ROBERT GOOD, Chairman
M. CHRISTENSEN, Secretary.

It should be understood by the administration that it is in no wise to glorify itself over the fact that crops are good this year.

President McKinley's currency commission is the butt of many jokes in Europe, and it is safe to say that the commission will accomplish nothing.

It is to be hoped that Prof. Andree will not make a gold strike at the north pole, and forget to come back to tell us whether it looks like a fish or a telegraph-pole.

Judging from the report that Dr. Talmage's congregation in Washington is dissatisfied, it would seem that the people at the capital prefer to go to the circus to see acrobatics.

THE DEMOCRAT is in receipt of a complete copy of the new tariff bill, and it is as interesting as a Chinese puzzle, and more humorous than a comic weekly. The humor is of the dry kind and does not appear on the surface, but it's there just the same.

An elevator man in Chicago was wishing, the other day, that he had some ice with which to cool his fevered brow, when a 200-pound cake of it fell from the fourth floor and struck him square on the head. He got his wish and a funeral notice beside, but we do not suppose he is satisfied. Some people never are.

Congress passed the Dingley bill Saturday and adjourned without paying attention to the currency message sent by President McKinley. The tariff was the only object of legislation in congress during its extra session, and the "two-million democrats" who voted for McKinley in the hope that financial legislation would take place, may now repair to the woodshed and kick themselves good and hard.

The session of congress which closed last week will live in history more for what it failed to do than for what it did do. The Cubans, who were to be freed immediately after congress convened, are still fighting for liberty; the trusts which were to be killed are growing fatter every day; the currency system which was to be reformed is the same as of yore; the workmen who were to be given jobs are still tramping; Hawaii, which was to have been annexed, is still an independent country; the tariff which was a disgrace has been superseded by a worse one; but in spite of it all crops are good and "prosperity" seems about ready to dawn on the country at large.

Does Mr. Bryan really favor irredeemable paper money, based on taxes? Yes. He is heartily in accord with every plank in the Omaha platform 1892 and the St. Louis platform of 1896. The first campaign he made in Nebraska, 1880, two years before the adoption of the Peoples Party platform at Omaha, was upon a platform based upon the declaration of principles of the farmers' Alliance. He stands to-day right where he stood then. In his district, the Alliance people elected him on a ticket headed "Democratic." The two other members supported by the Alliance and elected were called "Independents."

On all important measures these three members, Bryan, McKeighan and Ken voted together. Later on he completely routed the monocratic democracy in his own state, and was instrumental in leading the toiling element of his party up to a full acceptance of Populist principles. He came within an ace of doing as much for us at Chicago. Before the Congressional nominations of 1898 are made the Bryan democracy in nearly all districts will advance to a full and enthusiastic companionship of Populist principles, as enunciated in the Omaha and St. Louis platforms, if we do our duty as educators. It behooves us, henceforth, to strive to educate the Bryanites up to a full understanding of our principles. Nothing is to be gained by abusing them for not grasping in a moment what it took most Populists so many years to learn. There are politicians among them who will attempt to hold them back, but the rank and file stand eager to listen and consider, and every utterance of Mr. Bryan has been, and we believe, will be, in our favor.—Atkinson Plain Dealer.

Concerning the printing law, H. R. 571, introduced at the last session of the legislature by Hon. (S) A. E. Sheldon, and passed without anyone knowing its nature, the Printer's Auxiliary says:

The present printing board recognizes the new law so far as the newspaper part is concerned advertising for bids in newspapers which, under the old law, would not have been "legal." Then the balance of the business of the board is done practically under the old law, all that part of house bill No. 571 relating to the appointment and duties of a state printing expert being ignored. The question naturally arises, if that part of the new law which was considered the most important part of the bill when it passed is to be repealed by the board, why should not that part relating to the newspapers be also repealed by them, and the advertising, as well as the other work of the board, be done under the old statute.

This, it will be observed is exactly the position taken by this paper ever since the enactment of the law, and it is the position which almost every newspaper in the state will take.

General Coppinger and staff passed through Harrison last Thursday evening from the west, in the private car and in company with general manager J. R. Buchanan of the F. E. & M. V. R. The General was enroute to Ft. Robinson to review the troops there; after which he will resume his journey to Omaha where he is in command of the military department of the Platte. The General has just returned from Montana where he has been investigating the recent Indian outbreak.—Siox County Journal.

Mrs. Ed Hatt took the morning freight for Valentine, Wednesday morning where she will be joined by Miss Maud Van Buskirk on a trip for Indianola Iowa.

Miss Maud Van Buskirk went to Valentine last Friday night, where she will spend a few days visiting friends, prior to her departure for Indianola, Iowa, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. William K. Crabbe, and attend normal during the month of August. Gordon Journal.

L. L. Morrill and the Stansbie Bros. shipped two cars of cattle to Omaha, last evening.

James Forbes shipped two cars of cattle and S. S. Sears one on the extra Wednesday morning for South Omaha. Mr. Forbes and John O'Connor went with the cattle.—Hqannis Tribune.

Geo. Webb is filling Mr. Colby's place for a few weeks. Miss Gresson returned Saturday from her visit to Black Pipe. Capt. Archer is the latest acquisition to our carpenter force.

Reuben Quick Bear's family went out to Oak Creek for a vacation. Who was the man who wanted to see Spotted Tail and Rain-in-the-Face?

Misses Hilda and Malvina Balgord are visiting with the family of J. B. Tripp.

NARPA TANNA.

Sineon.

Sineon is rejoicing over the rain and growing crops.

Misses Burleigh, Moranreidee, Hudson and Dayton were doing business in Valentine last week.

Sheriff Strong was with us a while this week. He has a warm place in his heart for Sineon which city life can not fill.

Sam Hudson brought a new McCormick mower from Valentine Tuesday and will commence mowing about August 1st and will commence mowing about August 1st and will commence mowing about August 1st.

Rees Bros. purchased 200 acres of land from Mrs. Sarah Peyton last Thursday. This will give them an abundance of hay as well as some range. Our citizens are beginning to realize the worth of good hay land and we predict that south Cherry county will soon have many well improved homes.

Misses Jennie, Rosa and Carrie Moranreidee, Maud Bennett and Cassie Richardson, Messrs. Davis, Cleirik and J. C. Reere attended Gordon Valley church and Sabbath school last Sunday. We believe that if our young folks could have more of such society they would soon place their names upon some church roll.

Davis, of Georgia. Both animals unbranded. A liberal reward will be paid for the return or information concerning either or both, to W. E. WAITE, Chesterfield, Cherry county, Nebraska. 29
