something that he can well do without or don't want at all. The prize scheme goes to an excess, and where a picture card or lithograph was at one time acceptable, a book, buggy or building lot soon fails to attract attention, and the publisher eventually finds that he cannot keep up with the demands which he has helped to encourage.

The dailies of Chicago compared notes recently, and found that, as a result of a year of these methods, their circulations, both absolutely and relatively to each other, were in about the same condition as before, and they were $500,000 out of pocket. It is to be hoped that the enterprise and ingenuity which has been wasted in a rivalry which has not even been appreciated by the reader will be turned into the legitimate business of making better newspapers. This will pay, in the end, better than the quasi gift enterprise.

INTERESTS YOU.

Offer of Cheap Reading Matter You Can't Afford to Miss.

During this great campaign people want newspapers and want them while they are fresh and newsy. The Semi-Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., supplies the demand, as it will be mailed from now until January 1, 1897, for only 25 cents, or from now until January 1, 1898, for one dollar. The 25 cent proposition takes you all through the campaign, gives you the election returns, and through the balance of this year. A dollar for the great twice-a-week paper from now until January 1, 1898, is the biggest offer ever made to readers. All through the campaign, all through the Nebraska legislature, the congresses and the inauguration of the new president. Never since the war has so many incidents of vital interest to the masses been crowded into sixteen months, as there will be during this period. The Semi-Weekly Journal is almost as good as a daily. Send your order direct or give it to your postmaster.

COMMUNICATED.

Anaconda, Montana, Sept. 4, 1896. Friends and Citizens of McCook: Owing to the many requests that were made of me upon my departure from McCook to write concerning the conditions which prevail in Western Montana and my inability to correspond with each one personally I have with the kind permission of Editor Kimmell taken this means of informing you.

After a long and pleasant journey of over 1400 miles by way of such beautiful places as Denver, Colorado Springs, Pikes Peak, Pueblo, Canon City, Royal Gorge, Salida, Leadville, Mt. Holy Cross, Castle Gate, Grand Junction, Salt Lake City, Ogden, Pocatello and Silver Bow I arrived in Anaconda, Saturday afternoon, Aug. 22d.

Before relating any facts concerning Anaconda I wish to relate a few incidents of the journey. It is needless to say the scenery over this route is the finest the world has produced, and were I to describe it I would have an endless task.

Among the many things which impressed me most was the amount of business and travel that seemed to exist in the western states, yet they told me that business is very dull and base all their hopes for the future on the victory of "Free Silver", which in their estimation will be the crowning success of the western states.

The chief sources of income from these states are mining interests, with a little agriculture, railroading and grazing combined.

During my sojourn in Denver I met many old friends and former acquaintances who have been residents of McCook at one time, and while in Salt Lake City I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. L. B. Stiles, who is now in the employ of an Accident Insurance Co., and he told me that our old friend Mr. Geo. Johnston, former proprietor of the Commercial hotel of McCook, is in charge of the "Walker House" of that city, and is doing very well.

The "Mormon City" is a beautiful place to live in, not as a business center, but as a place to enjoy a comfortable and pleasant life. I visited the temple and tabernacle and was very much surprised at the grandeur and magnitude of it. A person would have to see it in order to comprehend its magnificence. Leaving our journey with the expectation that you all may experience it at some time in your lives I will now tell you what I know about Anaconda, Montana.

This city with a population of over 12,000 is located in a valley between two ranges of the Rocky Mountains at an elevation of over 5,000 feet from sea-level.

We have an excellent climate, and our water supply is brought direct from the mountains and is furnished to the consumers at a very low rate. The city possesses electric lights, street-cars, good schools, churches of all denominations, a free library donated by the wife of millionaire Hearst, two railroads penetrate the town, and a nice park with mineral springs affords amusement for the weary laborers on Sundays. All the picnics in this part of the state are held in Anaconda Park. The chief sources of employment in this section of the country are mining, smelting, railroading, lumbering, grazing and the corresponding branches of trade and business which are held and controlled by "labor unions", thus affording uniform wages.

Business here in comparison with that of McCook is very good; there are not less than five thousand workmen tributary to this town, which of course has a tendency to keep business good in commercial branches.

Many people labor under the impression that this is nothing more than a mining camp, but this is a mistake, for nearly all the mining is done at Butte, thirty miles away, and all the refining and smelting of the ore is done in Anaconda.

Wages are high, common laborers receiving not less than $2.50 per day, clerks and delivery men $75 a month and up, mechanics from $3 per day up, office men and railroaders get high salaries and all other branches of labor are paid in proportion.

Provisions such as meats, milk and groceries are very high, while shoes, dry goods and clothing are cheaper than McCook prices. Rents very high and many buildings in the course of erection. Fuel is high, coal $7 to $15 per ton, wood $5 per load, equal to four ricks of stove wood. I would not advise any one to come out here this fall, owing to the approach of winter and the possibility of getting a job while the cost of moving would be very high, but from the present outlook I think there will be a great many opportunities offered in the spring, especially to young men starting out in life.

Wishing you all a prosperous year and all that follows, I remain
Yours most respectfully,
WILLIAM H. MAHONEY.

Mrs. Rhodie Nosh of this place was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. She then sent me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by McConnell & Co., Druggists.

Do Not Stop Tobacco

How to Cure Yourself While Using It.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco is an inveterate user becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "Bacco-Curo" is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1873, without a failure. It is pure, vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Bacco-Curo." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to cure permanent, any case, with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent interest. "Bacco-Curo" is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke.

Cured by Bacco-Curo and Gained Thirty Pounds.

From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented:

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis., Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in its various forms. For the last ten years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others, "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Bacco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved of all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper on my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.
