

SOUTH SIDE.

The farmers are putting up their ice. There was a big turnout for the preaching, Sunday. Horatio Stone is doubtless a happy man for a little girl came to live at his house, last Sunday.

A literary society was organized in the Fitch school-house, last Wednesday evening, and starts out with flattering prospects for the future.

The people of South Side organized a Bible class, last Sunday, for the purpose of studying the Bible; the first ten chapters of Genesis being the lesson, next Sunday.

School began with an attendance of fourteen, Monday, and the scholars should remember that they are on the home-stretch and improve every opportunity.

The South Side Endeavor Union has adjourned until the first Sunday in June. A large per cent of the members are either teachers or high-school students, which speaks well for the society, and their being away during the winter months, doubtless was the cause of the action taken by the Endeavorers of South Side.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at McConnell & Berry's.

Every Month

there are thousands of women who nearly suffer death from irregular menses. Sometimes the "period" comes too often—sometimes not often enough—sometimes the flow is too scant, and again it is too profuse. Each symptom shows that Nature needs help, and that there is trouble in the organs concerned. Be careful when in any of the above conditions. Don't take any and every nostrum advertised to cure female troubles.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR is the one safe and sure medicine for irregular or painful menstruation. It cures all the ailments that are caused by irregularity, such as leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, nervousness; pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. By regulating the menses so that they occur every twenty-eighth day, all those aches disappear together. Just before your time comes, get a bottle and see how much good it will do you. Druggists sell it at $1.

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says, "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure did me more good than any thing I ever took." It digests what you eat and can not help but cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. D. W. Lohr.

Many of the blotches, pimples and other affections of the skin are caused by the failure of the liver and kidneys to cast off impurities, which remain in the system. Herbine will stimulate the liver and kidneys, and cleanse the system of all impurities. Price 50 cents. A. McMillen.

Prof. Scaver of Yale says Western girls are "schooner built," but he knows not whereof he speaks. Our buxom lassies are built up with juicy range-fed beef; not beer.

Herbine should be used to enrich and purify the blood; it cures all forms of blood disorders, is especially useful in fevers, skin eruptions, boils, pimples, blackheads, scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood impurity; it is a safe and effectual cure. Price 50 cents. A. McMillen.

Size doesn't indicate quality. Beware of counterfeit and worthless salve offered for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. De Witt's is the only original. An infallible cure for piles and all skin diseases. D. W. Lohr.

The longest street in Chicago is named Western avenue. It probably extends from the banks of the Wabash far away to Omaha.

Many a bright and happy household has been thrown into sadness and sorrow because of the death of a loved one from a neglected cold. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for coughs, colds and all pulmonary ailments. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. McMillen.

BARTLEY.

Wm. Parrish left, Thursday, for York, this state, on a short visit. Otis Farrar of Lincoln is visiting his uncle, John O. Miller, this week. W. C. Hanson entertained his brother Everett from Bloomington, last week. Miss Maud Vickrey returned to University Place and her studies, last Thursday. Henry McKean and D. L. Beaman were pilgrims to the big west-end town, Monday. Will Downs has retired from his position with A. E. Crosby and is working on the section. Frank McClung of Indianola was a Thursday visitor at the "Wet Grocery-on-the-Midway."

James Hickerson has rented a farm of C. H. Haywood near Cambridge, and will move there, next month. The week is being observed as a week of prayer at the Christian church. Reverends Crippen and Roberts are in charge. Geo. Moon departed for Indiana, Monday. He will visit his brothers at Greenwood, this state, before going to his old home. L. Jennings, who has been spending the last three weeks in Danbury, Conn., returned, last Saturday, and reports having had a very pleasant time. Bert Thorndike, tinner for Babcock Bros. of Cambridge, is putting the tin on the tower of our new church, which is rapidly nearing completion.

Albert Price arrived home, Saturday evening. He will spend the winter here and in the spring expects to resume his position with the Telephone Company. This week was installation of officers in the different lodges, and all report a good time. Willis Gossard of Indianola was down to assist in the G. A. R. work.

D. T. Welty and M. A. Ellingson of Cambridge went up to Indianola, Wednesday, to test S. R.'s new town ordinance. They made us a pleasant call en route.

