World's Fair Organization.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Director General Davis and Secretary Dickinson of the World's Columbian exposition have issued a circular letter to the members of the national commission, in reference to the citizens in various states and territories organizing for the purpose of securing proper representation at the world's fair, making arrangements for their exhibits, raising funds and getting proper measures through the legislature. Attention is called to the commendable promptness with which the people of the state of California held a state convention to inaugurate the matter, and the legislature of Iowa, appropriating $50,000 for preliminary expenses, with another appropriation to be made next year. A state convention of citizens is commended as one of the best plans, and permanent organization should be effected to carry on the work in the different states and territories. The commissioners will be requested to visit the legislatures this winter and use their best endeavors to see that the plan of organization is adopted.

W. J. Bryan sent the following message from Lincoln: To my friends in Douglas county .- I wish to express my high appreciation of your loyal support and earnest work, which has led to such a splendid victory for tariff reform. A Girl's Horrible Crime. BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 4 .- One of the most terrible murders known in the history of Erie county was committed at Akron, twenty-four miles east of this city. After committing the act Sarah Mc-Mullen returned to the house where she was living and said: "I am going away. Perhaps you will not see me again." She went to a milldam and jumped into the water but was seen and reseued. No reason is assigned for the terrible deed, and it is believed that the McMullen girl is insane.

Going to Indiana.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 6.—Messrs. Armour, Swift and Morris, the three big packers, have confirmed the reported purchase of 3,700 acres in Lake county, Indiana, for stock yards purposes. They paid on an average of about $180 per acre for the land, making a total cost of a little over $650,000. In an interview Mr. Armour said: "The reason we have taken this move is to save $4 on every car that is switched into our present plant. Switching charges are $2 each way, while down in the new place the thing could be done for 50 cents. One million dollars put into a plant there would be able to buck against the $23,000,000 capital invested at the Union stock yards. Work will be begun in a few weeks and the yards ought to be completed some time within the next two years."

Dan Kelliher of Boston and the Black Pearl of Minneapolis fought for $1,000. At the end of the twentieth round the fight was awarded to the Pearl. Kelliher claimed a fowl, which in all probability will be allowed.

Pere Hyacinthe's Crusade. Paris, Nov. 5 .- Pere Hyacinthe has commenced a campaign against clericalism in his own church with a vigorous address. He said that the republic was firmly established, but after leaning toward Atheism there was now danger of its lapsing into clericalism. The pupils of the Jesuits, he said, were beginning to swarm in the military colleges, and the republic threatened to become a clerical government after the most bigoted pattern of the South American republics. He though this was due to the republicans shutting their eyes to the power of religion in society, and he advocated the national churches in rejecting the authority of the pope, allowing priests to marry and abolishing the confes-

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 .- The following is the proclamation by the president of the United States:

By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the passing year, which have been full of the blessings of peace and the comfort of plenty. A bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and our hands in every department of human industry. Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, November 27, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving, and I do invoke the people upon that day to cease from their labors, to meet in their accustomed houses of worship and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our benificent Creator for the rich blessings he has granted us as a nation and invoking a continuance of His protection and grace for the future. I commend to my fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, homeless and sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense for charity and gracious acceptance of our praise.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifteenth.

President Adams Reiterates Previous Statements.

Boston, Nov. 10 .- Reports from the west, published here, controverting President Adams' recent statement as to the result of the boycott against the Union Pacific, were shown to Adams by a reporter. He said:

"The statement I made to you the other day concerning the loss of traffic to the Union Pacific was absolutely correct, but I have no desire to discuss the matter any further. This statement, purporting to come from certain railroad men in the west-who they are I do not know-give figures in relation to this question that are widely at variance with my own. I am not disposed to enter into a controversy of this character. The implication is that I am falsifying or am ignorant. It is noticeable that none of these people come out over their signature and make these assertions. What I said the other day was right and is now. The Union Pacific is now crushed with traffle it can not properly handle. I am aware that with our heavy business our earnings are not showing satisfactorily. The trouble is we are short of motive power. We have only been able to get twenty-one of one hundred and thirty engines which were ordered last May. If we had the necessary equipment our earnings in October would have been fully $1,000,000 larger than they will show. I have nothing different to say concerning the company's floating debt from what I said the other day. The company is not in the market as a borrower of money, and it has no obligations of any importance maturing in the immediate future. All talk to the contrary is rot emanating from Wall street. No new bond issue is contemplated and none has been, excepting only that in connection with the Oregon Navigation purchase, which is well understood. The report of a pending charge in the management is only to be expected in connection with the other assaults upon the road and it has no more truth in it than all the other yarns.

Boyd Governor of Nebraska. OMAHA, Nov. 10.—There is no longer any doubt of the election of James E. Boyd as governor of Nebraska. All but two counties, Hooker and McPherson, have been heard from and Boyd leads Powers by 1,001. The two counties to hear from have not cast over

The contest between the candidates on the state ticket below the governor, as the counties come in, grow very close. Only one alliance candidate is in the lead according to the figures which were last received, but there are still nineteen counties to hear from and ten of these give alliance majorities of from 200 to 600 on the vote for governor. The prospect at present is that the exception of governor, will be be elected.

Corrected returns from sixty-eight counties give the followingg vote on prohibition: For, 62,318; against, 104,827; majority against, 42,509.
