Directors' meeting of the McCook club, next Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock, in the club house. Full attendance of members of the club is urged.

And next Tuesday is the bond election. Do not forget it. The bond proposition should receive a large and a practically unanimous vote of our people.

The Los Angeles, California, papers contain an account of a "little misunderstanding" Leon F. Moss, a former citizen here, and now known as an A. P. A. attorney in Los Angeles, had with a Catholic, recently, in the "City of the Angels", in which Leon was considerably used up.

The city authorities should put a stop to coasting on bicycles or fast riding within the city limits. That other accidents have not taken place is rather a matter of luck or good fortune than skill or good management. The rights of horsemen are daily interfered with and lives and property jeopardized.

The McCook brothers will dispense ten gallons of ice cream to their invited friends at their new restaurant, next Tuesday evening. The boys are now opened up for business in the old Chenery drug store building, and have everything fixed in fine shape, and will doubtless do a prosperous business.

Last evening, Master Frank, the seven-year-old son of Fireman N. Newkirk, while coasting down the hill on lower Madison street, on his bicycle, collided with C. T. Brewer's wagon and team, and was very seriously injured. His jaw was broken in two places and will prove a troublesome fracture. Besides he was injured about the neck and badly by shaken up generally. Altogether the lad's injuries are very severe, and should prove an effectual warning against coasting or fast bicycle riding anywhere within the city limits. Dr. Gage has the case in charge.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and one bottle completely cured him. For sale by McConnell and Co., druggists.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. HOW TO TREAT A WIFE. (From Pacific Health Journal.) First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, tender look, may do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists.
