RED WILLOW. Mrs. S. L. Miller has been quite sick with neuralgia of the stomach.

There were several interesting religious meetings held at the Red Willow school houses, the past week.

Jacob Randel was called to Indianola to the sick bed of his mother, whom it is feared is dangerously ill.

Last Wednesday, Willie Myers was busily employed in keeping Jacob Randel's hogs from being buried with snow.

A. C. Black has been appointed justice of the peace of Red Willow precinct at the present session of the county commissioners.

Jacob Longnecker went with Editor Mitchell up into Frontier county to investigate the death of John Smith, who recently died from exposure and starvation, it is said.

Messrs. S. L. Miller and A. C. Black were circulating a remonstrance to the petition for an election to vote bonds for seed and feed. The bill does not seem to please every one as it now stands.

Last Thursday was the occasion of a very pleasant little dinner party at Benj Baker's home, it being the birthday of both Mr. Baker and James Woodworth, who with his family joined in the festivities. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Goheen from south of McCook were among the guests, also E. L. Rohlf of McCook. Mr. and Mrs. Baker understand the art of entertaining, and every one there decided that Mrs. Baker and Miss Lizzie were quite familiar with the mystery of cooking, for the dinner was a shining success. Just a shade of sadness passed over the company when it was remembered that one who made up the happy company, one year previous, had departed this life - our old neighbor, Mrs. Bunnell. Miss Lizzie and Mr. Rohlf favored us with some music, after which we departed to our homes hoping that our friends may have many happy returns of the day. Talk about your four o'clock teas, and society balls, and events in high life, they are tame to the enjoyment of an old-fashioned dinner party on the farm, a party where the babies are welcome and the ladies may knit if they please, where the patterns of our gowns have but small consideration compared with the pleasure of a visit with our neighbors. Three cheers for farm life we say!

What a Woman Can Do. I want my lady friends to know of the new field now open to them. In the past six months we have made a profit of $907.02 after paying all expenses. All our sales have been made at home, not having canvassed any. My official duties calling me away most of the time, I left the Dish Washer business in my wife's control with the above results. The business is rapidly increasing, and will continue to grow until every family has a Climax Dish Washer. Not a day passes but what we sell one or two, and some days fifteen or twenty Dish Washers. It's easy selling what everybody wants to buy. You can wash and dry the dishes perfectly in two minutes. For full particulars address the Climax Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio. Get a sample washer and you can't help making money. They only cost $5. You may just as well be making $5 a day as to be doing nothing.

RAILROAD ITEMS. The Railroad Men's Investment Co. is a new candidate for business among the railroad boys.

Mrs. L. Bracke will leave for Arapahoe, Sunday, on an extended visit, and while there she will make her home with Rev. R. L. Knox and family.

Mrs. Albert Williams has just returned from a visit to Edgemont, S. D. Mr. and Mrs. Williams intend to make Edgemont their future home in the spring.

Conductor C. E. Pope has been suffering with a very sore face. It was frozen during last week's blizzard while he was sleeping in the Hotel Bostwick at Hastings, and erysipelas set in.

Cast Their Shadows Before. Masquerade ball and supper, K. O. T. M., Friday evening, February 22d, A. O. U. W. hall.

The contract for carrying the mail from McCook to Banksville is being advertised to be sub-let, running from July 1st, 1895, to June 30th, 1898.
