bud, were in town Saturday and went east Sunday.

Miss Ollie Dewey is in the city from Woodlake this week taking treatment of Dr. Lewis.

Mrs. Goldie Beed has been visiting with her parents, J. C. Pettijohn and wife, this week.

C. A. Eovejoy was in town Tuesday from the hay flats—the first time for about six weeks.

Pete DeCory has finished his new house, on the reservation, and is about half done haying.

The family of G. H. Rienert have moved into the Fischer property on south Cherry street.

J. G. Stetter returned to his business at Cody, Monday morning, after several days' visit with his family.

A traveling representative of A.
Hospe, the Omaha piano jobber, is in town with a load of pianos.

Sadie Dewey was in town a few days this week on her way home from Lusk, Wyoming, to Woodlake.

Dr. J. B. Wells and family returned from Boyd county Saturday morning after an extended business trip.

came over from Rosebud Saturday and Sunday morning went to Omaha to see the Exposition.

There was a dance at Crookston last Saturday night. Several of the young folks from here attended and reported a general good time.

G. H. Rienert left Sunday morning for Osceola to look after business interests. George says he intends locating on a farm in the near future.

Jas. Irwin and Joen Steadford returned from Cuba, Monday much broken in health. The boys had been with Uncle Sam's pack trains at Santiago.

Egbert Bonnen was down from Gordon Saturday. Since selling his ranch near Gregory, Egbert has been running a livery stable in Gordon and has put in his spare time buying and selling horses.

Amos Strong will ship a load of horses to Worthington, Minn., the last of the week. Amos has as fine a lot of horses as can be found in this section of the country and should realize a handsome profit from his venture.

Harry Tucker, of Co. H., 2d Neb.
Vols., returned home from Chiekumauga this morning.

Miss Stoner left this morning for Peru, to take up her duties as precep-tress of the normal school.

The general impression now is that the Twelfth Infantry will be sent to Cuba on garrison duty, instead of being returned to Ft. Niobrara.

ard Jaycox, of the Table was thrown from a horse and fractured an arm.
Monday morning. Drs. Compton and Lewis were called to attend the injured girl.

U. G. Stevens informed the editor Saturday night that he was not in the race for superintendent. Ulysses is a good friend of the editor but as this is not a republican year we are glad to note that he has no ambition, politically.

Mr. Easley authorizes us to say that he is not in any sense a candidate for the republican endorsement for county superintendent. This simplifies matters to a considerable extent, and it is probable that the candidate will be a woman.

Miss Magrie Herring went up to Valentine Saturday evening to file on a claim, Miss Fannie Clark was up there Monday for the same purpose.
Ainsworth girls are a busy fraternity, as sure as you live.—Ainsworth Star-Journal.

Miss Etta Brown returned last week from Iowa and the southeastern part of the state, where she had been spending her vacation. Miss Brown is prominently mentioned as the possible candidate for the superintendency of Cherry county schools on the republican ticket.

Through a misunderstanding John Fersti's "Notice to Hunters" made it appear that he absolutely forbid hunting on his place. Mr. Fersti's only object was to protect the quail at his farm. Quail are very beneficial to his gardens and orchards, and he does not wish them exterminated.

At a special meeting last Friday evening the school board accepted Miss Bruner's resignation as teacher in the intermediate department of the public schools, and elected Lottie Hubbard to fill the vacancy. Miss Hubbard is a Cherry county lady, and has a first class reputation as a teacher.

The Eastern Star celebrated the anniversary of the birth of Robert Morris the founder of the order, in a neat and appropriate manner last evening at Cornell Hall. The exercises were presided over by Worthy Patron Thompson, and addresses were made by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Munshower, Mr.
Towle and Judge Walcott, songs and recitations occurring in the intervals.
The ladies furnished an excellent supper after the exercises were completed.

Strictly Business.
Don't judge the NEWS-DEMOCRAT by this issue, nor by the next. The paper will be enlarged and improved in other ways as soon as we can complete a deal for a new power press.

As an advertising medium this paper stands second to none in northwest Nebraska. It has a larger circulation than any other paper along this line of road. If deemed necessary the books will be thrown open for inspection in support of this claim.

More real news of interest to the people of this locality will be found in this paper than in any other.

This office is thoroughly equipped and all kinds of job work, plain or fancy, can be turned out in short order.

Just when he should have been doing two men's work, the editor caught a bad cold and has worked but two days this week, hence the delay and general lack of enterprise in this week's paper. If our foreman hadn't been a crackerjack the paper would still be unprinted.

THE EDITOR'S REMARKS TO
THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT
READERS.

It is with pleasure that we this week address the readers of the WESTERN NEWS-DEMOCRAT. The readers of the Valentine Democrat know us, but our purchase of the plant, good will and subscription list of the Western News we have several hundred new readers, and it is to them we wish to speak principally.

First, we wish to assure these new readers that we are not nearly so bad a man as we have been painted. Secondly, we wish them to withhold judgment on us for a few weeks, until they become acquainted. Thirdly, we wish them to call at our office and meet us personally, at their earliest opportunity. These preliminaries over, we can proceed to in a measure advise our readers of the policy the paper will pursue.

Realizing the importance of the stock raising industry in Northwest Nebraska, the paper will devote considerable space to the interests of the cattlemen, and we wish that all who are interested or have anything to offer that will benefit this class of readers to communicate with the editor.
Nothing of interest or value will be overlooked, and we intend making this department of the paper superior to that of any other in the northwest.

As a newspaper we will try to not only live up to the reputation gained by The Democrat, but make the reputation still better. It will be our endeavor to get not only as much news as possible but to present in a clear, readable and unobjectionable manner.

Politically, the paper will be run in the interests of the fusion forces of the nation, state and county. "Silver and Reform" might express the policy in a nutshell. People may call us "demo-pop," but if they do will glory in the title. Originated as an epithet, the word "demo-pop" has come to mean something good and pure and honest. Both "demo" and "pop" mean the people, and nothing could be higher nor better for a man or party than to be able to say, "I represent the people." We realize that there are conflicting elements among the populists and democrats of this county, and it will be our aim to harmonize them so far as we can. War among ourselves can only result in our defeat and a victory for the enemy. Democratic by education and inclination, we believe in the rule of the majority, and when its action proceeds from conviction, we believe the majority will be always right. There is little difference in the fundamental principles of democracy and populism, and it is our hope that at no distant day the parties will be one in name as well as principle.

Populists and democrats will both find a warm welcome at our office, and we hope that all will make this their headquarters when in town. Every word we have written has been written in earnest. Time will prove it.

Geo. Miller, who left here with the 12th Infantry in the capacity of teamster, returned from the front Saturday morning much broken in health. He was in the hospital immediately before his return and is now under the doctor's care at the home of his father northwest of town.

I hereby call a meeting at the News office of the People's Independent Party voters of Valentine precinct, for the purpose of electing 10 delegates to attend the county convention. Said meeting will convene Saturday, Sept.
3, at 8 o'clock prompt. A good attendance is desired, as a precinct ticket is to be placed in nomination.
GUS CARLSON, Com.

Notice to Non-Resident.
Henry Auguston will file notice that on the 15 day of August, 1895, W. R. Towne, county judge
