The Republicans of the 29th Senatorial District, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in convention, in the City of McCook, on Wednesday, September 10th, 1902, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of state senator, to be voted for at the next general election, to hold in the state of Nebraska, November 4, 1902, and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before the meeting.
The basis of representation of the several counties in said convention shall be the vote cast for Hon. Samuel H. Sedgewick for judge of the supreme court, at the regular election held on November 5th, 1901, giving one delegate for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof so cast, and one delegate at large for each county. Said apportionment entitles the counties to the following representation:

Red Willow.....11 Frontier.....4
Hitchcock.....5 Hayes.....4
Dundy.....1
It is recommended that no proxies be allowed in said convention, but that the delegates present should be authorized to cast the full vote of the county represented by them.
By order of the senatorial committee,
GEORGE WILLIAMS, Chairman.
G. G. EISENHART, Secretary.

Iowa Democracy. under the guidance of Ex-Governor Boies, has "turned down" the Kansas City platform and free silver, in their state convention, this week. The people of the United States repudiated the same some few years ago.

UNLESS there is something more terrible than that so far exhibited by Governor Savage, Colonel Rosewater can have no hesitancy or fear about during the governor to take the lid off of that cigar box. Or perhaps the governor is just practicing with blank or sub-caliber cartridges?

KEEP your good right optic peeled for the returns from the Fourteenth judicial district, wherein Judge Norris is best known, and you will see that old saw, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country," smashed. He will get a rousing, complimentary vote in his district, which will come in very handy in swelling his plurality in the Fifth congressional district.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT had a narrow escape from death, Wednesday, in a collision between the trolley in which the president and party were riding and an electric trolley-car at Pittsfield, Mass. Secret Service Agent William Craig was instantly killed and David J. Pratt, driver of the four-in-hand died shortly afterwards from his injuries. The president escaped with slight injuries as did also Secretary Cortelyou.

Corn Stubble Cuts Throat.
L. T. Davis, a farmer living near West Union, W. Va., had his throat cut by a corn stubble and almost bled to death before assistance reached him. While hauling fodder he fell from his wagon, his throat striking the sharp-pointed stubble. A tearing gash was the result.

A Stunned Slight.
She—"How that woman we just passed does hate me!"
He—"She looked pleasant enough."
She—"That's all done for effect, but if you noticed she never turned to take in my new suit and hat."—Detroit Free Press.

Egyptological Enthusiasm.
It may be noted as an agreeable evidence of the spread of Egyptological enthusiasm in America that nearly half the aggregate income of the fund for the last year came from the United States.—London Spectator.

Typhoid Rate and Pure Water.
In Vienna the typhoid rate of 12.5 deaths to 10,000 inhabitants fell to 4.1 after a pure water supply was obtained. In Dantzic the mortality fell from 10 per 10,000 to 1.5. In Munich, after the introduction of a good water supply and proper sewerage, the rate fell from 21 per 10,000 to 6.3, and in Boston from 17.4 to 5.6.

To Preserve Wissahickon Monastery.
Efforts are to be made by Philadelphia people to preserve the old monastery near Wissahickon. The monastery was constructed by the Seventh Day Baptists when they were an order, and dates back a century and a half. It is of great historic interest, but has fallen into decay since the decline of the orders by which it was once inhabited.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Home for Families of Bandits.
Not actuated by remorse, but by pure philanthropy, Jim Jenkins, hunter of outlaws, has concluded to devote all his money to the maintenance of a home for the orphans and widows of men he has run to earth, in particular, and of criminals of the great Southwest in general. Jim Jenkins, now of Kansas, is now 65 years old and has spent forty years as a scout and hunter of bandits and train robbers. In this way he has made about $50,000. Among the distinguished outlaws he has chased were Jesse James and his brother, Bob Ford, Bill Dalton and Bill Cook, while he was the leader of the band that caught Cherokee Bill in 1895. In the Dalton raid in Coffeyville, Kas., Jenkins was shot eight times. He estimates his bag of bad men at about 150. The home, which is being built on a 5,000-acre farm owned by Jenkins, near Pryor Creek, I. T., is to cost $20,000.—Buffalo Express.

