

The McCook Tribune. A PROGRESSIVE NOMINEE FOR 1912

President Taft is a liberal on at least one important subject—in religion.

The state of Nebraska, last week, purchased $25,000 worth of bonds of the town of Cambridge.

The national government's blacklist of headache cures has been made public by Dr. Harevy W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry in the department of agriculture. Dr. Wiley warns the public against the use of any of the alleged headache cures commonly sold in drug stores, and advises the sufferers to consult a physician. While warning the public against using any nostrum for headaches, neuralgia, and similar affections, Dr. Wiley cites twenty-four preparations which have been proved in violation of the federal food and drug act and their manufacturers convicted and fined.

La Follette or a Man of His Type Would Make the Logical Republican Candidate.

Washington, May 6. — (Special.)—Considerable interest in the presidential situation in 1912 alone serves to break the monotony of endless discussion on the so-called farmers' free list bill. The Nebraska delegation, however, is more or less reticent on this question. With the exception of Mr. Norris and Mr. Lobeck they all feel loth to express an opinion at this time. Mr. Norris believes that the circumstances call for the nomination of a progressive, and that only by doing this can the republican party regain power. Mr. Lobeck has already launched a boom for Champ Clark, and believes that as a westerner and a man of wide legislative experience he is best fitted for the office. Mr. Norris said:

"I do not believe that Taft can possibly be re-elected, not even if he could choose his own opponent in 1912. Either La Follette or a man of his type would be the logical candidate under present conditions. People throughout the country have not lost faith in the republican party but they are demanding more honesty of thought and independence of action. That means that their leader must be a progressive. Only with such a leader can the republican party come back into power."

Mr. Norris also said that the democrats have already shown their weakness by the way they have framed the present bill. "Such handling of the tariff," he concluded, "will show the people how utterly unfit they are to legislate for the country. I believe that before this session is over we will be able to gain a strategic position if we only assure the people that we are ready to nominate the right man."—Lincoln Journal.

MCCOOK AT HER BEST.

In the functions connected with the meeting and entertaining of the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings Monday afternoon and evening, in connection with the visit of the board here in its journey over this part of the state looking over the location propositions offered by the several towns at interest in the location of the proposed agricultural school, the city and citizens of McCook were at their very best.

It is always gratifying to citizens who have a community's highest and best interests at heart to note the success of such an affair which calls forth the best in hospitality and courtesy from a city. And this was exhibited in a notable measure Monday.

Again, it is satisfying to be the object of such evidences of friendly interest as were shown McCook by our scores of guests on this occasion. Any city should be proud of this fact—and McCook is. They were enthusiastic and disinterested boosters for McCook, all.

We have, too, every warrant to feel that members of the visiting board appreciated our courtesies, and left us with none but pleasant impressions of the city of McCook, her people and her friends from over the district.

NOTICE

WE wish to announce to the public and especially to the ladies who live in McCook and vicinity that we have purchased the McCook Flour Mills of E. H. Doan and are now placing our flour with all the merchants of McCook. As the brands of this mill have long been known we have decided not to change them and in calling for our flour you will remember that the 91 PATENT has long been at the head of the list in quality, the Anchor Brand a close second.

We are interested in two other mills, one at Minden, Nebraska, and one at Tecumseh, Nebraska, and we feel proud to make the statement that so long as we are running the McCook Mills our flour will be equal to any and superior to many of the other flours shipped in. Every sack of our flour is guaranteed and we are right here in your town to make good, and while McCook is getting an uplift in locating the Nebraska School of Agriculture here we wish you to remember that in using our flour you are at the same time boosting for McCook.

We are expecting to move to McCook and be one of you and work with you to not only help locate the agricultural school, but to boost the town in all other ways to help make McCook a bigger and better town. If you are not using the McCook flour, ask for and see that the grocer gives you a sack of our 91 PATENT or ANCAOR BRAND and we assure you that you will use no other.

Thanking you in advance for your patronage and good will, we remain,

Yours truly,
MCCOOK MILLING COMPANY
