McCook vs. Oberlin.

McCook high school closed a very successful base ball season, Friday, by defeating the Oberlin high school in a poorly played game by the score of 14 to 2. The weather was not base ball style and made snappy ball an impossibility.

The feature of the game was the excellent pitching of Dorwart, allowing but two scratch hits and striking out thirteen men.

The fans regret to see the high school season close, as our team was one of the best in the state, and put up a snappy lot of ball from start to finish.

The score by innings and summary of the game follows:

FIRST INNING.

Oberlin—Coldren struck out, Muirhead out to Schwab to Amsden, Mc Kinsey out on fly to Gray. No hits, no runs.

McCook—Gray walked, Schwab out on fly to Muirhead, Gray stole second and scored on a passed ball, Knowles went to first on an infield hit and stole second, Amsden struck out, Culbertson walked and stole second, C. Emerson was hit by pitcher and took second on a passed ball, Dorwart went to first on McKinsey's error, Culbertson and Emerson advancing a base, O'Brien went to first on Hale's error, Culbertson and Emerson scoring, F. Emerson struck out. One hit, 4 runs.

A LONE STAR DIANA

Dauntless Girl Hunter of the Texas Border.

Miss Katie Sharp, a Daring Big Game Hunter, Splendid Horsewoman and a Dead Shot With a Rifle.

Houston, Tex.—One of the most daring and dauntless big game hunters in the upper Rio Grande border region of Texas is Miss Katie Sharp, of Sanderson. She is a splendid shot with rifle and revolver and is the equal of any cowboy horsewomanship. She has gone on many hunting expeditions into the Santa Rosa mountains of Mexico where bears, deer and other wild animals abound. She has in her home many trophies of the chase, among them being the skins of several large black bears that she killed.

On a bear hunting trip into Mexico, last winter, she had a narrow escape from being badly injured, or possibly killed, by a bear which she had wounded. She encountered the animal in a narrow canyon in the mountains and the two were within a dozen feet of each other before either was aware of the other's presence. Miss Sharp quickly brought the rifle that she carried to her shoulder and taking quick aim fired at the bear. The first shot went wild, but the second stopped the animal just as it was within almost reaching distance of Miss Sharp. With her hunting knife she put an end to the struggle of the beast.

This intrepid huntress knows no such thing as fear. She frequently goes out alone into remote localities of the border region and bags deer and game birds. She knows all of the trails leading through the hills and rough country that rise along the Rio Grande and is also familiar with every locality of the rugged Santa Rosa mountains. Frequently on her hunting excursions she has tried the nerve and endurance of seasoned and long experienced men at the game. She is well known all through that region and is popular among the ranch people as well as those of the towns. She is given the sobriquet of the Diana of the Border.

WIFE'S CURSE WAS ON HIM

Husband, Who Deserted Her, Stricken by Paralysis as Dying Woman Had Wished.

Cincinnati, O.—The wish of a dying woman that her husband might be paralyzed if he attended her funeral, came true. William Huesman of this city is the victim.

Although nearly seventy, and the father of several grown children, he had lived apart from his wife, Minnie Huesman, his junior by only a few years. As the years of their separation extended, Mrs. Huesman became each day more and more embittered against her husband. Time and again she declared that she hoped that when she died he might become paralyzed on the way to the cemetery if he tried to go to the funeral.

Immediately after her death the husband was notified and, forgetting the past, tried to atone by seeing that his wife received proper burial. He provided a coffin for the body and next day he was on his way to the cemetery when he suddenly collapsed on the street.

"Paralysis," said the hospital physician. Huesman is not expected to recover.

CHILD GETS LOST IN DRAIN

Confused in the Darkness Boy of Six Crawls 80 Feet From the Opening.

London, England.—While playing with some boys near his home at Shapperton-on-Thames Johnnie Wilson, aged six years, crawled into a drain pipe. He expected to come out at a joint ten feet away, but missed the place and becoming confused as to directions kept on crawling. As he did not return children gave an alarm and a searching party set to work at once. They dug to the drain pipe, ten feet from the opening. Johnnie was not there.

At some distance from the opening they dug another hole, ten feet in depth. Johnnie heard the picks and mistook the meaning of the noises and kept crawling still further from safety. Finally at 80 feet they made another hole in the drain and caught Johnnie by the feet just as he was crawling past.

The lad had been in the 12-inch pipe for five hours, but aside from being smeared with black mud he suffered no ill effects from the experience.
