

The McCook Tribune

ESTABLISHED 1882.

F. M. KIMMELL, Editor.

Largest Circulated Newspaper Published in Red Willow County.

Entered at postoffice, McCook, Nebraska, as second-class matter. Published Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Holdrege Citizen is for La Fojlette—in 1916.

There is not the least doubt who will be the successor of Judge R. C. Orr. It will be Judge E. B. Perry. If he will work as hard for the election as did for the nomination his opponent will not know he is in the race.—Trenton Leader.

It is estimated that the recent floods and storms cost Frontier county $25,000 in damages to the bridges and roads. The county commissioners have just authorized the building of ten new bridges, in addition to the six steel bridges authorized in May.

The Nonpareil is not one of the insurgents that hopes President Taft will make some monumental blunder. It should be remembered that he is president of the United States and that when he makes a blunder the people of the United States will have to suffer for it. It cannot be denied that he has had what the sporting writers call a "reversal of form" in the past few months and is now apparently aligned with the progressives, with the reactionaries howling at his heels. It has taken him a long time to see the light and it may take much longer before we know that he has really had a revelation of his real duty, but if he continues to show as much courage and good sense in the next few months as he has in the past six, the sentiment will run largely in his direction. President Taft has by no means been satisfactory and the early blunders of his administration are hard to forget, but the course he is pursuing just now will come as near as anything he could do towards making people forget his mistakes.—Central City Nonpareil.

RED WILLOW.

Mrs. Sexson returned from her visit to Omaha last week.

Paul Smith came in on Monday from Cass county to see his wife and babies, returning to his work Thursday morning.

Mrs. Hatcher is at home again from her visit to Denver.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson of White Cloud, Kansas, came up Saturday to see the old folks at home.

William Randel is still suffering from hay fever.

Mrs. Suiter and two children returned last week from a three week's visit to her mother in Kansas.

The heavy rain last Sunday washed roads badly.

Some weeks ago Mr. O'Dea's mother, aged 88, made the trip to Utah alone, refusing to have any one go with her, thinking she was active and spry enough not to need help, reaching her destination all right.

Little Harold O'Dea is much better.

Putting up the third cutting of alfalfa is the work doing now. Also poisoning prairie dogs.

A MISDIRECTED PROTEST.

Governor Aldrich's protest against the extravagant (?) outlay of candidates for office for newspaper advertising is treated at length in a most serious vein by the Lincoln Journal. Unfortunately, the Journal misses the real point: What the office seekers object to is not newspaper advertising, but paid-for newspaper advertising. Every one of them wants all the newspaper advertising he can get for nothing, in fact, seems to be imbued with the idea that the only purpose of a newspaper is to boost for candidates for office and give them space which others would be required to pay for at regular advertising rates.

Another thing overlooked is the fact that candidates do not patronize the newspaper advertising columns out of motives of generosity or charity, but because it is the cheapest and most effective way to get the publicity necessary to call attention of the voters to their claims and promises. The only alternatives are personal visits and individual letters. The visits are out of the question, to send letters to 50,000 people would cost $1,000 for postage alone, where more than that number of voters can be talked to every day for a month by an ad in The Bee at a small fraction of that amount.

Money spent by candidates on legitimate newspaper advertising needs no excuses or apologies.—Omaha Bee.

GIVE CREDIT WHERE DUE.

It has always been our aim to give credit for worthy motives whenever performed. On the vote of passing the reduced tariff on wool over the president's veto Congressman Norris voted to pass it, the only one of Nebraska's republican congressmen to stand by the people. We take our hat off to Norris.—Lincoln Star.

Congressman Norris was the only republican congressman from Nebraska who stood FOR and BY the people and voted to pass the bill for tariff reduction in spite of the president's veto. Every democratic congressman from Nebraska voted to place woolen clothing within the reach of the men and women whom they were elected to represent.—Hastings Democrat.

REPORT TO OFFICE.

The Tribune is now being delivered to city patrons, and the publisher would be pleased to have all patrons who fail to receive their papers to report failures to the Tribune office. Don't forget, however, to give your street number in doing so. And in case you move to new street number, kindly report promptly this fact. So that no delay may be experienced in the prompt and regular delivery of your papers.

Order to Show Cause.

In the district court of Red Willow county, State of Nebraska.—In the matter of the application of Nina Harris Wade, administratrix of the estate of James B. Wade, deceased, for license to sell real estate.

Now on this 23rd day of August, 1911, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Nina Harris Wade, administratrix of the estate of James B. Wade, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said James B. Wade, to-wit: lot numbered six in block numbered six in the original town now city, of McCook, Redwillow county, Nebraska, for the payment of debts against said estate and allowance and costs of administration, for the reason there is not sufficient personal property belonging to said estate to pay said debts, allowance and costs.

It is ordered, on consideration by me, that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at chambers in the court house in the city of McCook, in said county, on the 7th day of October, 1911, at one o'clock P. M., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to said Nina Harris Wade, administratrix, to sell so much of the above described real estate of said decedent as shall be necessary to pay said debts, allowance and costs.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published once a week for four successive weeks in the McCook Tribune, a weekly newspaper printed and published in said Redwillow county, Nebraska.

R. C. ORR,
Judge of the District Court.

A QUIANT CITOYENNE DRESS.

No matter what the type or style of a woman, there is no excuse for wearing an unbecoming model at present. There are so many different features that it is possible for everyone to wear something entirely new without looking like her neighbor.

To generalize on the present fashions, it might asly be said that history repeats itself. In every new model some features can be found, the origin of which dates back a hundred or more years. There is a note of quaintness about the fashionable woman's clothes, which is becoming and picturesque. If the average woman will spend a little time and thought upon what she is to wear, she can easily look as well as her sister with a large dress allowance. It is quite possible to make any of the new modes in very inexpensive material, and have it look as well as a high priced imported model.

The illustration shows one of the popular new models, the motif for which was taken from the time of the French Revolution. It is a dainty little frock developed in a cream cotton voile with ruffles of wide valenciennes lace, in a pale ecru and headed with lace heading threaded with black velvet ribbon. The ruffles on the sleeves and at the Citoyenne waist were of matching lace in a narrower width, and the pretty draped fichu was of a fine net, held together with tiny flat bows of black velvet. It is an appropriate design for an afternoon frock, and might be easily developed in a cotton marquisette, silk mull, or in fact any thin material.

The two Wright Bros. aeroplanes at the Nebraska state fair on Sept. 4 to 8 will be manipulated in the four flights each day by Aviators P. O. Parmelee and Clifford Turpin. Parmelee is the holder of several world's records among which is the duration record made at San Francisco January 22nd, 1911, of 3 hours, 49 minutes and 48 seconds. He also made a single flight from Dayton to Columbus, Ohio, carrying 60 pounds extra weight 61 miles. His best record, however, is single flight from Loredo to Eagle Pass, Texas, 106 miles, carrying a passenger. We are glad to know that such reliable "bird men" are sent to our state fair as our people will feel assured of witnessing flights.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at last one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. ## ANOTHER BANK STORY

Smith bought some pigs from his neighbor Jones. The price came to $6.42. Smith paid Jones in cash, but as usual neither had the proper change, and Smith said; "Just make it even money." Smith lost 8 cents. Jones bought some pigs from his neighbor Johnson. The price came to $6.42. Jones had his money in the bank and gave Johnson a check for the exact amount. Jones did not lose a cent. This is only one of the advantages of a checking account. Come in and let us explain further.
