The Argus got an iron sewer pipe, the Nation got about a V and prospects, the preacher got a turkey, the turkey was bought from an A. P. A. and they are all falling over each other to nominate Bentley—we don't think. Joseph Kubicek came down from McCook, Saturday morning, to visit with his family, returning to that place again, Sunday night. He says that Red Cloud is all right and that he saw more people and teams in this city than he has seen in McCook in six weeks.—Red Cloud Belt.

Tacoma, Wash., March 13.—The Puget Sound, Mount Tacoma & Eastern Railway company was incorporated today with a capital stock of $2,000,000, partially subscribed by eastern capitalists. The new road will follow what is known as Hart's logging railway for ten miles in the direction of Mount Tacoma, forty miles distant from the city, the first objective point of the route, which is essentially a scenic railway. From Mount Tacoma the railroad will be built eastward and will probably connect with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.

Last Saturday night immediately after the arrival of the trains at this point, Switchman Larkey, while performing his customary duties in the yard, found the body of a man lying on the track near the Ogdan Avenue crossing. The man was removed to the depot and proved to be a stranger in an unconscious condition from the effects of a severe cut on the head. Dr. Brady, the company surgeon, gave the wound needed attention, and in a short time the man regained consciousness. From the statement he made it was learned that with several companions he came in on the front end of No. 3's mail car and when at the crossing either jumped off or was pushed off the train, which, he could not remember. In the fall he received the injury from which he was suffering. His discovery by Mr. Larkey was timely, for at the time an engine was backing down and in a few more seconds would have crushed the life out of his prostrate form. The man gave his name as J. F. Statsny and was evidently a genteel tramp. He was cared for until the next day, when the citizens made up a purse and sent him to McCook, Sunday night.—Oxford Standard.
