TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 6, 1906

NUMBER 6

SECOND NUMBER

MCCOOK JUNIOR NORMAL SCHOOL

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

GILLIAN: THE HUMORIST

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

FRIDAY, JULY 20TH, 8:30 P. M.

Gillian is the "Funny Man" on the Baltimore American, holding a position quite similar to Bixby's on the State Journal. He has been a great success upon the lyceum platform.

Reserved seats will be checked off at McConnell's Drug Store, Monday, July 16, at 7 o'clock p. m. The sale will begin the following morning. All seats 50 cents.

McCook's Fourth.

The Fourth of July passed off, so far as McCook is specially concerned, successfully, without unpleasant or painful incident. There was a nice crowd in town and they and the citizens seemed to enjoy the day—which was intended to be a quiet, unostentatious affair.

The concerts by the band were a delight and greatly enjoyed.

The races drew an unexpectedly large crowd to the driving park. The half-mile trot was won by William Lewis; Fred Washburn 2; S. S. Clark 3. The quarter-mile running race was divided among the four entries, W. F. Everist and Bob Kelley each won a heat. Bert Benjamin had third place and William Escher fourth. The half-mile pacing race was the chief attraction; Webster, owned by W. R. Starr and driven by W. Y. Johnson, won 2nd and 3rd heats; Frank Denton won 1st heat. Best time 1-16.4.

The base ball game between the railroad boys from the operating and mechanical departments, resulted in victory for the former. Score 10 to 5.

I. O. R. M. Public Installation.

The first open installation and banquet of Sioux Tribe No. 65, I. O. R. M., Monday evening, in Odd Fellows hall, was altogether satisfactory to the Red-men and to their numerous guests. The officers installed are: F. C. Roberson, sagamore; W. L. Cooper, senior sagamore; P. R. Berryman, junior sagamore; H. W. Conover, prophet. The installing officers were: F. A. Munden, great prophet; G. H. Wilson, mishinewa; David Wagner, deputy great sachem. There was a splendid program and refreshments.

Resigns This Pastorate.

Rev. A. A. Holmes of the Baptist church resigned his pastorate Sunday, to take effect on August first. This resignation comes as a consideration of health. Mrs. Holmes and grandmother both being effected by the altitude. The ladies will leave, next week, for Sumner, Nebraska, his late pastorate. The resignation is regretted by all parties concerned, as the relations of pastor and people have been satisfactory and the work of the church prosperous.

Second Class Postoffice.

Postmaster Kimmell received the official news, close of last week, that the McCook postoffice would on July 1st become a second class office. This is gratifying to McCook people as indicating a gradual and very satisfactory growth to the city commercially, during the past year.

Complimentary to Mrs. Wilcox.

The following items are taken from a Boise, Idaho, daily.

Mrs. Cruzen was hostess again, Tuesday at a dainty luncheon. The table decorations were sweet peas and marguerites. After luncheon "500" was played and Mrs. Meholin and Mrs. Ferguson were the lucky winners. The prizes were a cut glass perfume bottle and a Japanese candle-stick. The guests were: Mesdames Quigley, McMillan, Tipton, Randall, Wyman, Anderson, Stephenson, Wilcox, Davidson, Propper, Higgins, Woodworth, Agnew, Ferguson, McGaw, Fletcher, Logan G. Wyman Kinyon, DeMary, Bruce, Pittenger, Swift, Horner, McBirney, Van Valkenburg, Shubert, Hoover, H. Lemp, Christenson, Culver, Hughes, Coate, Tipton, Collister, Lynch, Meholin, Kinyon, Pence, Leonard, Huston; Misses Valley, Long, Mobley, Bush, Barter, Littlefield, Lally, Mehargue, Stewart, Johnesse and Collister.

Roses in profusion formed the decorations at a delightful little Kensington, given by Mrs. G. R. Green, last Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. J. A. Wilcox of McCook, Neb. An amusing contest was enjoyed. Mrs. Woodworth winning the prize, a souvenir spoon, which was presented to the guest honor. At the conclusion of this, delicious refreshments were served. Those invited were: Mesdames Wilcox, Woodworth, Meholin, Wilson, Ferguson, Collister, Young Davies, Clithero, Lane, McConnell, Roach, Taddock, Neal, Tourtellotte, Campbell, Wallace, Keopen, Crane, Hackett, Brown, Lyman, Hansen, Grayley, Horner, Williamson, Parks, Saums, Dodd, Palmer; Misses Thomas, Bellville, Campbell.

