Insurgents Make Fierce Attacks Under Lead of White Officers.

FIGHT OF CAPTAIN BEIGLER'S MEN

Drive Back the Filipinos After an Engagement Lasting Two Hours—Deserters Threaten Former Comrades—Hard March by Gen. Hall's Force.

MANILA, Oct. 29.—While scouting near Looe a detachment of the Twentieth and Twenty-eighth regiments under Captain Beigler were attacked by 400 insurgents armed with rifles under the command of a white man whose nationality is not known to the Americans. The insurgents for the most part were intrincate. After a heroic fight Captain Beigler drove off the enemy, killing more than seventy-five. The fight lasted for over two hours. Captain Beigler and three privates were slightly wounded and two of the Americans were killed.

An engagement took place between detachments of the Third cavalry and the Thirty-third volunteer infantry, numbering sixty, and a force of insurgents, including riflemen and 1,000 bolomen. The fighting was desperate. Finally under the pressure of overwhelming numbers the Americans were compelled to retire to Narylean.

Lieutenant George L. Febiger and four privates were killed, nine wounded and four missing. Twenty-nine horses are missing. A number of teamsters were captured by the insurgents, but were subsequently released. The enemy's loss is estimated at 150. A civilian launch towing a barge loaded with merchandise near Arayat was attacked by a force of 150 insurgents under David Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth infantry. The American troops on hearing the firing turned out in force before the boat could be looted and captured.

Fagin, who holds the rank of general among the insurgents, has sworn special enmity against his former companions. Of the twenty men he captured a month ago seven have returned, one was killed in a fight, his body being horribly mutilated. Fagin sends messages to his former companions threatening them with violence if they become his prisoners. It was Fagin's men who captured Lieutenant Frederick W. Alstaetter, who is still a prisoner.

General Hall's expedition, with a force of nearly 800 men, through the mountains to Bingangon, province of Infanta, in pursuit of the insurgent General Cilles, although it discovered no trace of the enemy encountered great hardships on the march. Vice President Hine of the First National bank, in which Alvord made his falsification, said today that Alvord's crime was first suspected by a young clerk, who saw him making erasures on a clearing house sheet. The clerk incidentally mentioned the incident to the assistant cashier, who started the investigation, which brought about the disclosure.

REPORT BOXERS ACTIVE.

Stories of Sufferings of Missionaries Come from Cheng Teng Fu.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Chinese im-zroglo is in a state of quictude. Advices from Pao Ting Fu give harrowing stories of the suffering of the missionaries at the hands of the Boxers, and it is reported that ten missionaries are at Cheng Teng Fu.

The Times correspondent at Pao Ting Fu says the Boxers declare the provincial treasurer has ordered them to kill all foreigners. He allowed eleven to be massacred.

Dr. Morrison, wiring to the Times from Pekin, under date of October 26, says:

"The foreign ministers in conference today decided to add the name of Prince Yi and Ying Nien to those of the seven officers who execution France has demanded."

It is said the commander of the allied troops at Pao Ting Fu has arrested the provincial treasurer, who was chiefly responsible for the ill treatment of the rescued missionaries.

AGREE ON THE ADVANCE.

Companies With Few Exceptions Grant Ten Per Cent Advance.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 29.—All the coal companies in the Wyoming valley, with a few exceptions, have now posted notices granting their employees the 10 per cent increase asked for by the Scranton convention. The exceptions are a few individual operators who do not employ many hands. But it is said that when the men employed at these collieries report for work tomorrow they will be told they will receive the same wages paid by other companies. The Kingston Coal company had notices posted today granting the increase. This company employs 2,200 men and was the last of the individual concerns in the valley to grant the increase. The officials of the Susquehanna company had a conference with their employees Saturday and agreed to pay them the advance.

President Mitchell and the members of the mining board visited Pittston today. They were received enthusiastically. Addresses were made by President Mitchell, Fred L. Scher and others. President Mitchell told the men to all go to work tomorrow. He also congratulated them on their behavior during the strike.

Mr. Kruger will proceed to The Hague without stopping at Paris, and after expressing his thanks to Queen Wilhelmina for Dutch hospitality on board the Gelderland he will appeal to the powers to intervene in the South African trouble on the grounds of article 3.

LI Talks Submission.

ROME, Oct. 29.—The Pekin correspondent of the Messenger cables the report of an interview with Li Hung Chang, in which the latter said China would have to submit to punishment soon for the grave faults of a few thousand rebels. Now that peace is almost concluded he hoped the powers would appreciate China's desire to give just satisfaction and would withdraw their troops as soon as possible. Earl Li spoke enthusiastically of the resumption of commercial relations. The impression of the correspondent is that Li is fully aware of the disagreement among the powers and this constitutes his strength.

KRUGER'S PLANS ANNOUNCED.

Will Go to the Hague and Express Thanks to Queen Wilhelmina.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 29.—The Transvaal agency announces that Mr. Kruger will arrive at Marseilles on the Dutch cruiser Gelderland November 11 or 12. He will have apartments at the Grand Hotel de Noailles, where he will receive several French, Dutch and Belgian delegates.

Fears from Yellow Fever.

HAAVNA, Oct. 29.—The continuance of yellow fever in Havana has greatly depressed all business interests, and the fear that the city and island will fail to get the regular proportion of winter tourists is adding to the misery of the merchants.

There is no denying that the fever is much more severe this season than last, and that the percentage of American victims is greater than ever before. Everything possible is being done to relieve the situation.

News from the Klondike.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 29.—The steamer Dolphin arrived from Skagway today with 130 passengers and $200,000 in gold from the Klondike. The Klondike came up the river on the Zealandia, leaving Dawson October 14. The river was then full of floating ice for 100 miles and the weather was bitterly cold. Two small steamers left two days later and are now windbound on Lake Labarge. River navigation is over for the season.

Four Hundred Massacred.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—Dispatches from Mukden received at the war office say that proof is at hand that 40 native Christians were massacred at Mukden before the Russian occupation. Fifty modern guns, mostly Krupps, several thousand rifles and 20,000,000 of cartridges have been found.

WANTS THE LAW CHANGED.

Form for an Incorporation Act for Cities Wanted.

FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 29.—Mayor Fred Vaughan of this city has sent letters to the mayor of Nebraska City, Beatrice, Grand Island, Hastings and Kearney, urging that delegates be named to meet with a delegate from Fremont at some place to be designated later, and attempt to draw up a form for an incorporation act for cities between 5,000 and 10,000. This is to be presented at the next meeting of the legislature for action. In the case of Foxworthy against the city of Hastings, which was carried to the supreme court last spring and the law declared unconstitutional, cities of this class are thrown back under the general law governing cities between 1,000 and 25,000. Since a motion for a rehearing of the case has been denied, Mayor Vaughan feels that some conclusions should be reached prior to the meeting of the legislature which will be satisfactory to all.
