Library Notes.

"The Jungle" by Upton Sinclair is one of the new books of the Public Library. It is the story of a Lithuanian family in Chicago's "Packingtown." More than this, it is a blazing indictment of existing conditions which no American can read without experiencing a desire to do something.

"The Breath Of The Gods" by Sidney McCall is another one of our new books. This book possesses unusual power as a story, with a strong, original and unexpected plot, closely knit and vividly unfolded, and replete with surprises and striking situations. It is unquestionably an interest-compelling novel.

Also "Editorial Wild Oats" by Mark Twain. This volume contains several of Mark Twain's funniest sketches, all narrating various journalistic experiences of his youth. These bits of literary whimsicality and adventure have become widely popular among the humorist's well-known writings.

The new books will be loaned for 7 days only and not renewed.

Library hours: Morning, 10:30 to 12 o'clock; afternoon, from 1:30 to 6 o'clock; evenings, from 7 to 9 o'clock; Sunday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock.
