We caution our citizens against the toughs and roughs with which this city is now invested. Tin-horns, fakirs and individuals of like ilk are dangerously numerous.

A handsome lamp now ornaments the entrance to the Opera Hall, and gives light to all that go therein. It was purchased by Mr. Menard, while in Chicago lately, and is a "daisy."

The odoriferous molecules of musk are said to be incomprehensibly small. But who can calculate the mental magnitude of a postmaster who don't know the postage rate on third-class matter?

An exceptionally large and gay party participated in the Congregational social held at the church, last Thursday night, a goodly number of them being from the country. The ladies served an elegant collation, which was heartily enjoyed, as was also the social intercourse of the evening.

Typhoid fever claimed another victim last Friday evening, in the person of Alta Spoke, a young girl of eighteen summers, who has been working in the family of A. P. Sharp. The case seems to have been one of unusual virulence, the girl dying in less than a week from the time the physician was called in.

WAIT FOR THE LATEST—Mrs. T. Nelis of the New York Millinery Store leaves for the east, next Sunday, to purchase her stock of winter styles, which were just made out on the 15th of the month. Her handsome line of fall styles has already been received, but she wants the ladies to wait until her return before buying any winter goods.

It is with regret that we announce the departure of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Moody from our city, to take up their permanent abode in the stirring little burg of Stratton, where Mr. Moody is interested in the lumber business. They shipped their household effects to their new home, Tuesday of this week. The well wishes of many friends accompany them.

There are a number of premises in this city that are filthy beyond all measure, and we cannot forbear speaking the word of warning, in view of the prevalence of typhoid fever, in its most virulent form, in our midst. Cleanliness is akin to godliness. Let us woo the kin. There is no earthly excuse for so much filth and decaying matter being left around to breed sickness and death.

A gang of gamblers have been occupying rooms above Kendall & Son's brick store, the past two nights, and the usual stealings in which the "gray" and the "drunken caper" figure, have been going on, in direct and open violation of the law, and right in the face of the refusal of the council to grant these rascals license. Tuesday night, quite a row occurred over the repeated attempts of a caper to steal a gray blind, and it looked for a while as though gore might stain the new floor. The belligerent fellow was finally pacified by refunding the money claimed to have been stolen, and the poker game continued. In another room, king faro held forth, and a few ambitious ones were hard at work trying to down the beautifully spotted tiger. Chuck-luck in still another room did not seem to attract. One would imagine that one experience before Judge Gaslin would have sufficed the owners of the building, but it seems not. The council should teach all parties to the crime a lesson worth remembering, that the ordinances of this city cannot be defied with impunity.

One of the most amusing trials which has ever transpired in this city was that of John Jones vs. Eugene Hall, which occupied Squire Colvin's attention, Monday night. Hall was owing Jones, who approached Hall for the same. Instead of receiving his pay, Hall slapped him in the face. The matter first came up for trial, Saturday, when a continuance was secured. In the meantime, Hall bowled up pretty well and made himself so obnoxious on the streets that he was placed in the cooler over Saturday night, Monday evening, the final trial took place, each of the individuals pettifogging his own case, and the history of jurisprudence in this valley probably never saw a worse parody. Hall was found guilty by the jury, and Squire Colvin sentenced him to the county jail for 20 days. Hall will probably never again want to "pettifog" another case, in the "lower courts."

We are slightly interested in knowing just why the commissioners of this county, at a meeting held at the beginning of the present year, voted the county printing jointly to THE TRIBUNE and to the Courier; and then, at a recent meeting voted the publishing of the delinquent tax list, (about the only remunerative printing in the gift of the county,) to THE TRIBUNE, in direct violation of their first action, which gave ALL the county printing to both. And again, why a certain notice concerning a proposition authorizing the expenditure of some $2,500 for jail cells, shortly to be submitted to the voters of this county, appears in THE TIMES, under the clerk's signature, to the exclusion of both the official papers of the county. THE TRIBUNE either wants a fair deal in this matter, or to know the reason why, and we expect to have it.

SOCIAL—Last Friday evening, the cozy residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pate on Mopre street was the scene of one of the most delightful social gatherings, which the young people of our city have ever had the pleasure of enjoying. After a full evening of social pleasures, the affair was refreshingly rounded off in the form of an excellent collation, served in profusion, and showing the handwork of the hostess. The occasion will long be remembered by those present.

