Bartley Contributes Another Affair.

Bartley, Neb., July 20.—(Special.)—Clarence Simpson, a young man who came to this city about a year ago from Oklahoma, became engaged in a drunken row with Sam Bryan, about seven o'clock this morning and drawing a knife stabbed Bryan twice in the lower part of the abdomen making two ugly and dangerous wounds. Bryan was taken to the drug store of Dr. J. M. Brown where his cuts were sewed up after which he was taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. M. Finnegan, in this city. Young Simpson also threatened to take the life of one of the merchants, A. J. Crawford, who some months since compelled him to leave a private house for using rough language while under the influence of too much fire water.

After the stabbing Simpson went to the farm of O. S. VanDoren, where he has been working in the harvest for the expressed purpose of going to work but instead he was making an effort to draw his wages when taken into custody by Sheriff Crabtree. The preliminary hearing was set for one o'clock this afternoon, but was postponed until next Tuesday at one o'clock that the prisoner might secure an attorney. In view of the fact that he has no intimate friends here and the serious condition of his victim he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff without bail until his preliminary hearing.—Special to Lincoln Journal of 21st.

A Card.

The following resolutions were adopted by McCook Lodge No. 3, Degree of Honor, at their last meeting on July 7: Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from her earthly home the spirit of our loved sister Rachel Kilpatrick. Resolved, That we, the members of McCook Lodge No. 3, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., extend our heartfelt sympathy to her children in this hour of bereavement and most earnestly recommend them to our Father in heaven for consolation and support. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and that they be spread upon the records of our lodge and the charter be draped for 30 days, and that the papers of the city be requested to publish the same.

CARRIE HUNT, MATIE G. WELLES, LOTTIE BREWER, Committee.

No Further Use For It.

Burlington train No. 12, Tuesday night, carried an extra baggage car in which the records of the B. & M. land office were transferred from Lincoln to Omaha. They will be stored in that city for future reference. The land office at Lincoln, which has been in existence since the Burlington entered the city and which has been under the management of C. J. Ernst, will be discontinued on account of the constantly decreasing amount of business in the last few years. Practically all of the lands of the company in Nebraska have been disposed of and it only remains now to collect payments for them. C. H. Morrill of the Lincoln Land company will have charge of what is left of the business of the office.—Lincoln Star.

Write at your early convenience to us to avoid disappointment.

ADDITIONAL RAILROAD NEWS.

R. A. Anderson and Frank Polley have joined the helpers in the backshop, this week.

The heavy hitters—boilermakers—and the blacksmiths will try conclusions, tomorrow afternoon.

M. Thorgrimson has returned to work in the back-shop at his old position, after an absence of two months on the western coast.

Engine 222 is in the shop for an overhauling. 158 is just out of the back-shop and is receiving the finishing touches in the round-house. Nos. 158, 284 and 198 are about ready to come out.

An aggregation of blacksmiths and shopboys under Captain Anderson, last Saturday afternoon, gave the storehouse professionals some baseball pointers, coming off victors by a score of 5 to 4.

W. M. Stoner's father and mother of Weeping Water, Nebraska, arrived in the city on No. 6, Saturday night, from a trip to Colorado. Both were feeling unwell upon their arrival, and since have developed cases of smallpox, and the Stoner home is quarantined.

One Style You Can't Improve.

Fashion has made many improvements, but has failed to produce anything superior to the old-fashioned picnic.

Last Sunday, thirty-nine people came up from the Beaver and vicinity to "Lakewood" to visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson. Plates were laid for thirty-nine people for the grand feast at noon in the shade of the trees in front of the house. During the afternoon they visited the best-fields in the vicinity. The gentlemen were very much interested in the irrigation ditch. Later the gentlemen entertained themselves in trying to live more than a barrel of bees they found in a tree that had just fallen. After a bountiful supper, they started on a pleasant drive home. * *

Injuries Not Severe.

It is a pleasure to be able to state that the injuries sustained by Miss Mary Powers in Denver, a few weeks since, in the collapsing of the great Endeavor tent, are not severe and that she will be able to assume her duties in the city schools upon the opening of the fall term. The extent and character of her injuries have been exaggerated.

Good butter can be had in any quantity at the Bee Hive.

Bound Over In Sum of $500.

A. C. Clyde has been arrested by the authorities of Stratton, Nebraska, charged with illegally selling liquors in that burg. He has been bound over in the sum of $500.00 to appear at the next term of court for Hitchcock county to answer to the charge.

A Parrot Can Talk

But you can't depend on what it says being true. It's different at Marsh's meat-market. Their meats talk and nothing talks truer than the good article itself.

Bowel complaint was the cause of the death of little Georgia Foehlinger, aged sixteen months, Wednesday morning at one o'clock. The remains were taken down to Falls City, Wednesday night on No. 14, for burial. The Foehlingers have only been residents of our city for the past three months. They have the sympathy of all in the loss of their dear one.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite, and strengthen the digestion. For sale by L. W. McConnell, druggist.