There was a "grand ball" north of town, Saturday night, where they tripped the light fantastic and cut liquid air out of "jo-jo" flasks until the small hours of morn.

Will Cowles is circulating a petition for a new town hall. The lodges are expected to take an interest in the scheme, the plan being to use the upper story for lodge purposes and the lower one for a public hall.

C. H. Liston has "cut the jimsons;" destination unknown, but he is supposed to have gone to the Pacific coast. An overplus of conjugal infelicity is probably the occasion. Geo. Zellers was appointed to look after his stock.

The east end of town was the scene of a free-for-all scrap, one day last week. W. H. Gartside was referee, and Jake Kern, two Russians and the wives of the three were the participants. The fun was just getting under way when Jake fouled one of the belligerents with a frying-pan and the referee called the mill off. The Russian "push" did not appear on the section, next day, and Jake was skirmishing for help.

Ed Lohr was holding an exalted position on the cone of the new M. E. church when he became imbued with the idea that angels were hovering round him, and he could spread out his coat tail and join them, but instead of soaring into the land of paradise he took a sudden drop several degrees below his dignity and sat down hard on a pile of brick, reducing them to fragments. There will be a decided slump in the St. Jacobs Oil market when he recovers.

"Tim" Merchant created a panic among the jack-rabbits in the East Valley country, last week, and it is said that some of them actually ran themselves to death. "Tim" killed one that George Carr had crippled, but said they were getting so timid about his "zulu" that he would have to work a little strategy on them. His plan was to distribute frozen peas about their resorts, reasoning that they would be so hard that the rabbits would shut their eyes when they tried to bite them, and while in this attitude he and George would make a sneak on them with a salt-shaker. Since the scheme has become public, Curlee brothers have shaved the price seven cents a dozen, fearing they will be unable to get cars.

The fragile babe and the growing child are strengthened by White's Cream Vermifuge. It destroys worms, gets digestion at work and so rebuilds the body. Price 25 cents. A. McMillen.

INDIANOLA.

Mat. Lawritson and wife of McCook were guests of Agent and Mrs. Lawritson, Sunday.

Harlow W. Keyes transacted business of the law in the county capital, Monday and Tuesday.

Hon. J. W. Dolan of the State bank was a business pilgrim to the big town on the west side, Monday.

S. R. Smith, the white-winged Populist newspaper reformer, risked the contagion of the county seat, Monday.

Commissioner Crabtree arrived home Thursday, from the county seat, the board, having closed the laborious sessions of the annual settlement meeting.

Whoever has suffered from piles knows how painful and troublesome they are. Teller's Buckeye Pile Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes 75 cents. A. McMillen.

The Craving For Stimulants.

The blood normally contains stimulants, and that these stimulants exercise a favoring influence on function and conduce to and may even be a necessary factor in the production of the feeling of well being explains the widespread liking in man and beast for stimulating substances. This liking, amounting often to a craving, is the expression of a great physiological principle. When health is perfect, when the blood is well provided with its proper stimulants and not overcharged with depressants, there is no craving for extraneous stimulants, such as alcohol, tea or coffee, but when the blood is defective in the one or overcharged with the other then is felt the desire for the glass of wine or the cup of tea.

In order to obviate this desire the body should be kept at the highest level of health. The more perfect the health the more perfect will be the composition of the blood in respect to both physiological stimulants and deleterious toxins. A blood properly constituted in these and other respects will exercise a gentle stimulant action on the nervous system and induce a condition of mild physiological intoxication, which expresses itself in a feeling of well being and happiness—a condition that cannot be bettered.—Lancet.

The Result of Too Much Pathos.

"One day," says Jean Francois Raffaeilli, "Daudet was arguing a point that on the stage it is a mistake to insist too strongly on any one form of sentiment, whatever it may be. 'Listen,' said he, 'I recall a little incident which may serve to illustrate my meaning: A woman dressed in black one day entered an omnibus in which I happened to be. She was in deep mourning, and her countenance was so worn, so contracted, so furrowed with grief, that her neighbor could not refrain from asking what terrible sorrow it could be that had thus left its marks upon her.

