 For Lieutenant Governor, R. E. MOORE, of Lancaster.
 For Secretary of State, J. A. PIER, of Harlan.
 For Auditor of Public Accounts, EUGENE MOORE, of Madison.
 For Treasurer, J. S. BARTLEY, of Holt.
 For Commissioner, H. C. RUSSELL, of Colfax.
 For Attorney General, A. S. CHURCHILL, of Douglas.
 For Superintendent of Public Instruction, H. R. CORBETT, of York.
 For Congressman—Fifth District, W. E. ANDREWS, of Adams County.
 For Senator, 29th District, F. M. RATHBUN, of Frontier county.
 For Representative, JOHN J. LAMBORN, of Indianola.
 For Treasurer, HENRY H. BERRY, of McCook.
 For Attorney, HARLOW W. KEYES, of Indianola.
 For Coroner, DR. A. W. HOYT, of Bartley.
 For Surveyor, EDGAR S. HILL, of Indianola.

Don't you know that it is different "when you have no wheat to grind."

PUT an X after John Lamborn's name and secure a republican U. S. senator.

16 to 1 corn plowing isn't the thing, as Andrews clearly demonstrated in his speech here, last Friday. It's too free.

THE opportunity is now presented for the Fifth district to redeem itself. Vote for Andrews and labor earnestly for his election. Victory is in sight.

AN X after the name of F. M. Rathbun means not only a vote for a republican U. S. senator, but will to that extent mean the selection of a capable and honest state senator from this district.

THE TRIBUNE begs to be excused from joining in this vociferous hue and cry about the impending menace to our state's credit. Firstly, because we don't believe it. And again because we are not disposed to encourage the calamity howling business. The republican state ticket will be elected upon a more honest issue than calamity howling. It is not and should not be necessary. Stand by the republican nominees because they are good men and republicanism right.

THE Lincoln Journal is evidently under contract to make of his honor, Judge D. T. Welty of the 14th judicial district, a genuine pop martyr. It is simply making a great ado about nothing, misrepresenting the facts, and wasting valuable space. When the matter is reduced to its last analysis it will be found that the judge has simply used transportation that was tendered him; that he has fired a court reporter he ought to have dispensed with sooner; and that's about all. Even a populist judge is entitled to fair treatment. As to his using free transportation, the judge will have to account to his party for that breach of faith.

WHILE we do not intend to belittle the importance of the issues of the state campaign, we feel it our duty to especially urge upon the people of the Fifth district the paramount and over-reaching importance of the issues of the congressional campaign. The success of Andrews is of vaster meaning and value to us than the simple distribution of the local loaves and fishes, however closely the latter may appeal to our business sense. Hence we urge that while the state ticket is being pushed with a vigor that means success, that the congressional nominee's candidacy be forwarded with equal energy and determination; and the Fifth district will then swing into line and make Nebraska's representation in the lower house at Washington solidly republican.

THE NOMINEES.

Bartley Inter-Ocean.
 The reports from a number of counties in this congressional district are very favorable for W. E. Andrews, republican nominee.

Attorney Keyes has an excellent reputation as a man, lawyer, counsellor and judge. He will be a very competent and careful county attorney.

Dr. A. W. Hoyt, the republican candidate for coroner, is not an old resident of the county, but he is making a good reputation and is worthy of your vote.

E. S. Hill is one of the pioneers of the county, and although not strong physically his many friends think he will carefully direct all the business of the surveyor's office.

We have heard a number of voters speak favorably of Samuel Premier for commissioner. He is competent and will faithfully look after the interests of the county and also of the tax payers.

When in Cambridge we heard a number of persons who know F. M. Rathbun speak very favorably of him and they want him elected senator from this district. He is an intelligent, level-headed farmer who will carefully look after the interests of all occupations.

Every useful and honorable occupation should be represented in our state legislature, hence the voters of this county should see to it that J. J. Lamborn is elected. He is an active, intelligent business man who will have an influence there with the other level-headed, intelligent representatives who will favor and work for all just laws and needed reforms.

A VOTE for John Lamborn will be a vote to put and to keep Nebraska in line.

WHAT ails Beaver City, Merwin, that all the young fellows are running away from home?

A VOTE for Harlow W. Keyes will be a vote to place in office a man of unquestioned integrity and ability.

At Holdrege recently, McKeighan, with a characteristic grin, felt impelled to credit the democracy of the Fifth district with at least horse sense enough to endorse him. Isn't this enough to make the defenseless dead turn over in its unhallowed grave? Resent the insult by voting for Andrews.

ANDREWS will defend the farmer against the sugar trust, the laboring man against the foreigner, the old soldier against the prejudice of his enemies, the industries of America against England, and the Fifth district against the world. Vote for W. E. Andrews. . . . The history of the past, the depression of the present and the hope of the future demand the election of republicans to congress. Mr. Andrews' loyalty and fidelity to the interests of the people, his sterling honesty and integrity, his acknowledged ability, and his high moral character urge the necessity of his election. He will honor the confidence of the people with respectable conduct and faithful public service.—Beaver City Tribune.

The neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Pickrell, on Monday evening, in a very unexpected manner, and proceeded to have a very enjoyable time. The evening was spent in games of various kinds in which all participated. They departed at a late hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pickrell success and happiness in their new home in the eastern part of the state, whither they will depart in a short time. Those present were Misses Marsh, Cratty, Shears, Holbrook, Barnes, Dutton, Duffey and Essie and Edna Dunham; Mesdames Holbrook, Cratty, Wade, Boatman, Dunham, Anderson and Barnes; Messrs.
