McKEIGHAN has more DEFENDERS than ardent supporters.

Just remember that your Republican ticket cannot be improved by a single scratch.

COLONEL MULLEN's classic brow is now encircled by Colonel McKeighan's "halo of glory."

It is quite evident, when it comes to the show down, that our versatile Colonel Mullen of the esteemed Democrat prefers ducats to democracy.

It is more than likely that after November 4th, James E. Boyd can resume his favorite recreation of gambling on the Chicago board of trade.—Hastings Gazette-Journal.

The school book trust is liable to receive a decorated optic at the hands of the next Nebraska legislature. Many nominees are already pledged to aid in securing proper legislation on that important question.

The old soldiers of the state who see republican liquor men selling out Richards for Boyd through the personal rights league ought to shoulder their ballots and use them where they will do the most good.—Call.

There is little doubt that Boyd is banking his hopes of the governorship entirely upon a fraudulent whisky vote in Omaha, to which scheme a number of republican anti-prohibitionists are a party.—Kearney Hub.

The thousands of conservative business men in the state who see whiskey made the issue for the election of Boyd and the personal rights league endorsing him, ought to see a remedy. There is one and it is plainly in sight.—Call.

There have been a dozen delegations here this week from various counties hunting up McKeighan's record. The record hunters are what will cause Mack to lose the congressional race. Harlan is a man whose ready wit and ability will enable him to do more for the people in congress than McKeighan ever expects to.—R. C. Chief.

The alliance claims a membership in Nebraska of over 80,000. There have been assessments for political purposes—two assessments of twenty-five cents each and one of $1.50. This means the collection of a political fund of over $160,000. And yet the Independents talk long and loud against the use of money in politics. Jay Burrows may now arise and explain.—Kearney Review.

It is reported that several alliances in this county are about to collapse on account of a split over McKeighan. The facts are that the people have discovered that his nomination is only a democratic trick to gain a congressman and they have decided if that is all the reform that is in it they would rather risk their chances with Mr. Harlan who has always been a friend of the people.—Red Cloud Chief.

The Fremont Tribune warns the personal liberty (anti-prohibition) league that if they undertake to mass their strength against Richards, and in favor of Jim Boyd, the open candidate of the saloons, they may have to pay for it. The Tribune says: "It is necessary here only to state that there are thousands of voters in Nebraska who are both republicans and anti-amendment men, but are republicans first, and are likely to be governed somewhat in their actions by how the personal rights fellows conduct themselves. They will not stand everything."

RAILROAD ITEMS.

C. M. Mead, supply agent, was visiting in McCook, Tuesday of this week.

Supt. Campbell was in Omaha looking around, this week.

Engineer George Pronger is now running engine 247. Tom Haley running 233, vice Pronger.

Engine 244 has been laid up for repairs, the past week, account defective work when she was built.

Supt. J. R. Phelan is quite sick with typhoid fever, but at last accounts was in a fair way to recovery.

Engineer James Reynold's is expected to pay a visit to his family shortly. He is working on the Deadwood line.

Wm. Hamilton, who was firing out of McCook, but was changed to Alliance, last spring, lies quite sick with the mountain fever at Alliance.

Engineer James Lanham, who has been quite sick from exposure while working on the Deadwood line, is recovering and will be out in a short time.

Lee Sloan, one of our water service men was married this week, to an estimable young lady residing in Oberlin, Kansas. The R. K. boys gave him a great serenade at Oxford.

Master Mechanic Archibald has moved his family out to the ranch to run it this fall and winter. In the meanwhile "R. B. A." is keeping open house in town, having a nicely furnished room where he and his brother room.

Engines 141 and 219 were sent to Denver this week, after a general overhauling, to switch in the yards. Engine 142 will also go there to relieve engine 95. Engines 73 and 78 from the west were sent to Lincoln, this week, to run on the northern division.

C. W. HODGKIN.

G. W. Bartlett was recently offered a good position in Denver and he accepted it. On Wednesday, he requested the county central committee to withdraw his name from the republican county ticket. The time was short but C. F. Babcock, the chairman of the committee, visited Bartlett to learn the wishes of as many as possible. Charles W. Hodgkin was among the prominent names mentioned, and on Thursday the committee placed him on the ticket to fill the vacancy. Squire Hodgkin is an intelligent, clear-headed business man and is well acquainted with the business of the county. So far as we can learn his nomination is well received by those who know him and he will receive a strong support for county commissioner. He is unpledged to any faction, hence, if elected he will be free to do justly by all. He will aim to do the work that a commissioner ought to do, and in every right way keep the expenses of the county as low as possible. He has many friends and they ought to be very active until the polls close.—Bartley Inter-Ocean.

A. O. U. W.

The Nebraska Legion A. O. U. W. closed a successful meeting at Grand Island, Wednesday. The following officers were elected: Past Grand Commander, W. M. Anderson, McCook; George Dean, Grand Island, commander; Geo. Milbourn, Minden, vice commander; J. H. Emmons, Omaha, lieutenant commander; J. E. Douglas, Lincoln, recorder; W. R. McAllister, Grand Island, treasurer; John Hawley, North Platte, general workman; Samuel Schmidt, Lincoln, guard of legion; N. Ferguson, York, trustee for six years; F. C. Martin, Hastings, trustee for two years; A. R. Van Sykle, Hastings, medical examiner. The degree of past-grand-commander was conferred upon Grand Recorder W. R. Phillips and Grand Treasurer W. R. McAllister, which the rules of the order allow, they having served three successive years. The grand ball was one of the most brilliant affairs held in Grand Island. The grand march comprised seventy five couples, with gents in full uniform. All speak in highest praise of the treatment received by members of legion No. 9 and the citizens generally.

James Laird.

A. S. Yetter & Sons of Hastings, Neb., have on hand a limited number of lithographed portraits of the late Congressman Laird. The portrait is after a photograph taken by Brady of New York City about a year before Mr. Laird's death and is an excellent likeness. For $1.00 Yetter & Sons will send you a picture elegantly framed, or for 25 cents without frame. You should get one at once as they are going fast.

In closing out we shower upon you bargain after bargain, without thinking of what each may be worth, until the very air reeks with dry goods bargains. Now is the time to buy—to borrow for to buy, for with the ending of THE CASH BARGAIN HOUSE comes the ending of the reason why.
