A FINE OLD FOSSIL

Uncle Joe Cannon says it is high time to quit muckraking and go to building men up instead of tearing them down. It all depends upon the definition of "muck-raking." Uncle Joe defines it as exposing the men who have been using public office for the purpose of fastening special privilege about the necks of the people.
He does not say that this is his definition, but that is what it is. The plain people know that what Cannon and Roosevelt and others call "muckraking" is merely bringing to light the devious and sinuous methods that special privilege has used to enslave the aforesaid plain people. The so-called "muckrakers" have served a splendid purpose, in that they aroused the public to a knowledge of how it had been gouged by the special interests, and once aroused the public has set about remedying matters. The result of this has been a terrific howl from special privilege and graft thus exposed.
When you hear a man complaining about "muckrakers" it is safe to say you are listening to a man who has been caught with the goods on him.
