

Nebraska - State - Fair.

Omaha, Sept. 20-24.

The Burlington Route's arrangements in connection with the 1897 State Fair are as follows:

RATES.

One fare for the round trip, plus fifty cents for admission to the Fair. Selling dates, Sept. 19 to 24. Return limit, Sept. 25. In addition, a rate of $6.50 for the round trip (fifty cents of which is for admission), will be in effect September 21 and 22 from stations in Nebraska and Kansas where the regular one-way rate to Omaha is $6.00 or more.

TRAIN SERVICE.

For Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 22 and 23, the Burlington Route has arranged a very complete service of special trains from points within 150 miles of Omaha. These trains will leave through coaches to the Fair Grounds and will arrive there not later than 11:30 a. m. Returning, they will leave the Fair Grounds at 7:00 p. m., and Omaha station at 7:25 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 22, for Grand Island, Burwell, Arcadia, Hastings, Wynmore, Schuyler, Superior (via DeWitt and Edgar) and intermediate stations. Thursday, Sept. 23, special trains for Hastings, Grand Island, Wynmore (via Crete), Wynmore (via Table Rock and Pawnee), Schuyler and intermediate stations will leave Omaha station at 11 p. m., after Ak-Sar-Ben Parade. Visitors are thus enabled to spend practically a whole day at the Fair or in the city, as preferred, reaching home the same day. See small bills or consult local ticket agent for time of departure from your station, arrival at Omaha, through cars, etc.

THE STATE FAIR.

This year's State Fair will be a reminder of the prosperous days of the '80s when big crops and high prices were the rule. The Nebraska exhibits will be more numerous and of higher grade than those of any previous year. An unusually large representation of eastern exhibitors is expected. During Fair week and on the Fair grounds, the Fall races, the Omaha Fair and Speed Association will be held. Many of the fastest horses in the country are already entered. Holders of admission tickets to the State Fair are admitted to the race-track without extra charge.

THE PARADES.

Tuesday, September 21st, Military and Civic Parade, Wednesday, September 22d, Mechanical Parade, Thursday, September 23rd, Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Parade, Friday, September 24th, Ak-Sar-Ben Parade. The street parades, particularly the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Parade, will be very enjoyable features of the week's festivities. No effort or expense is being spared that will redound to the credit of Omaha or the pleasure of her guests. The entire business portion of the city will be elaborately decorated and brilliantly illuminated. Everywhere will be banners, hunting and electric lights. J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb.

IT SAVES THE CROUPY CHILDREN

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful." JOHN G. POLHILL, Macon, Ga.

SERVANTS IN JAPAN.

They Render Excellent Service if They Are Treated With Consideration.

Japanese servants are excellent if you choose them with discretion and treat them with the established consideration of the country. There is a universal social compact in Japan to make life pleasant by politeness. Everybody is more or less well bred and hates the man or woman who is yakamashi—noisy, uncivil or exigent.

People who lose their temper are always in a hurry, bang doors, swear and swagger, find themselves out of place in a land where the lowest coolly learns and practices an ancient courtesy from the time when he wabbles about as a baby upon his mother's back. Therefore to be treated well in Japan—as perhaps, indeed, elsewhere—you must treat everybody, including your domestics, well, and then you will enjoy the most pleasant and willing service.

Your cook will doubtless cheat you a little, your jinrikisha man will now and then take too much sake, the musu and the boy's wife will gallop all over the place about everything you do, and the gardener and the coachman will fight cocks in the back yard when your back is turned, but if conscious of your own you can forgive the little sins of others. You can hardly fail to become closely attached to the quiet, soft voiced, pleasant people, who as soon as they have learned your ways will take real pleasure in making life agreeable to you.

A present now and then of a kimono to the maids, of toys and sweetmeats to the children, a day's holiday now and then granted to the theater or the wrestling match are richly rewarded by such bright faces and unmistakable warmth of welcome on arriving and of good speed on going as repay you tenfold. Respectful as Japanese servants are—and they never speak except on their knees and faces—they like to be taken into the family conversation and to sit sometimes in friendly abandon with the master and mistress, admiring dresses, pictures or western novelties and listening sometimes to the samisen and koto as children of the household.—Edwin Arnold in Scribner's.

QUEER LIBRARY FREAKS.

Funny Requests For Books That Amuse and Amaze Employees.

Once in awhile the clerks in the public library get hold of a good joke through the ignorance of people who come there to take out books. It was not long ago that a woman who was anxious to join the Daughters of the American Revolution came there to look up her family history and get her facts and claims ready to submit to the committee on membership. She went about it in rather a queer way. After looking about aimlessly through the index for a time she discovered "Lossing's Family History of the United States." She wrote her request for the books on one of the cards provided for that purpose and was quite indignant with the clerk who handed it to her because it did not contain what she wanted.

It was not long after this incident that another woman, who from her dress and appearance, the clerks thought, might be literary, wrote on one of the cards a request for "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

"Holmes' Autocrat, do you want?" politely asked the clerk.

"Oh, I don't care whose it is," was the reply. "I only want to find out if it is proper to use toothpicks at the breakfast table."

Another request for a magazine which the applicant said was called Brain kept one of the clerks busy hunting half an hour before he discovered that what was wanted was the magazine called Mind. Still another clerk was shocked the other day by a request for Washington Irving's "Alabama." The clerk mildly suggested "Alhambra."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Deafness.

It has been stated that three persons out of every five in this country who have attained the age of 40 years are more or less deaf in one or both ears. A large proportion of this deafness is caused by catarrh, and medical treatment for difficulty of hearing is usually directed to the catarrhal source. In Europe much of the deafness is hereditary. Dr. James Kerr Love of Glasgow recently read a paper on deafness before the Royal society of Edinburgh, from which it appears that congenital deafness may be either hereditary in the direct line or in collateral branches, and that it depends on not one, but many anatomical defects. Intermarriage of deaf persons perpetuates but does not accentuate the tendency of deafness. The hearing brothers and sisters of deaf mutes are as likely to have deaf mutes offspring as if they had been deaf mutes themselves. Consanguinity of parents emphasizes family defects, and in this way many cases of congenital deafness occur. One of the most singular points of Dr. Love's paper was the assertion that the state had the right to control the marriage of persons belonging to families badly tainted with deafness.

Ancient Tombstones.

The custom of inscribing upon tombstones was in vogue among the Greeks and Romans. The Greeks only did this, however, in the case of their illustrious men, but when a Roman died he was duly buried near a highway, and on his tombstone was carved a suitable inscription, which in the majority of cases began with "Sta, viator" (stop, traveler).

About 10,000,000 of the bovine species are now to be found in the Argentine Republic. They are all descendants of eight cows and one bull which were imported into Brazil in the middle of the sixteenth century.

"Honors of war" is the privilege allowed to the enemy, on capitulation, of being permitted to retain their arms. This is the highest honor a victor can pay a vanquished foe.

MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

M<sup>rs</sup>. ELREE'S Wine of Cardui makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Danville, Texas, says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."
