

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, Without Injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARSONS, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

A Dinner at Solon Chase's.

D. A. Boyle of Bedford tells the following: "I remember once when Senators Frye, Hale, John D. Long of Massachusetts, Delamater of Illinois and several others were at Turner fishing and called on Uncle Solon Chase. Hale, by the way, used to go to school to Chase somewhere in that neighborhood, and Long, I think, was born down there. Well, they all happened to call on Chase that day, and he invited them to his house for dinner. He had a house-keeper whom we all called the hired girl. She was a strange old soul and subject to 'tantrums,' Chase called them.

"Of course she managed to have a 'tantrum' on this particular day, and when Chase got his company down to the house the girl refused to get dinner, and the only things eatable in the house were baked beans and blueberries. But that didn't bother Solon very long. We set the blueberries and the beans on the table, and then Chase made a little speech of welcome, winding up by saying, 'Gentlemen, I guess what's good enough for me is good enough for you. Let's eat.' They did eat and had fun enough over that meal to make it digest well, you bet!"—Lewiston Journal.

A Feline Mourner.

I had a little dog, a Skye terrier, and some time after he came to my house a wandering cat was added to the establishment. He was very kind to "Bessie," as we called our new inmate, and watched over her with great care, never allowing her to go out by the front door, but pushing her gently in when she attempted it, but they had many a romp together in the back garden. My dog died at the good old age of 13, and the cat mourned him like a human being, losing all her liveliness and moping about the house.

About a year after the dog's death I desired the gardener to put turf over his grave, as the house was let, and I feared strangers might dig there. To do this he began to level the earth over the grave and whenever the cat saw him digging there she got into a most excited state, frisking about in the wildest spirits, evidently expecting that her kind companion was to be restored to her. Her disappointment when he never appeared was trying to witness, and she has been a "sadder and a wiser" cat ever since, doing her duty faithfully by the mice, but apparently expecting little pleasure in life.—London Spectator.

Bicycle Superstitions.

Folks open to the influence of signs, omens, etc., should read the following list of bicycle superstitions, compiled by the Minneapolis Journal: "1. The wheelman who allows a hearse to pass him will die before the year is out. 2. To be chased by a yellow dog with one blue eye and one black eye indicates a bad fall. 3. To see a small boy with a slung shot beside the road is a prophecy of a puncture. 4. If you pass a white horse driven by a red-haired lady, your rim will split unless you say 'ejandrum' and hold up two fingers. 5. The rider who expectorates tobacco juice on the track will lose a spoke. 6. If you take your machine to the repair shop, it is a sign that you will not buy that new suit of clothes. 7. Kicking the man who asks the make of your wheel is a sign of high honors and riches within a year. 8. Lending the wheel is the sign of the double donkey. 9. To attempt to hold up a 275 pound woman learning to ride is the sign of a soft spot."

Polyglot Signs.

The array of signs rendered necessary where people of various nationalities congregate often confuses one not familiar with the foreign languages, especially when the person is not aware that they all mean the same thing. On a door leading into one of the local sugar refineries are the following inscriptions: "No Admittance." "Der Eintritt ist Verboten." "Verbodner Ginzang." "Nie Wehodzic."

There is still another collection on board the Red Star line steamships sailing to Antwerp. There is of course no smoking except on deck, and each stateroom is provided with the following signs: "No Smoking." "Niet Rookten." "Defense de Fumage." "Nicht Rauchen."—Philadelphia Record.

No Cause For Alarm.

He (gently)—Are you not afraid some one may marry your money?
She (sweetly)—Oh, dear, no! Such an idea never entered my head.
He (tenderly)—Ah, in your sweet innocence you do not know how coldly mercenary some men are.
She (quietly)—Perhaps not.
He (with suppressed emotion)—I would not for the world have such a terrible fate happen to you. The man who wins you should love you for yourself alone.
She—He'll have to. It's my cousin Jennie who has the money, not I. You've made some mistake. I haven't a penny.
He—Er—very pleasant weather we're having.—Boston Globe.

Spotted Cigars.

There is a tradition among cigar smokers, which finds more or less credence, to the effect that spotted cigars are the best. To meet the demand for spotted goods some manufacturers use diluted sulphuric acid, which, being liberally sprinkled on the tobacco to be used for wrappers, gives the desired speckled appearance. In justification of this practice the manufacturers say it doesn't hurt the cigar at all and it pleases some smokers.—New York World.

In the Future.

Mrs. De Fashion (about leaving the children's party)—Marie!
Nurse-girl—Yes, ma'am.
Mrs. De Fashion—It's time for us to go home. Which of these children is mine?—Philadelphia Telegraph.

NOTICE.

William H. Boyd, defendant, will take notice that on May 7, 1895, Frank Carruth, plaintiff, filed in the District court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, a transcript of the proceedings had in an action begun before J. E. Kelley, a justice of the peace of said county, against defendant, the object and prayer of his petition filed therein being to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in writing, given by said defendant to the Citizens' bank of McCook, Nebraska, Sept. 29, 1894, for the sum of $40.50, due Dec. 29, 1894, drawing interest at 10 per cent. per annum from maturity, which note was duly sold and assigned to plaintiff before commencing this action and upon which there is now due plaintiff from the defendant the sum of $43.80, for which sum with interest and costs of suit the plaintiff prays judgment against said defendant. Plaintiff on May 7, 1895, caused a writ of attachment to issue from said district court against the property of defendant in said county, which the sheriff of said county, being unable to find any personal property of defendant subject to attachment, on May 9, 1895, duly levied upon the following described real estate, the property of defendant in Red Willow county, Nebraska, to-wit: The southeast quarter of section 11, and the southwest quarter of section 12, all in township 3, north of range 29 west. Due appraisal and return of said order has been made and filed in the office of the clerk of said court, the purpose of said attachment being to subject said land to sale for the payment of the amount found to be due plaintiff as above set forth.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Nov. 25, 1895. 10-18-95. FRANK CARRUTH, Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S TAX SALE.

By virtue of a treasurer's distress warrant issued by J. E. Meserve, county treasurer, in and for the county of Red Willow and state of Nebraska, and to me delivered in favor of Red Willow county, and against C. M. Noble, I have levied upon the following described goods and chattels as the property of the said C. M. Noble, to-wit: One 8-foot show case and all of the counters and shelving in the store room lately occupied by C. M. Noble in the A.O.U.W. building in McCook, Nebraska. Which I shall expose at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the above described building, on the 22nd day of October, 1895, at 1 o'clock, p. m., to satisfy said warrant and costs.

Dated the 9th day of October, 1895. E. R. BANKS, Sheriff. By C. F. BABCOCK, Deputy.

ESTRAY SALE.

I will sell to the highest bidder for cash on Monday, November 18th, 1895, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the residence of J. M. Baldwin of Driftwood, to defray expenses and costs, to-wit: One bay horse about fifteen hands high, white mark on forehead and white hind feet; ten years old; weighs about 1,200 pounds. Said horse being taken up by J. M. Baldwin on June 2d, 1895, and duly advertised.

W. F. ESHER, J. P. of Driftwood, Neb. Vailton, Neb., Oct. 11th, 1895. 10-18-95.

Some handsome new box writing paper just received at our stationery department. Prices very reasonable.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We had not been able to get any relief in the house. This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists."
