GIRLS' GLEE CLUB CONCERT.

Young Ladies Pleas'd a Fair Audience Last Evening.

The Tribune takes it that the people of McCook have occasion to take excusable pride in the quality of the girls' glee club of the high school. Their program in their recital in the Temple last evening, justifies the conclusion.

The glee club handled a variety of selections—humorous, plantation, high school songs, etc., and gave an acceptable account of themselves in each instance.

Miss Leto Monk played a piano solo with skill and worthy interpretation. Miss Genevieve McAdams received warm encore for vocal solo.

Miss Gertrude Morrises was extended the usual enthusiastic reception and encore for a recitation in costume.

The four little country maids elected deserved praise and approval. The program concluded with a clever and brief one-act operetta, "The Old Singing Woman," which gave some scope to the special ability of the young ladies engaged.

The high school orchestra played the opening overture, surprising many in the excellence of their work.

A Card.
Careful inquiry of fifty good merchants draws out the fact that Simpson's Prints cannot be sold at 5 1/2c a yd.; that "Meritas" table cloth cannot possibly be passed over the counter for 15 cents per yard; that Am. A. 2-bu. 16 oz. seamless grain bags cannot be merchandised for 22 cents; that Peerless carpet warp (the best made) costs too much at wholesale to retail it at 26c per lb.; that it is asking too much to ask people to believe that "Leatherwear" yard-wide silk is parted with by any merchant for so little as 89 cents, etc., etc.

Notwithstanding the brilliant showing of "facts" by interested parties we are right here on the ground doing all those things above mentioned exactly as above priced and will thank any and all to take advantage of the above strictly reasonable cash prices. The Thompson D. G. Co. Utmost Value.

Another Long Freight Train.

Long freight trains, with longer ones each day, is the rule on the Omaha division of the Burlington. A few days ago a train with ninety-nine loaded cars, carrying a tonnage of 3,274, was brought here with one engine. Last evening a freight train arrived from the east behind one engine consisting of 107 cars and carrying 3,850 tons. The Burlington recently has added to its freight pulling machinery a new class of engines, said to be more powerful than those generally in use, and these engines have been used on these long trains—Tuesday's Journal.

AFTER YEARS OF INVALIDISM.

Mrs. Nancy J. Bourne Passes On to Her Final Rest.

Mrs. Nancy J. Bourne, mother of Mrs. H. C. Clapp, died on Monday morning, at the home of her daughter in this city, after years of invalidism.

Mrs. Bourne has made her home with her daughter here for several years, and many remember her with kindest feelings, although she has been practically helpless for some time, and unable to take active interest in anything.

Brief and simple services were held at the residence Monday afternoon at four o'clock, many near friends attending, Rev. R. T. Bayne of the Congregational church in charge. There were numerous tender floral expressions of sympathy and tribute.

The remains were taken of No. 2, Tuesday morning, to Allegan, Michigan, for burial in the old former home of the departed. Mr. and Mrs. Clapp accompanied the body.

Mrs. Bourne was born in New York state 68 years since.

Many hearts go out to the daughter in this sorrow.

L. E. Lewis of the Methodist church, after which interment was made in Riverview cemetery of this city.

Many neighbors and friends sympathized with the bereaved parents in the loss of their fine promising boy by their presence at the services.

Albert Lowell Askey was born on June 4th, 1903.

Little Ruth Fuller.

The remains of Little Ruth Fuller were brought down from Enders, Nebraska, Sunday afternoon in an automobile, and burial was made in Riverview cemetery, the same afternoon, about three o'clock. Rev. "Barriers Burned Away."

Theatre goers who witnessed the performance of "Barriers Burned Away" at the Lyceum theatre last Saturday night had the pleasure of seeing a play beyond their expectations and in fact the best that had been here in many a day. To say the least, every member of the cast is an artist and capable of playing their part to "a finish." The scene of the Chicago fire which takes place in the third act, has a peculiar tendency to raise the entire audience from their seats and the stage settings with the beautiful oil paintings carried by the company are deserving of much praise. The performance as a whole, is well deserving of all the credit given it by newspapers and clergymen throughout the country, for as a moral lesson it has few equals and no superiors.—Fergus Falls (Minn.) Daily Journal.
