NEWS OF NEBRASKA

Animals and Their Ills.—Dr. J. Gerth, the state veterinary surgeon, is in Omaha on official business and has his weather-eye lifted for glandered horses.

Washington special: Dr. Black and Senator Van Wyck called on Postmaster-General Vilas to-day and the former submitted protests against the confirmation of Postmaster Wise, of Plattsmouth, and charges against his character.

What other defects are there in the law? "The law on contagious diseases provides that animals shall be appraised at their actual value at the time of appraisement."

States Funds Becoming Short.—A committee from the board of regents held a consultation with the governor and state treasurer relative to the matter of shortage in the funds available for the purpose of paying the salaries of the faculty of the university.

The difficulty was caused by the carelessness of the engraving or enrolling clerks of the last legislature, through which the appropriations for all the state institutions were drawn upon the general fund of the state instead of upon the special fund of those institutions.

Senator Manderson has introduced a bill for the relief of George S. Comstock as follows: The secretary of the treasury is directed, out of money in the treasury belonging to the Sioux Indians of different tribes, including the Santee Sioux of Nebraska, to pay to George S. Comstock of Nuckolls county, Neb., $18,908.53, in full settlement of his claim against the government for depositions committed and property taken and destroyed by the said Indians in August, 1884.

Lincoln has a man named Brewster who chokes and otherwise abuses his wife because she wants to be a Christian and lead a Christian life.

The firm of Garbrandt & Cole, dealers in tobacco, Omaha, have assigned. The Union Pacific, General Manager Callaway says, is doing a large amount of railroad building at present.

The Indian trade is looked after closely by the merchants of Gordon, as it amounts to $12,000 or $15,000 each month. Superior is agitating the question of a water-works system that will cost about $5,000.

Ben Hogan, the evangelist, is doing big religious work at Blair. His practical talk has made him a great many friends and his earnestness in caring for the welfare of human souls has met with great success in that place.

Washington special: Dr. Black and Senator Van Wyck called on Postmaster-General Vilas to-day and the former submitted protests against the confirmation of Postmaster Wise, of Plattsmouth, and charges against his character.

A party of hunters arrived from the Snake county the other day. They were loaded down with game, and report elk, deer and antelope as being very numerous in that locality.

The Nebraska Dairymen's Association, in session at Fremont, elected officers as follows: J. Dixon Avery, Fremont, president; E. McIntyre, Seward, vice president; H. H. Wing, Lincoln, secretary and treasurer; board of directors: S. C. Bassett, Gibbon; W. G. Whitmore, Valley; W. A. Carpenter, Sutton; H. B. Nicodemus, Fremont, and O. M. Druse, Lincoln.

A company has been organized and articles of incorporation adapted for the operation of a canning factory at Syracuse. A number of fragments of jars and other pottery were found while digging a cellar near Ponca, supposed to be the work of prehistoric people.

The number of students at the Normal college, Fremont, is steadily increasing and has now reached 111. Prof. Jones says the prospects now are that the number will closely approximate 140 before the term ends.

The Erving Item thinks the real estate dealers of that section should make more effort than they have in the past to attract attention to the thousands of acres of land still vacant in that section.

Senator Manderson has introduced a bill to appropriate $250,000 to establish a branch home for disabled soldiers and sailors, to be located either in Nebraska, Colorado, Iowa, Dakota or Minnesota.

Seven citizens of Red Cloud have organized a corporation with a capital of $5,000, to prospect for coal in that vicinity. Two religious denominations have churches at Sidney and others are contemplating the erection of houses of worship.

The town of Arlington has dispensed with all other titles but that one, and further confusion in mail matters and shipping orders will thus be avoided.

Geneva, the county seat of Fillmore county, is pushed to the front as the coming railroad center of the state. A bold thief in Hastings sneaked off a drummer's grip from the railroad depot, and dissolved in the throng. The grip contained jewelry samples worth $400.

Washington special: Dr. Black and Senator Van Wyck called on Postmaster-General Vilas to-day and the former submitted protests against the confirmation of Postmaster Wise, of Plattsmouth, and charges against his character.

Four hundred and fifty-six nominations have been sent to the senate, and many of them will probably be reported at the first executive session.

SENATE.—Hoar, from the committee on privileges and elections, reported favorably to fix a day for the meeting of electors for president and vice-president and to provide for and regulate the counting of the vote for president and vice-president and for the decision of questions arising therefrom.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 14th the chair laid before the senate a joint resolution of the legislature of Connecticut urging congress to pass, without unnecessary delay, a bill to provide for the presidential count. The chair also laid before the senate a memorial from the state executive committee appointed by the constitutional convention of the territory of Dakota, praying for the admission of Southern Dakota as a state of the union and transmitting a draft of the constitution for approval by congress.

SENATE.—Among bills introduced and referred were the following: By Teller—To provide for the free and unlimited coinage of the silver dollar. By Ingalls—To provide for determining the existence and residence of inabilities of the president to discharge the duties of his office.

SENATE.—Edmunds introduced a bill granting a pension to Mrs. Julia Grant and another bill granting her franking privileges. Bills were introduced by Senator Harrison—For the admission of a portion of Dakota as a state of the union.

SENATE.—Morrison called up the report of the committee on rules, and proposed that the new code be read at length. At his suggestion the reading of the report was dispensed with, and the general debate opened by him with a short explanation of the proposed revision.

SENATE.—Consideration of the report of the committee on rules was resumed, the pending amendment being that offered by Springer, of Illinois, to abolish various committees on expenditure in different departments and to concentrate their duties to one committee consisting of fifteen members.

SENATE.—Mitchell, from the committee on pensions, reported favorably the bill granting a pension for the widow of Gen. Grant. Hammond introduced a bill making it unlawful for senators or representatives to recommend or solicit appointments to office.
