PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, A joint resolution was adopted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska, at the twenty-first session thereof, and approved February 13th, A. D. 1889, proposing an amend-ment to the constitution of said state, and that said amendment shall read as follows, to wit:

Section 1: That at the general election to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, A. D. 1890, there shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection an amendment to the con-stitution of this state in words as follows: "The manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage are for-ever prohibited in this state, and the legislature shall provide by law for the enforcement of this provision." And there shall also at said election be separately submitted to the electors of this state for their approval or re-jection an amendment to the constitution of the state in words as follows: "The manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be licensed and regulated by law."

Section 2: At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for the proposed amendments to the constitution, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amend-ment to the constitution, prohibiting the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage." or "Against the proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage."

There shall also be written or printed on the ballot of each elector voting for the proposed amendment to the constitution, the words:
"For proposed amendment to the constitution that the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in this state shall be licensed and regulated by law," or "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution that the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be licensed and regulated by law."

Section 3: If either of the said proposed amendments shall be approved by a majority of the electors voting at the said election, then it shall constitute section twenty-seven [27] of article ill of the constitution of this state.

Therefore, I, John M. Thayer, Governor of the state of Nebraska, do hereby give notice in accordance with section one Ill article fifteen Il5 of the constitution and the provisions of the act entitled "An act to provide the manner of proposing all amendments to the constitution and submitting the same to the electors of the state." Approved February I3th, A. D. 1877, that said proposed amendment will be submitted to the qualified voters ment will be submitted to the qualified voters of this state for approval or rejection at the general election to be held on the 4th day of November, A. D. 1890.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln this 26th day of July. A. D. 1890, and the 24th year of the state, and of the independence of BENJAMIN R. COWDERY. 10-3mo.

ISEAL, I Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, A joint resolution was adopted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska, at the twenty-first session thereof, and approved March 30th, A. D. 1889, proposing an amend-ment to sections two, [2] four [4] and five [5] of Article six [6] of the constitution of said state, and that said section as amended shall read as follows, to-wit: Section 1: That section two (2) of article six (6) of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, be amended so as to read as follows:
"Section 2: The supreme court shall consist of five (5) judges, a majority of whom shall be necessary to form a quorum or to pronounce a decision. It shall have original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, civil cases in which the state shall be a party, mandamas, quo warranto, habeas corpus, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. Section 2: That section four (4) of article six (6), of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, be amended so as to read as follows: Section 4. The judges of the supreme court shal be elected by the electors of the state at large and their terms of office, except as here-inafter provided, shall be for a period of five

(5) years."
Section 3: That section five (5) of article six (6) of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, be amended so as to read as follows: Section 5: "At the first general election to be held in the year 1891, and after the adoption of this amendment to the constitution, there shall be elected three (3) judges of the supreme court, one of whom shall be elected for the term of one (1) year, one for the term of three (3) years and one for the term of five (5) years, and at each general election thereafter there shall be elected one judge of the supreme court for the term of five (5) years. Provided, that the judges of the supreme court whose terms have not expired at the time of holding the general election of 1891, shall continue to hold their office for the remainder of the term forwhich they were respectively elected un-Ger the present constitution."
Section 4: That each person voting in favor of this amendment shall have written or print-ed upon his ballot the following: 'For the proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the number of supreme judges. Therefore, I, John M. Thayer, Governor of the state of Nebraska do hereby give notice in accordance with section one (1) article fif-teen (15), of the constitution, and the provisions of the act entitled "An act to provide the manner of proposing all amendments to the constitution and submitting the same to the electors of the state." Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for chil-Aren. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Da. G. C. OSGOOD,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