A Funny Man.

Gillian, who is to lecture under junior normal school auspices, Friday, July 20th, tells his own stories, many of which, as he says, have been originated by a good many people; he originated them; reads his own inimitable bits of original verse that fairly reek with all that is best in humanity and all that is funniest in the world; talks his own monologues in the easy, interesting, conversational style that makes the audience forget it is being "entertained" and feel that it is having a most delightful visit with a marvelous new-found friend who is as ludicrous as he is awkward and as wise as he is witty. There is no man on the platform today who works more individuality into his public appearances, no other man so distinctly himself or fascinatingly amusing. When he has had you laugh until there are pains in your sides, he turns on the warmth of pathos to relax the cramps, and about the time you get ready to scold him for being serious, he solemnly sends a shaft of unexpected absurdity hurtling down the line and upsets you so completely that you feel like scolding him again for the suddenness of the change. He sticks so close to nature that smiles and tears—always the sunny, optimistic, humanizing, acheless tears—follow each other naturally and easily like the emotions chase themselves through the soul of a new-born babe. His work is as clean as your ears used to be on Sunday morning when mother got through using that knitted wash-rag.

Welcomed the Great Officers.

The members of the local lodge of I. O. R. M. met the high officials of the order who passed through McCook, last Sunday. John W. Cherry of Philadelphia, Great Inchoonee, and Wilson Brooks of Chicago, Great Chief of Records of the Great council I. O. R. M., were en route to San Francisco with funds to the amount of $80,000 which they will distribute among members of the order in that stricken city.

ALL FEATURE CIRCUS.

Many Novelties Are with the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros.' Circus.

When it comes to a family vote, the circus leads every other kind of entertainment, and how it has grown in the last few years! This applies not only to the size of the tents, but to the general tone and excellence of the things it offers. The Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United are a vivid example of this truth. It has grown so big that four special trains are required to haul it from place to place. The big circus tent is provided with seating accommodations for ten thousand people. Three rings, two enormous stages and a hippodrome track one-quarter of a mile long, with a forest of overhead riggings are used for the circus features. Most of the acts are new, strange as this may sound, and have created sensational interest in European countries. There are more than two hundred performers in the revolving bill, as many as ten acts going on at one time. Every second of time counts in the two hours of the ring acts. In fact, the frictionless movement of a tremendous circus program, like that offered by Forepaugh and Sells Brothers, is one of the very remarkable things about the big shows, and is calculated to take some of the conceit out of the average, puffed-up theater spectacle stage manager. The three herds of performing elephants with these superior shows are worth going to see. They do the most unnatural things with the grace and precision of a trained acrobat.

To see the bulky fellows poise themselves on their heads, evolve dancing figures with regard of tune and changing style, and pantomimically enact the broad humor of a farcical skit, is a spectacle not soon forgotten, and is wholly unlike any other exhibition of the kind before the public. Captain Webb's educated seals bring home the fact that these small-headed beasts are the most intelligent in all wild nature. They occupy the two great stages and take a cue with the sympathetic of the most fervent and cultivated artist. They play musical instruments, balance and toss balls to each other, and juggle different objects with the most expert human dexterity. It is the most marvelous exhibition of animal training in the whole world. Circus day will begin with a street pageant, starting from the show grounds at ten o'clock in the morning. This street display is the most magnificent and munificent ever organized. It will be in many sections, each division separate in feature and splendor, and will be fully three miles long. The open animal cages, great herds of elephants and camels, hundreds of high-stepping horses, gaily gowned equestrians, expert horsemen, tableau floats, musical vehicles, soldier types, juvenile heroes, fun-making clowns and so on and so on, combine to make this the most extravagant extensive and entirely enjoyable pageant ever organized. Will be here, Saturday, July 14th.
