McCOOK COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Meeting on Tuesday Evening is Well Attended.—New Board of Directors Chosen.—John Cordeal the New President.

The McCook Commercial club elected a new board of directors, Tuesday evening, quite a fair representation of the membership participating.

The new board is constituted as follows:

A. Barnett, H. P. Waite,
H. P. Sutton, F. A. Pennell,
C. L. Fahnestock, H. C. Clapp,
J. E. Kelley, C. H. Boyle,
J. F. Cordeal, H. W. Conover,
J. N. Gaarde, J. E. Ludwick,
M. Lawritson, L. Thorgrimson,
L. W. McConnell.

The club on motion authorized and instructed the census committee composed of M. Lawritson, L. Sues and L. Thorgrimson to confer with the city council concerning the matter of securing a census of the several additions surrounding the city, but which are not recorded as sub-divisions of the incorporation.

On behalf of the rest room committee H. C. Clapp reported that the committee had secured the front basement rooms under the Commercial hotel at $20 per month, and that the committee had raised sufficient funds by subscription among the business and professional men of the city to finance the project for one year. That the ladies of the W. C. T. U. had furnished and were taking care of the rest room.

Junior Normal.

The time of season is coming now when the citizens begin to think of the opening of the regular annual session of the Junior Normal school. One of the important things is the securing of accommodations. As a class, Junior Normal students are not big money spenders, and many like to economize as much as possible in their expenses. Those who would like to room or board Junior Normal students should call up Miss Bettcher or Supt. Taylor over the phone or drop a card in the postoffice. Indications are for a large attendance this year.

The session will open June 6 and last until July 29. Special attractions for the teachers have been provided for the institute week beginning June 13. This will be the week of largest attendance.

Catholic Bazaar.

The Catholic ladies will open a bazaar in Menard hall, Tuesday, May 17, at 4 o'clock, for sale of aprons, bonnets etc. In the evening there will be a dance for the young and cards for others. Lunch will be served free in the evening.

Baby Caps and Bonnets.

Just received a splendid line of headwear for the babies in mulls, lawns, straws and silks, including crocheted ones. Also the corded white washable sun hats and the little sun bonnets, 20c. to $1. The Thompson D. G. Co. Utmost value.

Need a Binder?

If so give us an order now for a Desiring—the best all around machine on the market. McCook Hardware Co.

There is satisfaction for everybody in our wall paper stock. We are showing a superb line of papers which will interest you even if you are not ready for paper.

Of the Bret Harte Type.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that the new play "As the Sun Went Down" is a typical wild and woolly drama of the sort that the stage has had so many. Instead it is a clean-cut story of a type that endears Bret Harte to lovers of humanity, interpreted by Arthur C. Alston's company in a sincere, dignified, appreciative and intelligent way.

Geo. D. Baker wrote this play and he is consistent and he has the bulge on the average western drama by never being impossible. It is a play almost entirely of western types, simple and direct in story, and heart-reaching.

The company is headed by Estha Williams, and she is supported by a first-class cast including Edwin Walter, W. A. Whitecar, Victory Bateman, Flora Byam, Margaret Miller, Arthur Chatterton, Geo. A. Cleveland, Arthur W. Bentley, R. F. Sullivan, William Taylor, and others of equal note.

At the Temple Theatre, Monday, May 16. Prices: 75c, 50c and 25c.

McCook High School Debates.

Two debates are booked for the McCook high school in the immediate future:

The first one will occur on tomorrow, Friday morning. The second one on Thursday of next week, the 19th. These debates will be given by the class in argumentative English. Judges will be provided to determine the winners.

Subject to be debated, Friday, is: "Resolved, That congress should immediately provide for the further strengthening of the navy." Hazel Barbazette and Roy Scott will affirm; Glenn Rowell and Adaline Koller, negative.