The Tramp Ready For Any Job.
The gay cat applies for a job where he hears men are wanted, he knows not for what. "Can you drive four?" asks the boss. It may be the hobo doesn't know whether it is four nails or four tent stakes he is to drive, but he confidently answers: "Sure thing! Had a job driving four last month at—"(any of the 10,000 places he has been to, so he can answer questions if the boss is inclined to put them), and the next morning, finding the "four" he is to drive are horses, he confidently approaches a fellow employee with, "Say, Bud, show me how to put the harness on the plugs, will you?" Asked if he knew how to make watches or dynamite cartridges, he would doubtless say he did. He might fall at either, but he would not weakly deny himself an opportunity to try. This is not true of all, but it is a distinctive trait born of necessity in men that seek employment in many and various fields.—Leslie's Monthly.

Toad Stones.
Most readers have no doubt heard of the precious jewels which the toad carries in his brain box, and so called toadstones, which were in reality the teeth of fossil fish, were formerly worn in finger rings as a protection against poison.

It was thought that the best stones were those voluntarily ejected by the living toads; but, as the latter were not addicted to freely giving up their treasures in that way, it was necessary to procure the coveted articles by other means, and the recognized method was to decapitate the hapless batrachian at the instant he swallows his breath. The feat naturally demanded considerable celerity, such as could only be acquired by constant practice, and it is not reasonable, therefore, to assume that, although the endeavors to gain possession of the jewels were perhaps numerous, they must have invariably been unsatisfactory, especially to the toads.

Dressing a Hog.
It is told of the late P. D. Armour that on one occasion he made a present of a suit of clothes to each of his employees in a certain department. Each man was told that he might order his own suit and send the bill to Mr. Armour, no restrictions being made as to price. In order to avail himself fully of this liberality one young man ordered evening clothes costing $80. When the bill was sent in, Mr. Armour sent for the clerk to vouch for its accuracy and, finding it right, assured the man it would be paid. As the clerk was leaving, however, Mr. Armour said to him: "I wish to say to you that I have packed a great many hogs in my time, but I never dressed one before!"—New York Times.

Aristocratic Ants.
The slaveholding ants are of several kinds and differ greatly in the manner in which they treat their vassals. Some make them do all the work under the direction of overseers; others share their labors, while still others have fallen into such habits of luxury as to be unable or unwilling to wait upon or even to feed themselves and are carried about and provided with food by their body servants. In many cases this sybaritism is the mere ostentatious love of being served. The incapacity is not physical, but moral, and arises from an aristocratic aversion to any kind of menial labor.

Missed the Lobby Barrel.
Considerable amusement was caused when the legislature first went into session by a member from the counties arriving and promptly asking to be shown the lobby.

When that place was pointed out to him, he nosed around for awhile and then remarked in the hearing of some bystanders: "I've been fooled!" he declared disgustedly. "They told me I could find a barrel of money loose in the lobby, but I see now that it's a dinged lie!"—Baltimore Herald.

Before and After.
Single Man (to himself)—I am sure that darling little angel loves me. She takes me into her confidence and tells me all her troubles.
Same Man (some years later)—Consarn it all! From morning till night and night till morning, when I'm at home, I hear nothing but tales about the servants, the butcher, the baker, the baker, the candlestick maker and all the rest of 'em!—New York Weekly.

Misunderstood.
"And we have one baby," said the meek man who was applying for board. "Will you mind it?"
"Mind it?" snapped the thin faced landlady. "Of course not. Do you think I'm a nurse?"—Chicago News.

A Mean Reflection.
Buggins—See here, porter. This mirror is so dusty I can't see myself in it.
Hotel Porter (who has not been tipped by Buggins)—Strikes me yo' ought to be mighty thankful 'stid o' makin' a fuss about it.—London Tit-Bits.

Women and Babies.
Did you ever notice that when a baby, an old woman and a young woman are together the baby, which belongs to the young woman, is always carried by the old woman?—Aitchison Globe.

"What are you doing there?" asked a friend.
"I'm just drying my plates."—Chicago News.

At the Price of Suffering.
Woman on her way to semi-invalidism caused by pregnancy suffers much pain. Ignorance prompts her to suffer alone in silence and remain in the dark as to the true cause—motherhood.
Mother's Friend takes the doctor's place and she has no cause for an interview. She is her own doctor, and her modesty is protected. Daily application to the breast and abdomen throughout pregnancy will enable her to undergo the period of gestation in a cheerful mood and rest undisturbed.

Mother's Friend is a liniment for external use only. It would indeed be shameful if the sacrifice of modesty were necessary to the successful issue of healthy children. All women about to become mothers need send only to a drug store and for $1.00 secure the prize childbirth remedy. Healthy babies are the result of using Mother's Friend. THE DRAUGHT
BLACK-DRAUGHT
THE ORIGINAL
LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Theford's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by Theford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Theford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901.
I have used Theford's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and all other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
