INDIANOLA.

There was a dance in Beardslee's Hall, Wednesday evening.

Hon. J. J. Lamborn is visiting with old friends in New Jersey.

Miss Helen Byrne is slowly recovering and is reported out of danger.

B. G. Gossard has moved into the house recently vacated by R. L. Beckwith.

John Beck came home from Orleans college for a Thanksgiving visit, Tuesday evening.

J. H. Bayston left, Wednesday evening, for the Teachers' Association meeting at Oxford.

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a supper at the Masonic hall, Thanksgiving evening.

The school orchestra has begun the preparation of an operetta for presentation during the winter.

The state board of irrigation was in session here, Saturday last, taking evidence in several cases.

W. R. Starr has been out of the city on business in connection with the election contest over the district judgeship.

Report comes that Will Crago, son of Rev. Crago of the M. E. church, is doing excellent work at Orleans college.

R. L. Beckwith and Denver Taylor are keeping house for themselves now, Miss Beckwith having returned to Oxford.

A. Grass came back from his trip in the interest of the Masonic building association sooner than expected. In consequence of the hard times he found that he could not make it pay.

BARTLEY.

J. A. Curlee was at Culbertson, on business, Monday.

A. L. Cochran moved into A. G. Keyes' house on Tuesday.

O. Frost made a business trip to Lincoln, first of the week.

A. G. Keyes has moved to his new house on the farm, west of town.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Langon, Thursday, Nov. 21.

Wm. Grisell is improving in health and expects to be able to resume teaching, soon.

The section men are laying new rails on the side-track at this place, a much needed improvement.

Miss Belle Taylor visited Indianola, Tuesday evening, going up on No. 5 and returning on No. 4.

Relatives from Iowa arrived here on Wednesday to make Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Baker an extended visit.

Miss Irene Flint had so far recovered from her exciting experience of last week, as to be able to teach school, on Monday.

Mrs. J. Madison, who went to Omaha a month or so ago to undergo an operation for the removal of a tumor, returned on Friday evening of last week. Her complete recovery seems to be but a question of time.

Ed. Thomas, with his sister-in-law, Miss Matie Sentance, arrived here on Friday night of last week from Attamont, Kansas, repentant, and no doubt, much wiser than when they left. It will be remembered that these two young people and Miss Sentance's sister, Gertie, surprised the people of this community, some months ago, by their midnight disappearance, which took the form of elopement. Owing to a recent attack of fever, Miss Sentance is at present confined to her bed.

In a sleigh constructed of gas pipe runners attached to a buggy box Harry Dole left town, Tuesday evening, with a lady at his side and a kindly feeling in his heart. Some distance out, however, the improved sleigh runners refused longer to do their share toward contributing to the enjoyment of the couple and later Mr. Dole could have been seen walking to town beside the sleigh, with vengeance in his thoughts and frost on his moustache, muttering imprecations on the head of the blacksmith responsible for the beastly conveyance.

COLEMAN.

P. Blatt has thirty acres sown to rye.

W. Nicklas is through corn picking.

M. H. Cole has built a new frame stable.

H. B. Smith is feeding twenty head of steers.

Roy Coleman is the owner of a Jersey calf now.

C. W. Lepper's alfalfa is in fine shape for winter.

There is a good deal of corn to pick yet, up here.

M. H. Cole took his hog crop to market, this week.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the church.

Bert Wales took a load of corn to McCook, Monday.

Superintendent Bayston visited the school in district 58, recently.

W. Sharp has been working in McCook at his trade, carpentering.

C. W. Lepper is fall plowing and finds the soil in excellent condition.

H. G. Church is feeding one hundred and thirty-five head of steers.

Farmers here have enough feed to run them through a long, cold winter.

There was a taffy pulling at the home of H. K. Bixler, one evening recently.

M. H. Cole fenced off a portion of his stalk field and turned his stock in.

Gertie Coleman is now at San Bernardino, California, and Edith, at Los Angeles.

Farmers up here have enough corn to do them, and some will have a little to sell.

Matt Droll bought twenty-two steers of H. G. Church, to feed some of his corn crop to.

As there is plenty of corn we presume the old bay rooster will be stall fed for Christmas.

The welcome sound of the corn ears as they strike the "bump board" is heard in these parts.

The soil is in the best condition now that it has been for several years at this season of the year.

There was a Thanksgiving programme given by the pupils of the school in district 58, Thursday.

H. K. Bixler, wife and daughter, spent the day, recently, visiting with the family of H. B. Wales.

There are seventy acres of fall wheat sown on the Will Smith farm, and it is coming on nicely.

With the cribs full and ricks of corn piled up on the ground it begins to look a little like old times.

Sabbath school at the Coleman school house every Sabbath. Prayer meeting every Sunday night and preaching every two weeks.

It is strongly intimated that H. T. Church has 338 head of steers and one cow to sell, and that F. S. Wilcox is an expert in dropping a nickle "IN THE FUNNEL." Cigars, boys.

M. H. Cole cultivated his corn five times over during the summer and will have over fifteen hundred bushels as a reward for his keeping "everlastingly at it" in proper season.

TYRONE.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. N. Walton on the 18th inst., a son.

C. S. Blair and P. N. Fough went to McCook, last Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hunt on the 24th inst., a daughter.

Emily and Aytel Borkman, who are sick with typhoid fever, were no better at last accounts.

Mary Vorce, who is teaching in the Cartwright district, visited Florence Moore, Wednesday night.

About thirty of Mr. Borkman's neighbors made a husking bee and put about 1,500 bushels of corn in the crib for him, last Thursday.

Try a jag of clean Sheridan coal; it's all right; you won't get a divorce suit on your hands. Bullard keeps it.

I will pay 20c. a bushel for good corn. F. S. WILCOX.

Is Francis Schlatter in town? Oh, no; that's just the crowd going into Bullard's for Sheridan and Pennsylvania coal. Well, let's fall in line.

Finest hand picked Apples, 85c. to 90c., at Knipple's.

If you want to have your meals on time buy the Canyon City nut coal. It's the stuff. Bullard sells it.

At Bullard's you can get coal for $4.00 per ton that will agreeably surprise you for heating stoves. Try a batch of it.

Try that 15 cent box paper at THE TRIBUNE office. Worth 25 cts. Also cheaper grades.

Finest hand picked Apples, 85c. to 90c., at Knipple's.

Ladies, do not let your house plants freeze when you can buy hard coal for $10 per ton. It will cost more money before long—Bullard has lots of it now.

Read the best county newspaper—that's The McCook Tribune every time.

Finest hand picked Apples, 85c. to 90c., at Knipple's.

We are still selling Canon City Coal for $7.00 per ton, delivered. No deduction is taken from weight for Drayage. We Guarantee Full Weight. ROONEY & MCADAMS.

Finest hand picked Apples, 85c. to 90c., at Knipple's.

Do not be misled by flattering prices. You Know you can always buy all kinds of coal at Bullard's just as cheap as anywhere else, quality and quantity considered.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