Next Thursday's debate will be on the subject: "Resolved, That the federal government should grant financial aid to ships engaged in our foreign trade, and owned by citizens of the United States." Affirmative, Lorene Calhoun and Helen Schwab; negative, Lynn Arnold, Fred Grimm and Joseph Moore.

The public has a cordial invitation to attend these debates.

The St. Paul Way.

They have a unique way of doing it up in St. Paul, this state. In the published notices by the city clerk of applications to sell liquors, the names of the 33 petitioners are all printed. This relieves the temperance people of the duty of letting the general public know. It may be illuminating to Tribune readers to read the names of a few of the St. Paul petitioners: Joseph Przybylski, E. Merimadus, Charles Guggenmos, Anton Stepanowski, Matej Suchanek, Joe Spensaowski, Edward Budzinski, Martin Skibinski, Joseph Ksianzek, Anton Andrzejewski. These are a few of the easy ones. The list, of course, is lintyped.

Too Much Wet.

The breaking of a water pipe in the office of Dr. J. A. Toren, a few days since, caused a damage of perhaps $150.00 to the paper stock, etc., of L. W. McConnell on the ground floor and in the cellar below.

Gauze Underwear

Bills allowed as follows:

F. A. Roland, surveying.....$ 50 00 Mrs. Marie Ploussard, board... 10 88 C. Naden, Co. Treas., taxes... 29 16

The council is revising the present occupation tax, which will engage their attention for some time.

Adjourned to meet Friday evening, the 13th.

Opens First of Next Week.

C. C. Porter, who recently purchased the bottling business of Elza Odell and sons, is now engaged in lining up his machinery and preparing for business. To the machinery of the McCook works he has added that of the Cambridge bottling works—the latter business being closed. This gives him ample machinery of all kinds needed to equip him thoroughly for the extensive business he expects to do at this place.

William Buss, late from Williamsport, Penna., is here installing the machinery, and will be the local manager.

Mothers' Day.

Not a few white bouquets worn in McCook, last Sunday, marked an observance of one of the sweetest inspirations of the day. Miss Anna Jarvis indeed had a happy thought in originating the day. Surely, none can resist the call to give mother, living or passed on before, one day in the year a special thought, be it in the form of a letter, a word, a flower, or in tender memory.

Farmers, Attention!

I will pay you cash for all of your sweet or sour cream at Weidenhamer's Candy Store, basement Temple Theatre building.

Danbury Won Again.

The basket ball game, last evening, between Danbury and McCook high school was won by the Danbury team, the score being 9 to 8. The high school team was weakened by the absence from the game of Miss Vera Fitzgerald with an injured arm.

It was a fast game.

The high school line-up was: Kathryn Griffin, center; Ora Stewart and Mabel Hegenberger, guards; Theresa Gatewood and Vera Fitzgerald, forwards.

Lillian Schmidt took Miss Fitzgerald's place in first half, the latter receiving a sprained wrist.

Beulah Mitchell played second center in last half.

First half was played with five, the second half with six players.

Game was played on the high school grounds.

Superb Torsorial Parlor.

Mr. E. M. Day has about completed his improvements and now presents to his patrons one of the best appointed barber shops in Western Nebraska. His four-chair equipment is new and modern throughout. His case is of golden-finished quarter-sawn oak with handsome French plate glass, and the barber chairs are of the latest pattern. A large ceiling electric fan has been provided for the comfort of patrons in warm weather.

Added to the unexcelled shop equipment Mr. Day has bath facilities which complete his full preparation to fill every need of the public in his line.

Stratton Won.

The Hitchcock county graded schools have an annual contest in reading and spelling. A handsome silver cup is awarded to the school winning each year. Also a beautiful silk banner donated by the ladies of Stratton is awarded that school passing the highest average in the eighth grade county examinations. Much interest in the county is shown over these contests. Supt. and Mrs. Taylor with Miss Christine Hollister went to Trenton, last Friday, as judges in the contest. Stratton won both prizes, though Trenton excelled in spelling.

Whist Club Reorganizes.

