OFFICIAL CITY & COUNTY PAPER.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties, to meet in convention in the city of Lincoln, Thursday, September 24th, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for one associate justice of the supreme court, and two members of the board of regents of the state university, and to transact such other business as may be presented to convention.

THE APPOINTMENT.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Hon. Geo. H. Hastings, for attorney-general in 1890, giving one delegate-at-large to each county, and one for each 150 votes and the major fraction thereof:

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Del., Counties, Del. Lists counties like Adams, Arthur, Antelope, Blaine, Banner, Boyd, Boone, Box Butte, Brown, Buffalo, Butler, Burt, Cass, Cedar, Chase, Cheyenne, Cherry, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Custer, Dakota, Dawes, Dawson, Deuel, Dixon, Dodge, Douglas, Dundy, Fillmore, Franklin, Frontier, Furnas, Gage, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Greeley, Hall, Hamilton, Harlan, Hayes, Hitchcock, Holt, Howard, Hooker, Jefferson.

*No vote returned. It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

It is further recommended that the state central committee select the temporary organization of the convention. WALT M. SEELY, Secretary. JOHN C. WATSON, Chairman.

INDEPENDENT People's convention at Indianola, Tuesday morning next, August 11th, at 10 o'clock.

"WHERE does Judge Cochran stand," tearfully inquires the Lincoln Journal. Bless your corporate soul, on two as honest and manly feet as tread the virgin soil of the 14th district.

The Judicial Central Committee at their meeting in Indianola, on Wednesday, decided to call the Republican convention for the 14th judicial district at Indianola on Thursday, October 1st. The Secretary informs us that the call will be made in time for publication in the press of the district next week.

THAT state relief statement for April with a balance on hand May 1, of $58,629 has a deliberate air about it which excites curiosity. Probably some expert accountant is engaged on the books and that is why the relief commission is four months behind the calendar procession.—Bee.

JOHN PALMER the new commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was a captain in the army. It is to be hoped he will emulate Corporal Tanner and refuse to be promoted to "general." Corporals and captains are so scarce in these latter days that we are all hopeful their ranks may not be further reduced by brevet promotions.

SUICIDES are too frequent now, yet Prof. Felix Adler suggests that a commission be designated by each state, consisting of three judges of the supreme court and three eminent physicians, for the express purpose of authorizing suicides in cases of chronic invalids who have no reasonable hope of recovery. He would have the attending physician end the misery of such existence. As a theory in the professor's school of ethics this will not probably make much headway, but it is novel enough and he is eminent enough, to bring on no end of discussion.—Bee.

CONCERNING A SCHEME.

BROTHERS:—I understand there is a scheme on foot to secure a railroad attorney for district judge of the 14th judicial district, in this wise, to-wit: By getting a delegation from Red Willow county for S. R. Smith, an attorney from Indianola, who has but small reputation as an attorney, but claims to be an Independent; but the fact that he canvassed the county last fall in the interest of the Republican party, and the desire of the east end republicans to beat Jennings was all that kept him from securing the nomination of the east end republican ticket as county attorney last fall. And that he held the important office of republican committeeman until the 19th day of June, 1891, only about thirty days ago, as the following copy of his resignation will show:

"INDIANOLA, Neb., June 19, 1891.

To the Chairman and Secretary Republican Judicial Committee 11th Judicial District of Nebraska:

Gentlemen:—I hereby tender my resignation as committeeman for Red Willow county, this resignation to take effect immediately.

Trusting to the kindness and courtesy of Mr. J. J. Lamborn to present this resignation and thanking you for past favors I am,

Yours very truly, S. R. SMITH."

And the further fact that he resigned the office of republican central committeeman about the last of April shows conclusively that there is a scheme somewhere; and with such a record it would be impossible for Mr. Smith to go into a convention where are eight counties represented by members of the Farmers' Alliance and get the nomination. Now the scheme is when it is apparent that S. R. Smith cannot get the nomination (which certainly would be the case) then Mr. Smith is to throw his delegation to one J. T. McClure, a B. & M. attorney of Beaver City, who has a political record as follows:

He came to Furnas county in the fall of 1885, and has been a candidate for office as follows:

1886—COUNTY ATTORNEY. John T. McClure, dem., 582 Frank B. Taylor, rep., 787 Taylor's majority, 205

1887—COUNTY JUDGE. John T. McClure, dem., 665 E. W. Lewis, rep., 1,048 Lewis' majority, 383

1888—REPRESENTATIVE. John T. McClure, dem., 721 J. M. Lee, rep., 1,249 Lee's majority, 528

1890—COUNTY ATTORNEY. John T. McClure, dem. & ind., 1,110 G. W. Norris, rep., 719 McClure's majority, 291

This majority being 200 less than the majority on the Independent ticket.

He is under the employ of the B. & M. R. Co. as their attorney, has foreclosed more mortgages in Furnas county in the last year than any other attorney in it and has been a most persistent office seeker.

What would we gain by selecting a railroad attorney, an employee of mortgage loan companies, and a bank attorney? Is it likely that his education and sympathies are such that he would be with us? Would not his old associates have great influence upon him. If this is the best we can do, why do anything? Are there not those whose associates, and whose acts and daily walks show that they are in sympathy with us? Is it policy for us to select one outside of our party to an office of such power and influence, when if we had one with us he might help us materially in our cause.

THE SNIPE ESCAPED.

Earl Paul, a member of a Cowles pleasure party, now languishes in the Arlington House with his right arm badly mangled. It appears that Paul is a member of a party of eight men who recently left Cowles overland for Denver on a hunting-pleasure trip. They reached here last Saturday evening. Sunday morning Paul attempted to pull his shot gun out of the wagon, muzzle first, and the trigger catching on some object, the load of shot intended for an innocent snipe was deposited in Paul's right arm, which was terribly lacerated and mangled, inasmuch that the probabilities are that the injured member will never again perform much service for him though the doctor expects to be able to save the arm. All of the party but one friend of the injured man have started back to Cowles. The young man's father, who was prostrated by the news of his son's accident, is expected here soon.

THEY HAVE THEM.

Among the prime requirements for a first-class livery establishment are: Good horses, animals which are safe, but have sufficient life and style; comfortable and convenient vehicles and a suitable variety of them; everything kept up clean and bright and in shipshape; prompt service and courteous treatment; and last of all, but not least, gentle reader, reasonable charges. It is but right to state here that all these requisites are to be found at "THE CIRCLE FRONT LIVERY STABLE" of Gray & Maduix.

BRING THEM IN.

William Coleman desires us to request all persons who have complied with his recent request to save him samples of the various products of agriculture, to bring them to town at their earliest convenience, as he is now preparing to send these exhibits to various eastern cities, in order to advertise this county, and let the eastern people see what in a favorable year this soil will produce. Please be prompt so that this good work may be commenced.