Our representative noted the presence of the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Hollister, Leech, Fisher, Rowell, Laws, Meserve, Dell, Edna and Josie Menard, Vaughn, Flora and Jennie Shaw, Vanderpool and McCheron.

Messrs. Messrs. Moody, Fred Harris, Ebert, Snow, Fry, Sam. Ashmore, Laycock, McCracken and Bonnot.

A serious fire was narrowly averted, at Ludwick & Trowbridge's furniture store, Wednesday evening. A handsome canopy, which was suspended over a bed room set, displayed in the window, was ignited by the lamp, and was in an instant enveloped in flames. A disastrous fire was avoided by Mr. Miller, who threw the canopy out bodily, being severely burned about the face in so doing.

The Epworth Hymnal, one of the latest and best publications for church, Sunday school, etc., is used by the M. E. people in their services.

THE HORSE FAIR!

Fine Weather, Superb Track and the Strongest Field of Horses Ever in the State!

MacMahon, Charlie E., Van Duke, Consul and other Noted "Flyers."

Greatest Attractions Friday and Saturday.

The Republican Valley Driving Association's first annual meeting opened on Wednesday with flattering prospects for a most successful season. The entries are most numerous and embraced some of the best horses in this state, as well as those of Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, etc. The weather and track are propitious for fast work, assuring, with the excellent field of horses now on the ground, the grandest exhibition of speed ever seen in the west. We give the races which have come off up to the time of our going to press, Thursday noon:

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14TH.

PACING RACE.—In this race there were but two entries—Uncle Sile, owned by P. Jacobs of Sabetha, Kansas, and Clen Neal, by H. S. Taylor of Atchison, Kansas. The two first heats were taken by Uncle Sile in 2:44 and 2:59. Clen Neal won the third heat in 2:50, and Uncle Sile the fourth heat in 2:43, and winning the race.

TROTTING RACE—This race embraced horses under 3 minutes and owned in the valley since July 1st, and the following entries were made: Minnie by Saltzgriver of Danbury, this county, McCook by D. M. Tomblin of Arapahoe, Fred. Douglass by I. W. Spaulding of Box Elder, Little Joe by S. W. Hawkins of Trenton and Maud by R. L. Perry of Culbertson. The race was won by Minnie in three straight heats, the time being 2:52, 2:43, 2:40. McCook, owned by D. M. Tomblin, though very rank, did some magnificent work, taking second place in all three heats, making one mile in 2:45. No horse in the Republican Valley to-day is more promising than McCook, who only needs proper handling to develop him into a superb "strider." Perry's Maud afforded no end of amusement in this race, making the first mile in about 4 minutes, and then retiring on her laurels won.

PONY RACE—1/2 MILE DASH—Ace of Clubs by W. S. Bannister of Kearney, Billie Mack by John Short of Indianola, Mollie M. by Maxstead of Trenton, Joker by H. Reed of Fairfield, were entered. Ace of Clubs won the race in 53, ending the races for the day.

TRACKLETS.

MacMahon, record 2:21, owned by Dr. Holliday of Lincoln, Charlie E., record 2:25, owned by Charlie Emery of Beatrice, and Van Duke, record 2:37, owned by Brown & Hurlbut of Lincoln are all here, under the care of Billie Edwards, of Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Among the horses at the fair ground who will astonish the sporting world, is Geo. Bailey's 4-year-old stallion Consul, who will trot in the 2:45 race, to-morrow. He is a magnificent specimen of horse-flesh and full of promise.

Charlie E., Little Willie and Mattie Harle will make an interesting pacing race, and no mistake. Charlie E. is a great stayer, Little Willie immense on the spur, and Mattie Harle has few superiors.

Trampoler, Estell and others will make a flying 2:30 trot. C. P. C., Consul, Friend Boy, Van Duke and others will go in the 2:45 class.

Buffalo, N. Y. Courier, April 9th, 1885.

The Schubert Quartette gave a variety of pleasing selections in excellent style. Their voices blend nicely; the pitch is usually true to an exceptional degree, and they sing with precision and admirable expression. The body of tone is moreover full, agreeable and generally well balanced. Their ENSEMBLE numbers embraced one or two sacred selections and some humorous songs, which were especially felicitous. The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation of their joint efforts.

We take pleasure in recalling the statement made, last week, referring to the drunken individual who made a fool of himself on the streets. The fact remains, but Frank Everts of the Driewood was not the party, as he never makes use of intoxicants in any shape. We were misinformed as to the name of the party, and take this means of rectifying the mistake.
