WILL MAUPIN'S WEEKLY

AND TO OTHER FOLK:

the first number of my new journal "WILL MAUPIN'S WEEKLY." It will be a greatly enlarged field without any less promulgation of economic and industrial principles in Nebraska for a live, snappy, progressive weekly journal of news and comment that are working for the material and social advancement of Nebraska. It may be in mind and purpose publishing, but I am going to try it out, and give to it the uted for my journal--"WILL MAUPIN'S WEEKLY." Of course I might have christened it with some other name, but I wanted something distinctive, something not easily confounded with seek to make political issues out of purely moral questions; it will not attempt the impossible to accomplish at once by legislative enactment and with a constable's club some-thing that will fully accomplish. But "WILL MAUPIN'S WEEKLY" will stand for progress all the way, for corporation regulation and municipal cleanliness. Above all it will stand, ever-ready to defend the sovereignty of States, for the conservation and development of her resources, the proper management of the better education of her own citizenship as to their own state.

to carry out my end of it. The financial success depends wholly upon the active cooperation of the things that "WILL MAUPIN'S WEEKLY" believes in and will advocate. I think I know Nebraska, her greatness and her needs, as well as the things that will carry out the program herein outlined, then I have made a failure of my life work. I am going to work together for Nebraska.

--in advance. Your credit is good, of course, but the printermen and the pressmen are waiting for you.

Yours for Nebraska,

WILL M. MAUPIN.
