

A DOCTOR'S DIRECTIONS.

They save a daughter from blindness.

When a father writes that yours "is the best medicine in the world," you can allow something for seeming extravagance in the statement if you know that the medicine so praised, cured a loved daughter of disease and restored to her the eyesight nearly lost. The best medicine in the world for you is the medicine that cures you. There can't be anything better. No medicine can do more than cure. That is why John S. Goode, of Orrick, Mo., writes in these strong terms:

"Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine in the world. My daughter had a relapse after the measles, due to taking cold. She was nearly blind, and was obliged to remain in a dark room all the time. The doctors could give her no relief. One of them directed me to give her Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Two bottles cured her completely."

The thousands of testimonials to the value of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla repeat over and over again, in one form or another the expression: "The doctors gave her no relief; one of them directed me to give her Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Two bottles completely cured her."

It is a common experience to try Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a last resort. It is a common experience to have Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla prescribed by a physician. It is a common experience to see a "complete cure" follow the use of a few bottles of this great blood purifying medicine.

Because it is a specific for all forms of blood disease. If a disease has its origin in bad or impure blood, Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, acting directly on the blood, removing its impurities and giving to it vitalizing energy, will promptly eradicate the disease.

The great feature of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the radical cures that result from its use. Many medicines only suppress disease—they push the pimples down under the skin, they paint the complexion with subtle arsenical compounds, but the disease rages in the veins like a pent-up fire, and some day breaks out in a volcanic eruption that eats up the body. Ayer's Sarsaparilla goes to the root. It makes the fountain clean and the waters are clear. It makes the root good and the fruit is good. It gives Nature the elements she needs to build up the broken-down constitution—not to brace it up with stimulants or patch it up on the surface. Send for Dr. Ayer's Curebook, and learn more about the cures effected by this remedy. It is sent free, on request, by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Remember

if you are dissatisfied with the size of piece or with the quality of the chewing tobacco you are now using—and you'll get your money's worth. The 10-cent piece of Battle Ax is larger than the 10-cent piece of any other brand of the same high quality, and is the largest piece of really good chewing tobacco that is sold for 10 cents.

Remember the name when you buy again.

HOT SPANISH BLOOD.

IT BOILS AT THE SLIGHTEST PROVOCATION.

The Present Trouble Between Chili and Peru the Result of Differences Which Two American Farmers Would Hesitate to Quarrel About.

Chili and Argentine are almost at war over a disputed boundary of the line fence variety. The line between the two nations is the top ridge of the Cordilleras and relates to but small tracts of almost inaccessible mountain heights entirely valueless for any human purpose.

But as the people of the United States are interested, and as the war with Spain figures in the case, a review of the facts may be timely. The dispute as to the right of ownership in these Andean summits and precipices has been of long duration. At frequent intervals it has appeared to be almost irreconcilable. But from time to time negotiations have been patched up with prospects of a peaceful result.

What was supposed to be a final treaty of arbitration was concluded in 1896. President Cleveland was the arbitrator. It was agreed that if either country was dissatisfied with his award an appeal should be taken to "his aunt" the queen of England. As the trial of arbitration proceeded there were almost open ruptures, and neither nation is satisfied with the award. That part about the queen of the hated British was too much for the Castilians to stomach, and they can't be blamed very much. So neither side has become so exasperated as to appeal the case.

Yet each nation has consequently been constantly prepared for war. It was this state of affairs which prevented Chili from selling the fine armored cruiser O'Higgins to the United States before the outbreak of the war. Chili would not sell the O'Higgins unless Argentine would sell a vessel of equal power, leaving the relative naval strength of the two nations unchanged.

There is a large and powerful Spanish party in Argentine, under the influence of which the government of that country refused to sell any of its vessels to the United States. This broke off the trade with Chili for the O'Higgins. A subsequent rumor that the vessel was to be sold to Spain proved unfounded. It is to be hoped that the two South American republics will not go to war. If the Monroe doctrine is to be maintained it is essential that there should be peace between the nations which claim the shield of its protection.

Chili, which has been a gold country, recently suspended gold payments for thirty days, and the time is likely to be extended. This was for the purpose of preventing gold exports, which usually begin when there is a prospect of war. It is a measure of precaution and warning and may have some such an effect as demonstration of strength by sea or land when negotiations between powerful nations reach an acute stage. In such cases a powerful bluff often produces the best results.

Important to Mothers.
The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trade mark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. If they would guard the health of their children. Parents and mothers, in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.

DUDES AND "MOTHER'S BOYS."
If the unfortunate people who gloat over sensational romances can be wooed to read anything else—for instance, true tales of daring deeds—the events of the present war may tend to dispel certain of their illusions and supply them with some new ideals.

These students of ferocious fiction have always imagined heroes as rough in appearance and manner; careless, if not profane, in speech, and not at all strict as to habits. They have appeared to cherish the notion that bravery flourished best when unaccompanied by any other virtue.

It will surprise such persons to learn that, long ago, the hero of Manila was nicknamed by his intimates, "Dandy Dewey." Stranger yet—so, at least, they may think—the young lieutenant who took the Merrimac into Santiago harbor was always proud to be known as a "mother boy." Both of these officers are members of the church, and Hobson was an active worker in the Young Men's Christian Association.

These are facts that may make silly people wonder. But the people who have studied character as expressed in human lives are not surprised that men like Dewey and Hobson were first to gain renown. All experience teaches that, when hoodlums would bluster and run away, the man who rises to an emergency is the quiet, modest, God-fearing gentleman who respects his body and realizes that he has a soul.

Castigation.
"Don't you think this country ought to have extended the olive branch to Spain?" asked the man with queer ideas. "It did," was the prompt answer. The difficulty was that the only way to make any impression was to strip the leaves off it and put it where it would hurt."—Washington Star.

His Experience.
Mrs. Younglove—"Do you think absence really makes the heart grow fonder, Harold?" Mr. Younglove—"I guess it does. At all events, you are about twice as dear to me when you're away at one of those high-priced summer hotels as when you're at home."—Chicago News.

AIDED BY MRS. PINKHAM.

Mrs. W. E. PAXTON, Youngtown, North Dakota, writes about her struggle to regain health after the birth of her little girl:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to your list, hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of your valuable medicine.

"After the birth of my little girl, three years ago, my health was very poor. I had leucorrhoea badly, and a terrible bearing-down pain which gradually grew worse, until I could do no work. Also had headache nearly all the time, and dizzy feelings. Menstruations were very profuse, appearing every two weeks.

"I took medicine from a good doctor, but it seemed to do no good. I was becoming alarmed over my condition, when I read your advertisement in a paper. I sent at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two-thirds of the bottle I felt so much better that I sent for two more. After using three bottles I felt as strong and well as any one.

"I think it is the best medicine for female weakness ever advertised, and recommend it to every lady I meet suffering from this trouble."

Maternity is a wonderful experience and many women approach it wholly unprepared. Childbirth under right conditions need not terrify women.

The advice of Mrs. Pinkham is freely offered to all expectant mothers, and her advice is beyond question the most valuable to be obtained. If Mrs. Paxton had written to Mrs. Pinkham before confinement she would have been saved much suffering. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.
