Have You Reported?
Have you phoned or told the committee how many teachers you will room or board during the meeting of the S. W. Nebraska Teachers' association, April 1, 2, 3.

The rates as averaged from those who have listed accommodations with the committee are: Rooms for two persons at 75 cents to $1.00; board and room for one person, $1.00 to $1.25 per day.

We wish to add that the committee realize that they will require all the available accommodations of the city, and they urge upon all who have not reported to do so at the earliest possible time.

Phone H. C. Clapp or call at the store.

DO IT NOW.

Strong Entertainments.

The Southwestern Nebraska Teachers' Association will bring three strong platform attractions to McCook.

On Wednesday evening, March 31st, Dr. Chas. Fordyce will give an illustrated lecture entitled, "The Golden Hours of Youth."

Thursday evening, Dr. Loveland will give his celebrated lecture, "Foggyism."

Friday evening the State University Male Quartette assisted by Mr. Guy Montgomery will give a program of music and impersonation.

These numbers will be held in the High School auditorium.

Tickets will go on sale, Monday, at the drug stores of L. W. McConnell and A. McMillen.

If Your Tastes Are

too fine for letter press printing—if they demand engraving and steel die embossing—come and get our figures on such work. Don't send away or give your order to some traveling shark—that is, don't do it before you have seen our samples of such work and gotten our figures.

Blankets May Not Interest

you much, but when we tell you we are closing out all our lap blankets, plush robes, also square and shaped horse blankets at twenty per cent discount off an already low price, it is time to get busy. Do it now.

IT PAYS TO PAINT.

There is nothing that adds to the selling value or renting value of a house like a good paint. There is nothing that makes home more like home than a good paint. It pays to paint. The better the paint the better it pays.

THE SHERRIN-WILLIAMS PAINT for painting building inside and outside pays in the beginning because it lasts so long, and looks so well as long as it lasts. There is no paint like it for beauty and durability, for economy and satisfaction.

Is Going to Texas.

Julius Stein announces his early removal from our city, having recently acquired a body of land in Texas, upon which he will move as soon as he can close up his business affairs here, and which he proposes to improve. In the meantime he is advertising a special sale announcement of which will be found in this week's TRIBUNE, and which will doubtless attract attention and interest as the figures are perused. The sale opens tomorrow. Note the big red sign and follow the crowd.

Special Kensington Program.

The Kensington at the former's home, yesterday afternoon, by Mrs. T. B. Campbell and Mrs. V. J. Gathercole, was of a special St. Patrick's day character and program of unusual interest. J. Frank Forbes read selections, Florence Rosebush sang, Marjorie Schobel and Dorothy Dungan gave a duet, Mrs. G. B. Hawkes played a piano number and read a selection, Mrs. Louis Suss sang and Nellie Schwab gave a vocal number.

Chapter X Elects Officers.

The annual meeting of Chapter X, P. E. O., for election and installation of officers was held at the home of Misses Laura and Maude McMillen, last Saturday evening. In former years, election night has seemed rather a bore than otherwise, since no one wished to take any office. The Misses McMillen artfully changed all that by sending out invitations to the members for a seven o'clock dinner, and of course no one would absent herself from an event like that.

Fortunately for Chapter X, the hostesses had a reputation to sustain as providers of excellent dinners, and this one was equal to the best, served in four courses, in approved style, as evidenced by the satisfaction of the guests. Between the serving of the last two courses the electric lights went out, giving the company an opportunity to lighten the rooms with brilliant conversation.

It is a fact that women, as well as men, are on the best of terms with themselves and the world after having been well dined, so the election went off in the best of humor, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. Wilcox; vice-president, Mrs. Ebert; recording secretary, Miss Powers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Schobel; treasurer, Mrs. Forbes; chaplain, Miss Laura McMillen; guard, Mrs. Burney; journalist, Mrs. Willetts; pianist, Mrs. Britt. The newly elected officers were installed by Miss Maude McMillen, the retiring acting president, after which adjournment was taken, to meet with Mrs. Burney on March 27.

STARTING A BANK ACCOUNT

It is no more trouble to open a bank account than to buy a pound of nails. Come in and say to any employe or officer of the bank: "I want to open an account." Tell the man at the window how much you want to start the account with. He will fix up your pass book, give you a check book, and will ask you to write your name so we will know your signature whenever we see it. The amount of your deposit will be credited in your pass book. All this will not take more than two minutes, and you will have facilities for saving money and taking care of it that are unknown to the man who is not a bank depositor.

We will be pleased to see you at

They Attracted Many Women.

Add to ideal weather such appealing details as a brilliant outpouring of the fair sex and tantalizing exhibits of the milliner's art and skill and you compass the circumference of the successful and satisfactory millinery openings of Tuesday afternoon and evening, by Miss Anderson and Lovell & Nies.

Miss Anderson's store was very attractively decorated with artificial flowers and other incidentals of the milliner's art, and with a large and handsome showing of spring hats of the season's colors, materials and styles, a generous illumination in the evening, and music both afternoon and evening, left little to be desired.

At Lovell & Nies' the picture-story was reproduced with but negligible difference in detail: Their decorations drew upon their resources of stock and skill of art very effectively: the select and tasteful creations of the season were in numerous evidence, chic and smart, and nothing was wanting to make the occasion a success.