The Thursday Whist club ladies met at the home of Mrs. A. McMillen, Monday evening, and reorganized for next year. Mrs. Walter Stokes succeeded Mrs. McMillen as president of the club. Two new members were voted into the club. Later in the evening the gentlemen of the club surprised the retiring president. Cards were played for a season and refreshments were served before the separation. The club will be known in the future as the M. D. Whist club.

Grand Union Tea Co.

Mrs. H. M. Finity is again in charge of the business of The Grand Union Tea Co. and is now displaying and selling the company's line of goods in the store room on East B Street, rear of De-Groff's store. All old customers will be pleased to learn this fact. It is hoped that many new customers may learn to appreciate and enjoy this company's unexcelled line of goods. Eggs taken in exchange. Goods delivered when desired.

WANTED—A boy for general work at the Bon Ton.

Obituary of H. H. Pickens.

Escalon, April 29—Henry Pickens, who was ill for several months, died Monday evening at his home in Escalon. A large number gathered at the M. E. church at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, to pay their last tribute of respect to Mr. Pickens. The school children marched in a body to the church, each carrying flowers. Mr. Pickens always had a pleasant word for the children, and tears were in many eyes as they took their last look at the face of the deceased.

Rev. U. L. Walker officiated. The remains were taken to Oakdale for interment.—Cor. Record, Stockton, Calif.

Died in Escalon, Calif., April 25, 1910. Henry H. Pickens was born in Pike county, Ill., Dec. 1, 1841. Was married to Martha A. Wood in St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 10, 1879. Lived in Red Willow county, Neb., until three years ago, when he moved to California. His home has been in Escalon for the past two years and eight months, where he made many friends who did everything that kind, loving friends could do to cheer and comfort him in his last sickness. The children have ministered to him in every way possible. They had the best medical care and nursing, but all in vain. He was honored by all business closing for the funeral service, which was held in the Methodist church. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. The floral offerings of friends were remarkable, even for this land of flowers. He lived here but a short time, but left an influence that will never be forgotten. He died fully trusting in Christ our Saviour. While he is at rest, our hearts are breaking.

Mrs. H. H. Pickens and Family.

Large Attendance Promised.

The State Sunday School Convention which meets in Beatrice, June 7-8-9, promises to be the most largely attended and best convention ever held in the state. Not only is this assured by the list of speakers and workers who will appear on the program, but also by the state-wide interest manifested in this meeting. State workers say that the prospects were never so good for a record-breaking attendance as they are this year, as evidenced by the large numbers from all parts of the state who have already signified their intention of attending this meeting.

Beatrice is very accessible, reached by lines of the Burlington, Union Pacific and Rock Island railroads, and the local committees are preparing for entertainment of 1200 or more delegates. The meeting will mark a long forward step in Sunday school work in the state, and every Sunday school should have delegates at this meeting.

Danbury Won.

Last Saturday, the McCook high school girls' basket ball team went to Danbury and played the city ladies' team there. Danbury won the game with a score of 17 to 13. Our girls say they received very courteous treatment at the hands of the Danbury people. Katharine Griffin, Theresa Gatewood, Mabel Hegenberger, Ora Stewart, Vera Fitzgerald and Beulah Mitchell made up the McCook team, with Bernadine Haley as substitute. The girls were chaperoned by Miss Esther Bailey of the high school faculty.

The Value of a Dollar

Did you ever lose your position without warning or become disabled and so been kept from work for several weeks? Did you have money to carry you through? The value of a dollar asserts itself in time of misfortune and too often is thought of only in time of need. If you would know the value of a dollar, place a part of each one you earn in the bank. Then when you are overtaken by misfortune you will have funds to tide you over, and will not learn by bitter experience what can be prevented by a little foresight.

You Have the Right to expect competent workmanship in photography as well as in other professions. Photography in the last ten years has advanced so rapidly, that the work of ten years ago looks crude and strained beside it. Having studied under masters of the art, I am able to give you the advantage of it. City quality in your own town.
