Only two worthwhile items enter into the value of advertising, namely, quantity and quality—that is how many and how good. The McCook Tribune is in a field by itself, locally, on these two points. We challenge and invite inspection and comparison. We can give you from two to three times the value for your money that any other Red Willow county publication can offer you.

O, Weary Sinner.
O, weary sinner why wilt thou roam,
So far away from home,
When Christ our Master bids you come
And that on earth his will is done.

Why wilt thou wander far away,
In idle sin thy heart to stray,
When in his throne you kneel in peace
And taste there of a holy feast.

Why need you say you do not rest,
When on his loving gentile breast,
A love that's known to all mankind
And hallowed joy of love divine.

Why don't you say that Christ divine
Accept and he will call you mine,
For such is his, the Master's love,
In earth below and heaven above.

O, weary sinner, why do ye toil
In sin oppressed to meet the foil:
Come, for your Masters' voice to hear,
For he has called us children, dear.

Why need ye make this life so hard,
He will not turn you as a bard,
But lift you up in strength to give
And say to you, that you are his.

O, weary sinner, come to him
And listen to the story old;
He'll wash away your guilt of sin
And take you back into the fold.