"Whereupon the woman, amid the sympathetic attention of all the little world in the omnibus, including the conductor, who did nothing but blow his nose so as to hide his tears, told how she had lost first one child and within a very few days another. Every one pitied her greatly, but when she proceeded with many tears to tell of the death of a third child her hearers were somewhat less moved, and finally, when she launched into a long account of the loss of a fourth—devoured by a crocodile on the banks of the Nile—every one in the omnibus burst out laughing."—New Lippincott.

Why He Is a Waiter.

W. E. B. Du Bois, in his book, "The Philadelphia Negro," devotes much space to authentic instances, proving that, in the words of the author, "the road to success is to have a white face." Professor Du Bois cites many individual cases in support of his somewhat bitter deduction, one of the most striking being the experience of a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

This young colored man took a course in mechanical engineering, was an apt student, was well recommended and by reason of his excellent record obtained a situation through an advertisement. He reported for work, remained only a few hours and was then discharged for the simple reason that his skin was not white. The experience was repeated several times until he became utterly discouraged. He is now a waiter in the University club, where he is forced to serve white fellow graduates.

He Read Caine.

While Hall Caine was in this country several years ago the Aldine club of New York city dined him. Among those invited to meet Mr. Caine was one of the most popular of our American authors. Soon after the dinner began dinner cards began to circulate with requests for autographs. The author in question whispered to his neighbors:

"I'm going to send my card up to Mr. Caine as soon as I can, for I am down for a speech later on, and I want to be able to say that I've read something that Caine has written."—New York Mail and Express.

The Pendulum Alone Out of Order.

An Onion Creek (Tex.) dorky visited the establishment of an Austin jeweler.

"I wish, boss, you would regulate dis heah penjulm."

"How can I regulate the pendulum without the rest of the clock?"

"Dars nuffin de matter wid de rest ob de innards ob de clock, so I jess leff 'em at home. Jess you fix up de penjulm. Ef der penjulm goes all right, de rest ob de clock goes all right too. I know dat much, even if I ain't had no book larnin'."—Texas Sittings.

Liver Complaint.

Fuddy—What is the matter with Harris? He seems all out of sorts. Duddy—He is suffering from liver complaint.

Fuddy—Can't he find anything to help him?

Duddy—He is looking around for a new boarding house, one in which liver is not an inseparable feature of the cuisine.—Boston Transcript.

Essential Facts.

"I called in," said the puffy little man, "to say that your story about the fire next door to me yesterday was all wrong."

"All wrong?" asked the editor. "Yes, sir! Why, hang it, sir, I spell my name with two s's, and I make soap, not shoe blacking."—Philadelphia North American.

The Arabs show their friendliness when meeting by shaking hands six or eight times. Arabs of distinction go beyond this; they embrace each other several times.

Did you read "In His Steps?" If you did not you missed the book sensation of the decade. No book produced in the last ten years has been more discussed by people of all stations. No book professedly religious in its teaching has ever been so widely read. The author of "In His Steps" is Rev. Charles M. Sheldon. It is by no means his only successful effort in book making. He wrote "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong," a story fully as absorbing in interest as "In His Steps." We have purchased this story and it will be printed in this paper soon. We believe our readers will enjoy it.

In His Steps

The most talked about book of the decade recounted the experiences of a church company who asked in the face of every situation, What Would Jesus Do? They pledged themselves to do likewise.

The Crucifixion of Philip Strong

Tells of a clergyman who attempted to preach as Jesus would have preached. His experiences were dramatic, absorbingly interesting and in the end tragic. Both books were written by who has taken his place among the strongest fiction writers of the day.

The Crucifixion of Philip Strong will be published as a serial in this paper beginning soon

The Crucifixion of Philip Strong

A story of absorbing interest by

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon

It is hardly necessary to state to the average newspaper reader that Rev. Charles M. Sheldon is the author of "In His Steps," the book that has attained the greatest sale of a decade.

The Crucifixion of Philip Strong is another story of the same character and strength as "In His Steps." The dramatic interest is well sustained from start to finish.

We have purchased the serial rights for this unusual story and it will be published in this paper, beginning soon.

If you read the first chapters you will not miss those which follow.
