The Plunge Bath at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs' popularity as a summer resort is due to its plunge bath more than to anything else. There is nothing Larger swimming pools there are, but none whose waters are so clear, so crystal-like, so wonderfully refreshing. All summer long it is thronged with bathers from early morning till a late hour at like it anywhere else in the country. from early morning till a late hour at night. Not everyone who visits Hot Springs patronizes the plunge, but near-THE conservative, patriotic and hon- ly everyone makes a point of spending an hour or two there daily.

The water is of a uniform temperature of 96 degrees and you experience a slight electric shock when you enter it. The action of the heart is also perceptibly stimulated. These sensations are of brief duration and are quickly followed by feelings of pleasure, comfort and 1e-

Too Small.

Uncle 'Zek'el Watson was accustomed to seeing good sized squares of cup cake, 'lection cake or gingerbread on the supper table, and when he had his first plate of ice cream in a city restaurant he looked with some disfavor upon the macaroons and small sponge drops which accompanied it. "How do you like it?" asked his niece, who was doing the honors of Mr. Jimmie Matson, the city for her uncle. "The ice cream is first rate," said

Uncle 'Zek'el. "I call it extry good. But when you come to these things," he added, lifting one of the sponge "lady fingers" and surveying it doubtfully, "I presume to say they're all In calling for any of these letters, please | right enough, what there is of 'em, but there isn't enough of 'em; just nothing but gape and swallow!"-Youth's Companion.
